Introduction

The Wheelock Family of Eden and Cambridge has left few direct clues about their ancestry. The clues that exist are indirect and sometimes contradictory. Nonetheless, a reasonably clear picture can be constructed from the bits and pieces of evidence found in the historical record. Lucy Wheelock, founder of Wheelock College in Boston, descends from the Eden and Cambridge Wheelocks, which makes this line all the more interesting. Marcus Warren Waite, in his book "The Wheelock Family of Calais, VT" identifies the Eden Wheelocks as descendants of Gershom Wheelock, son of Ralph; yet says nothing further about them. Walter Toby Wheelock, in his book "The Wheelock Family in America, 1637-1969" goes a bit farther and makes note that Stephen Wheelock and Lucretia Newton were in Hubbardston, Massachusetts in 1781 "and they (or son) later moved to Eden, VT"; but nothing further is said, no supportive evidence is offered, and the line is not followed past their children. But the statement points us in the right direction.

The next clue involves their daughter, Tabitha. The census shows Stephen Wheelock in Hubbardston in 1790, then in Cheshire County, NH in 1800. The Keene, Cheshire Co, NH vital records give the birth of Tabitha Wheelock as 21 Sep 1788, Eden, VT; while the Hubbardston vital records give a date exactly one year off, 21 Sep 1787, daughter of Stephen and Lucretia.

Is this the same person? The presence of Stephen and Lucretia in Cheshire County is confirmed by deeds; and NH vital records show several of their children married there. So perhaps the Keene Tabitha is their daughter, and the Eden reference, though probably incorrect, ties the family somehow to Eden. Perhaps they lived there for a time before Tabitha was married.

Lucy Wheelock, Descendant of the Eden Wheelocks, and Founder of Wheelock College in Boston

The first Wheelocks to appear in the Eden area are Walter, Martin, Daniel, and Samuel, who are placed there as early as 1810 by census, probate, and land records. Of these four, Walter is the only one whose ancestry can be directly proven from the vital records. The birth date given by his Eden death record matches the birth date of Walter, son of Stephen and Lucretia, as recorded in Hubbardston, MA. Furthermore, his death record states that he was born in Hubbardston, MA; so it is certain that Walter is indeed the son of Stephen and Lucretia.

The evidence for Martin is not as compelling; but nevertheless, it seems reasonably certain that Martin was also the son of Stephen and Lucretia. His approximate age at death matches the Hubbardston birth record for Martin, son of Stephen and Lucretia. Martin and Walter engaged in land transactions together, so it is plausible they were brothers.

And the evidence for the other two brothers is weaker yet. No Massachusetts or New Hampshire birth records have been found for Daniel or Samuel; however, both have births recorded in Vermont. Daniel's birth record identifies him as the son of Walter (sic) and Lucretia, and indicates that he was born in Keene, NH. The record probably has the father incorrect, confusing Walter (who had been prominent in Eden and Cambridge) with Stephen. Daniel named one of his sons Stephen, and his birth date fits well into the pattern of births for Lucretia (Newton) Wheelock. Based on this, we conclude that he is the brother of Walter and Martin.

Samuel's birth record gives no indication of parentage or place of birth. Though his birth date also fits well into the pattern of births for Lucretia, the possibility exists that he is a cousin or more distantly related. Samuel is the grandfather of Lucy Wheelock, founder of Wheelock college in Boston; so it is particularly frustrating that no solid evidence exists to tie him into this family. However, in a delightful twist of irony, it turns out that Lucy Wheelock is tied into the family as the g-granddaughter of Walter Wheelock through her maternal grandmother, Lucy J. Wheelock.

Stephen Wheelock of Shrewsbury and Hubbardston, MA, and Cheshire Co, NH

6. Stephen⁶ Wheelock (Nahor⁵, Samuel⁴, Samuel³, Gershom², Ralph¹), born 22 Feb 1750/51, in Shrewsbury, Worcester, MA.¹⁷ He married Lucretia Newton 18 Jan 1774, in Shrewsbury, Worcester, MA.¹⁷ She was the daughter of Elisha Newton and Sarah Miles. Lucretia Newton was born 4 Feb 1756, in Shrewsbury, Worcester Co, MA.¹⁷

Notes for Stephen Wheelock: Stephen fought in the Revolutionary War, serving as a Private in Captain Job Cushing's Company of Minutemen which marched in response to the Lexington Alarm of 19 April 1775.

Walter T. Wheelock lists two additional children, Stephen and Samuel, one (unspecified) having birth date 19 Feb 1795, the other a presumably later birthdate. He also indicates that some members of this family went to Eden, VT.

 In 1778, Joe Grimes, Jr., of Hubbardston, deeded lands to Stephen Wheelock (Worcester County Deeds, book 79, page 127). Stephen Wheelock is enumerated in Hubbardston, MA, in the 1790 Census, with 1 male older than 16, 2 males younger than 16, and 5 females. In 1790, he deeded land to William Hunting, of Hubbardston, MA (Worcester County Deeds, Book 109, pg 103), after which he appears in no further Massachusetts Census records. In 1795 he bought 120 acres in Alstead, NH, in partnership with David Bennett of Hubbardston, MA. In 1796 the property was sold to Amos Gale; the deed was signed by Stephen Wheelock, Lucretia Wheelock, and David Bennett. (Cheshire County Deeds, Vol26, pgs 170, 174, 253.) He is enumerated in Cheshire County, NH, in the 1800 Census. His son, Emory, married Martha Hill 3 Dec 1800 in Peterborough, Cheshire Co, NH. His son Walter married Betsey Johnson 25 Apr 1806 in Marlborough, Cheshire Co, NH [See Note 1]. And the Tabitha Wheelock who married Israel Marsh 11 May 1812 in Keene, Cheshire Co, NH may have been his daughter.

His son Walter moved to Eden, VT, and first appears there in the 1810 census. The weight of evidence strongly suggests that his son Martin Wheelock moved there in a similar time frame.

The birth of his presumed son, Daniel Wheelock, is not found in the VRs, but Daniel's appearance in Eden, the naming pattern in his family, and his death record strongly suggests that he is the son of Stephen and Lucretia. Another early settler of Eden, VT, Samuel Wheelock, b. 1797, may also have been a son of Stephen and Lucretia.

Stephen Wheelock's death date is not known, but a guardianship was filed for Daniel Wheelock, in Eden, VT, in 1813 (NEHGR, Vol 66, pg 20).

NOTES

1) The marriage of Walter Wheelock and Betsey Johnson is recorded in the New Hampshire VRs; and confirmed in "Gregory Stone Genealogy: Ancestry and Descendants of Dea. Gregory Stone of Cambridge, Mass., 1320-1917", by J. Gardner Bartlett.

2) A marriage intention for Sarah Wheelock and William Murdock, was filed in Hubbardston, 13 Jan 1833.

Children of Stephen Wheelock and Lucretia Newton:

- 7 i. Emery Wheelock, born 20 Nov 1775, in Shrewsbury, Worcester Co, MA,¹⁷ died 2 May 1841, in Jaffrey, Cheshire Co, NH.¹⁸
- 8 ii. Salley Wheelock, born 1 Oct 1778, in Hubbardston, Worcester, MA,¹⁹ died 24 Dec 1865.
- iii. Naby Wheelock, born 12 May 1781, in Hubbardston, Worcester, MA.¹⁹
- 9 iv. Walter Wheelock, born 8 Dec 1783, in Hubbardston, Worcester, MA,¹⁹ died 24 Apr 1867, in Cambridge, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁰
- v. Martin Wheelock, born 17 Feb 1786, in Hubbardston, Worcester, MA,¹⁹ died 1786, in Hubbardston, Worcester, MA.¹⁹

According to Hubbardston Vital Records, Martin was age 9 months at time of death.

- vi. Tabitha Wheelock, born 21 Sep 1787, in Hubbardston, Worcester, MA.¹⁹

This may be the same Tabitha Wheelock that married Israel Marsh in Keene, NH, 11 May 1812. The clues are: 1) The Keene Vital Records record the birth date of Tabitha Wheelock (m. Israel Marsh) as 21 Sep 1788, exactly one year from the date given in the Hubbardston VR, suggesting one of the dates is in error by 1 year. The Keene VRs, however, give her birth place as Eden, VT. 2) Tabitha's brother, Walter Wheelock, was an early settler of Eden, VT (see notes for Walter), and her father may also have lived there for a time; possibly explaining the Eden reference in her Keene birth record. 3) Tabitha and Israel Marsh had a daughter named Lucretia, possibly after Tabitha's mother, Lucretia Newton.

- vii. Lucretia Wheelock, born 1 Apr 1790, in Hubbardston, Worcester, MA.¹⁹
- 10 viii. Martin Wheelock, born 13 Sep 1792, in Hubbardston, Worcester Co, MA,¹⁹ died 16 Nov 1840, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁰
- 11 ix. Daniel Wheelock, born 1 Mar 1794, in Keene, Cheshire Co, NH,²¹ died 8 Jul 1868, in Lowell, Orleans Co, VT.²⁰

- x. _____ Wheelock, born 19 Feb 1795, in Hubbardston, Worcester, MA.¹⁹

Walter T. Wheelock gives his name as "Samuel (Stephen?) Wheelock".

7. Emery⁷ Wheelock (Stephen⁶, Nahor⁵, Samuel⁴, Samuel³, Gershom², Ralph¹), born 20 Nov 1775, in Shrewsbury, Worcester Co, MA,¹⁷ died 2 May 1841, in Jaffrey, Cheshire Co, NH.¹⁸ He married Patty Hill 3 Dec 1800, in Peterborough, NH.²² Patty Hill was born about 1785,²³ died 21 Oct 1858.²³

Notes for Emery Wheelock: Emory settled in Peterborough, NH, returned to Jaffrey, NH; settled on lot 14, range 6, afterward removed to lot 10, range 6, where he died. He and his wife had five children. "This History of Jaffrey", by Cutter refers to her as Martha Hill, yet the New Hampshire marriage record refers to her as Patty Hill. The Hubbardston Vital Records record the birth of Emery, "Nov. 19, 1775."

Children of Emery Wheelock and Patty Hill:

- 12 i. John H. Wheelock
 ii. Stephen Franklin Wheelock. He married (1) Eliza Snow DATE UNKNOWN.¹⁸ He married (2) Augusta Capron DATE UNKNOWN.¹⁸
 iii. Elizabeth Wheelock, born 2 Feb 1809.¹⁸ She married (1) Ashley Loring DATE UNKNOWN.¹⁸ She married (2) Austin Badger DATE UNKNOWN.¹⁸
- Ashley Loring was from Peterborough. Ashley and Elizabeth moved to Medina, OH, where he died. She later married Austin Badger of Medina.
- 13 iv. Nancy Wheelock, born 20 Sep 1811.¹⁸
 v. George Boyden Wheelock, born 6 May 1822,²⁴ died 9 Jun 1822.²⁵

8. Salley⁷ Wheelock (Stephen⁶, Nahor⁵, Samuel⁴, Samuel³, Gershom², Ralph¹), born 1 Oct 1778, in Hubbardston, Worcester, MA,¹⁹ died 24 Dec 1865, buried in Eden Corners Cemetery, Eden, VT.²⁶ She married Abel Smith.²⁶ Abel Smith died 15 Jan 1860, buried in Eden Corners Cemetery, Eden, VT.²⁶

Notes for Salley Wheelock: Captain Abel Smith was formerly of Hubbardston, MA, located in Eden, VT. They had three sons, Abel, Asa, and John, and nine daughters, Sally, Lucretia, Matilda, Marcia, Lorenza, Katherine, Betsy, Martha, and Mary. Abel and Salley are buried in Eden Corners Cemetery. Their daughter Lorenza Smith married (1) Daniel Clark, and (2) Winslow Wheelock. (Src: Records of Marcus Warren Waite; kindly supplied to Elizabeth (Wheelock) Davis by William Waite, son of Marcus Warren Waite.)

Children of Salley Wheelock and Abel Smith:

- 14 i. Lorenza Smith, born about 1812,²⁷ died 15 Jul 1850.²⁶

- ii. Betsey Smith. She married Winslow Wheelock. He was the son of Martin Wheelock and Rachel Ordway. Winslow Wheelock was born 24 Jan 1825, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,²⁰ died 25 Jul 1892, in Morristown, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁸

9. Walter⁷ Wheelock (Stephen⁶, Nahor⁵, Samuel⁴, Samuel³, Gershom², Ralph¹), born 8 Dec 1783, in Hubbardston, Worcester, MA,¹⁹ died 24 Apr 1867, in Cambridge, Lamoille Co, VT,²⁰ buried in Smilie Cemetery, Cambridge, VT.²⁰ He married (1) Betsey Johnson 25 Apr 1806, in NH.²² He married (2) Salome Jacobs 5 Mar 1815, in VT.²⁰ Salome Jacobs was born about Apr 1795,²⁹ died 21 Jan 1873,³⁰ buried in Smilie Cemetery, Cambridge, VT.³⁰

Notes for Walter Wheelock: The death of Walter Wheelock is recorded in Cambridge, VT. It indicates that he was born in Hubbardston, MA; died 24 Apr 1867, age 83y 4m 16d. The implied birth date of 8 Dec 1783 confirms his identity as the son of Stephen Wheelock and Lucretia Newton.

It is presumed that this is the same Walter Wheelock that married Betsey Johnson in NH, and fathered at least one child there, and several others in Eden VT. It is also presumed that Walter married (2) Salome Jacobs in Cambridge, VT [See Note 1].

Walter must have come to Eden, VT before 1810, when he is enumerated there in the census. Several others from Hubbardston, MA, were also early settlers there.

His first wife, Betsey, probably died before 1815, when Walter married Salome Jacobs. Walter (age 63, born MA) and Salome (age 53, born NH) are enumerated in the 1850 Census, living in Eden, VT with Nelson W. (age 17), Lorrestice(?) (age 15) and Luellah S. (age 13), all presumed to be children of Walter and Salome, though their births are not in the VRs. Betsey and Amaziah are identified as children of Walter and Salome by their death records. Marcus Warren Waite identifies the following additional children, too old to appear with this family in the 1850 Census: Susan, Addison (m. Martha Pierce), Weston, and Julia. The 1830 census shows 8 children under 20 in the household.

Walter died of a fracture of the hip at age 83, and is buried in Smilie Cemetery in Cambridge, VT.

NOTES

[1] There are several relationships here that cannot be strictly proven from the records, but for which the weight of evidence is strong. These relationships are taken one at a time:

First, the Walter Wheelock that fathered children in New Hampshire and Vermont with Betsey _____ could be a different Walter from the one who married Salome Jacobs; implying the existence of two Walter Wheelocks in Eden at the time. The vital records show children born to Walter and Betsey Wheelock in Eden between the years 1806 and 1812. They show a marriage for Walter Wheelock and Salome Jacobs in 1815 which specifies that this is Walter's first marriage, implying a different Walter from the one that previously married Betsey. In addition, there are two death records for Walter Wheelock. One, recorded in Cambridge, specifies that Walter is the wife of Salome, died 4 Apr 1864, ae 83. The second, recorded in Eden, does not specify the spouse, gives a death date of 24 Apr 1864, ae 83y 4m 16d, and states that he was born in Hubbardston, MA.

However, the argument for a single Walter Wheelock is stronger. The Census records for 1810 and 1820 show only a single Walter. Census records for 1830, 1840, and 1850 show only Walter and his son, Walter, Jr. In addition, it is very likely the two death records are one and the same. The dates "4 Apr 1864" and "24 Apr 1864" are suspiciously similar, and the fact that both are 83 years old implies a transcription error, probably on the "4 Apr 1864" date. The Vermont VRs are filled with duplicate death records.

The Vermont VRs are clear that several children were born to Walter Wheelock and Betsey _____, but is this the Betsey Johnson that married Walter Wheelock in 1806, Marlborough, Cheshire Co, NH? The census records show that Walter's parents lived in Cheshire County, NH, in 1800. Land records confirm their presence in Alstead, Cheshire Co, NH in 1796 (Cheshire Deeds, Vol 26, pg 170, 174, 253). Walter's brother, Emory, was married in Cheshire County; and his sister, Tabitha, may also have been married there. The first child of Walter and Betsey, Walter, Jr., was born in NH in 1806, according to the Vermont VRs. These facts strongly suggest the conclusion that Walter's wife, Betsey, of Eden, VT, was in fact Betsey Johnson. At least one published genealogy draws the same conclusion: "Gregory Stone Genealogy: Ancestry and Descendants of Dea. Gregory Stone of Cambridge, Mass., 1320-1917", by J. Gardner Bartlett.

Given the facts, the provisional conclusion is that there was only one Walter Wheelock in the area, and that Walter's first wife, Betsey Johnson, died between 1812 and 1815, and the marriage record to his second wife, Salome, in 1815, is in error when it states that this was his first marriage.

Notes for Betsey Johnson: The New Hampshire marriage record indicates that both Betsey and Walter were from Marlborough. Betsey probably died before 1815, when Walter married Salome Jacobs.

Notes for Salome Jacobs: Salome Jacobs may be the daughter of Amaziah Jacobs and Submit, of Hanover, NH. LDS records give her birth date as 30 Apr 1796, per NH Index of Births, early to 1900.

The marriage of Luella Wheelock of Cambridge, VT, and John D. Andrews, 22 Jun 1856, is recorded in Cambridge, VT. (Src: Vermont VRs).

10. Martin⁷ Wheelock (Stephen⁶, Nahor⁵, Samuel⁴, Samuel³, Gershom², Ralph¹), born 13 Sep 1792, in Hubbardston, Worcester Co, MA,¹⁹ died 16 Nov 1840, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,²⁰ buried in Eden Corners Cemetery, Eden, VT.²⁶ He married Rachel Ordway DATE UNKNOWN.²⁰ Rachel Ordway was born about 1794,⁴⁴ died 1 Dec 1840, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,²⁰ buried in Eden Corners Cemetery, Eden, VT.²⁶

Notes for Martin Wheelock: There is no proof that Martin is the son of Stephen Wheelock and Lucretia Newton, but he is presumed to be so based on the following arguments:

1) Martin, per Vermont VRs, died 16 Nov 1840, age 48, implying a birth date of 1792, the year in which Martin, son of Stephen and Lucretia was born.

2) Another child of Stephen and Lucretia (Walter) moved to Eden, VT in the same time frame that Martin did (ca 1810).

3) Walter and Martin engage in several land transactions together in Eden (Eden, VT Deeds 1802-1908, Vol 4, FHL Film # 28166; Book 3, Pages 99, 132).

Martin Wheelock was a delegate to the 1836 Constitutional Convention. (Src: "A Walk Through the Garden of Eden", published by the Eden Historical Society).

He left no will, but his administration of estate was filed in Lamoille Co, dated 1841, mentions Martin and Winslow Wheelock as administrators, and S. Wheelock as either a debtor or debtee.

"The Wheelock Family in America, 1637-1969", by Walter Tobey Wheelock indicates that Martin Wheelock married H. M. Stearns. This cannot be correct, given that this marriage occurred in 1874, per Vermont Vital Records. In fact, the Martin that married Hattie M. Stearns in Berlin, VT, was a grandson.

Notes for Rachel Ordway: Marcus Warren Waite identifies her maiden name as "Ordway".

Children of Martin Wheelock and Rachel Ordway:

- i. Martin N. Wheelock, born 12 Jan 1817, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁰
- 20 ii. Martin N. Wheelock, born 24 Oct 1818, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁰
- iii. Winslow Wheelock, born 25 Oct 1818, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁰
- iv. Abigail Wheelock, born 24 Aug 1820, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,²⁰ died 3 Mar 1842,²⁰ buried in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁰

Abigail Wheelock's death record does not specify age, but it is assumed to be the same Abigail, daughter of Martin and Rachel that was born in 1820.

- v. Winslow Wheelock, born 24 Aug 1820, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁰
- vi. Nehemiah Wheelock, born 8 Jan 1823, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,²⁰ died 23 Sep 1840, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.⁴⁵
- 21 vii. Joseph W. Wheelock, born 24 Jan 1825, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,⁴⁶ died 21 Feb 1876, in Berlin, Washington Co, VT.²⁸
- 22 viii. Winslow Wheelock, born 24 Jan 1825, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,²⁰ died 25 Jul 1892, in Morristown, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁸
- ix. Calvin Wheelock, born 8 Jan 1832, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁰

This may be the Calvin that married Emma Buell, and resided in Eden around 1874.

x. Rachel M. Wheelock, born 22 Jun 1835, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁰

11. Daniel⁷ Wheelock (Stephen⁶, Nahor⁵, Samuel⁴, Samuel³, Gershom², Ralph¹), born 1 Mar 1794, in Keene, Cheshire Co, NH,²¹ died 8 Jul 1868, in Lowell, Orleans Co, VT,²⁰ buried in Eden Corners Cemetery, Eden, VT.²⁶ He married Betsey Phelps DATE UNKNOWN.²⁰ Betsey Phelps was born about 1786,⁴⁷ died 7 Dec 1843,²⁰ buried in Eden Corners Cemetery, Eden, VT.²⁰

Notes for Daniel Wheelock: There is no proof that Daniel is the son of Stephen Wheelock and Lucretia Newton, but he is presumed to be so based on the following arguments:

 1) Stephen and Lucretia moved from Hubbardston, MA to Cheshire Co, NH between 1790 and 1800, according to the census and land records. Their sons Emery and Walter were married there. Their daughter Tabitha was probably married in Keene, Cheshire Co, NH.

 2) The death record for Daniel indicates that he was born in Keene, Cheshire Co, NH, in 1794, which is where Stephen and Lucretia probably were at the time.

3) Other members of this family moved to Eden, VT. Walter and probably Martin moved there in the same time frame that Daniel first appears there (1810-1815) [see Note 1]. Tabitha's Keene marriage record refers to her as "from Eden, VT".

4) To confuse the issue, Daniel's death record indicates that he was the son of Walter and Lucretia. If it had referred to Stephen and Lucretia, there would be little question about his ancestry; but the reference to Walter is problematic. His brother, Walter, and his nephew, Walter, Jr., were prominent people in Eden, and it is entirely possible that the reference is in error, confusing his brother with his father.

5) Both Daniel and Walter Wheelock had close ties to the family of Jeduthan Stone, suggesting a close relationship between Daniel and Walter. In 1813, Daniel chose Jeduthan Stone in Eden, VT, as his guardian (Orleans County Probate Records, 1796-1843, Vol 1, pg 174). Jeduthan Stone lived in Hubbardston, MA then moved to Eden, VT, as did the Wheelock family. And it is likely the Stones and Wheelocks knew each other in Hubbardston, before moving to Eden. Jeduthan's daughter, Eliza Stone, married Walter Wheelock's son, Walter, Jr.

6) The onomastic evidence is strong. His first son was named Stephen, probably after his father. His daughter, Salley, may have been named after his sister. The name Daniel appears in the family, though several generations back.

7) Daniel's birth date fits well into the pattern of births for his mother.

Daniel is enumerated in the 1850 Census living in Waterville, VT, farmer, age 55, born in NH.

Also in the household are Eunice Phelps, age 75, born in Mass, and Alice Wheelock, age 26, born in VT.

Notes

[1] The first record in Eden, VT, of Walter Wheelock is 1810, when he is enumerated in the Census. The first record of Daniel in Eden is in 1813, when Jeduthan Stone was appointed his guardian.

[2] The Vermont Vital Records show a marriage of Betsey Mellisa Wheelock of Eden, VT, to Jareb K. Richards, 9 Apr 1846. Betsey Mellisa Wheelock, born 25 Apr 1826 in Eden, apparently went by the name Mellisa, and is referenced in later records as Mellisa B. Wheelock. A descendant of Mellisa places her in this family, as does Marcus Warren Waite.

[3] Marcus Warren Waite also shows Betsey Wheelock and a Melissa Wheelock in this family, as two separate individuals. The latter is married to J. K. Richards. No birth, death, or marriage information is given about the former. The two are assumed to be the same individual here.

Notes for Betsey Phelps: Betsey's last name (Phelps) is identified in the Vermont death record for her son, Stepeh Wheelock, 4 Sep 1884.

Children of Daniel Wheelock and Betsey Phelps:

- i. Stephen Wheelock, born 28 Aug 1813, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,²⁰ died 4 Sep 1884, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁸

Stephen Wheelock, age 35, is enumerated in the 1850 Federal Census, living in Eden, VT, with Submit Wheelock, age 45, and Calista Wheelock, age 7. The family is living in the household next to Levi and Cordelia Wheelock. Submit Wheelock, daughter of _____ Jacobs, born in Waterford, died 10 Dec 1883 (1893?), age 84 years, recorded in Eden, VT, vital records. According to LDS Records, Submit Jacobs was the daughter of Amaziah Jacobs and Submit, born 23 Jun 1802, Waterford, Caledonia Co, VT; and was the sister of Salome Jacobs, who married Walter Wheelock. Stephen's Eden death record gives age 69 at death (sic), and identifies his mother as Betsey Phelps. Stephen Wheelock, of Eden Mills, VT, is listed as a farmer in the 1883-1884 Eden business directory. Eliza Stone was born 24 Jul 1805,⁵³ died 1 Jan 1857,²⁰ buried in Smilie Cemetery, Cambridge, VT. He married (2) Colby Dane 6 May 1858.⁵⁴

Notes for Walter Wheelock: Walter's birth is recorded in Eden, VT, and indicates that he was born in NH, probably in Marlborough, where his parents lived at the time of their marriage.

Notes for Eliza Stone: The death record for Eliza indicates that she was the daughter of J. Stone and Azubah; "Gregory Stone Genealogy: Ancestry and Descendants of Dea. Gregory Stone of Cambridge, Mass., 1320-1917", by J. Gardner Bartlett, identifies Eliza's parents as Jeduthan Stone and Azubah Merriam, of Hubbardston, MA, and Eden, VT. Jeduthan Stone was chosen by Daniel Wheelock as his guardian in 1813, Eden, VT.

Notes for Colby Dane: Colby Dane's last name is difficult to read in the Vermont VRs, and may be Zane, or a variation.

Children of Walter Wheelock and Eliza Stone:

- 25 i. Walter Judson Wheelock, born 29 Mar 1829, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,²⁰ died 15 Jul 1904, in Waterville, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁸

Daniel Pierce was born 17 Jul 1801,³² died 28 Aug 1848.³²

Notes for Lucy J. Wheelock: The birth of Lucy Wheelock is given as 23 May 1809 in the "Pierce Genealogy", in disagreement with the 23 May 1808 date given in the Vermont VRs. The evidence linking Lucy (Wheelock) Pierce with the daughter of Walter and Betsey (Johnson) Wheelock is as follows: (1) the 23 May 1808 and 23 May 1809 birth dates are sufficiently similar to suspect a typographic or transcription error, (2) Lucy's father, Walter Wheelock, engaged in land transactions with Daniel Pierce, and (3) Lucy's sister, Lucretia (Wheelock) Stone, name a child Lucy Pierce Stone.

21. Joseph W.⁸ Wheelock (Martin⁷, Stephen⁶, Nahor⁵, Samuel⁴, Samuel³, Gershom², Ralph¹), born 24 Jan 1825, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,⁴⁶ died 21 Feb 1876, in Berlin, Washington Co, VT.²⁸ He married Laura E. Phillips DATE UNKNOWN.⁶⁹

Notes for Joseph W. Wheelock: The birth of Wilson Wheelock, son of Martin and Rachel, is recorded in the Vermont Vital Records, 1825. However, no further record of Wilson is to be found in the VRs or elsewhere. On the other hand, the death of a Joseph W. Wheelock, born 1825 in Eden, son of Martin and Rachel, is recorded in Berlin, VT. Joseph W. Wheelock had grandchildren with middle name Wilson. It is presumed that his middle name was Wilson, and that he is identical with the Wilson Wheelock whose birth is recorded in Eden in 1825.

Winslow Wheelock, b. 24 Jan 1825, must have been a twin, if the reasoning is correct. Winslow appears later in the vital records, he administered his fathers estate in 1841, and his death is recorded in Morrystown, VT. He was certainly a different person than Joseph W. Wheelock.

Joseph W. Wheelock must have been a town clerk in Berlin, as his signature appears on many of the vital records there in the 1870s. He was an editor per his Berlin death record. According to WTW, he had a one-half interest in the "Green Mountain Freeman" in 1869, and owned all of it in 1873. His son, Herbert R. Wheelock, later published the paper, which was located in Montpelier, VT. (Src: "The Wheelock Family in America, 1637-1969", by Walter T. Wheelock, 1969.)

Lorenza Smith was born about 1812,²⁷ died 15 Jul 1850.²⁶ He married (2) Betsey Smith. She was the daughter of Abel Smith and Salley Wheelock. He married (3) Elvira Alexander 27 Oct 1875.²⁸

Notes for Winslow Wheelock: Winslow was an administrator of his father's estate in 1841. A Lewis Wheelock, son of W. and L. E. Wheelock, died in Eden, VT, 23 July 1843, and is buried there per Vermont VRs. The 1850 Federal Census shows Edmund, age 8, and Martin, age 4, in this family. His marriage record to Elvira Alexander indicates that he was from Morrystown, and that it was his third marriage. He is listed in the 1883-1884 Morrystown business directory as a farmer, residing at the same address as his son, Martin. (Source: Gazetteer of Lamoille and Orleans Counties, VT.; 1883-1884, Compiled and Published by Hamilton Child; May 1887, Page 345-363; transcribed by Tom Dunn.)

Children of Winslow Wheelock and Lorenza Smith:

- i. Edmund Wheelock, born about 1842.²⁷

Edmund Wheelock, born about 1842 in Vermont, is enumerated in the 1880 Census living in Rock Run, Stephenson Co, IL, with his wife, Anna, and son of 5 months, Winslow.

- ii. Martin Wheelock, born about 1846.²⁷

Martin Wheelock, of Morrystown, VT, son of Winslow, is listed in the 1883-1884 Morrystown business directory as a farmer, residing at the same address as his father. (Source: Gazetteer of Lamoille and Orleans Counties, VT.; 1883-1884, Compiled and Published by Hamilton Child; May 1887, Page 345-363; transcribed by Tom Dunn.) Martin Wheelock, age 74, is enumerated in the 1920 Federal Census living in Morrystown with his brother, Levi W. Wheelock, age 46.

23. Levi⁸ Wheelock (Daniel⁷, Stephen⁶, Nahor⁵, Samuel⁴, Samuel³, Gershom², Ralph¹), born 19 Mar 1822,⁴⁸ died 19 Mar 1892.²⁸ He married (1) Cordelia Brown 29 Apr 1847, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁰ He married (2) Lucretia Curtis 28 Mar 1866, in Lowell, Orleans Co, VT.²⁰ She was the daughter of Asa Curtis and Lucy _____. Lucretia Curtis was born 6 Jan 1824,⁷⁰ died 2 Jul 1888, in Lowell, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁸

Notes for Levi Wheelock: There is no birth record for Levi, but the record of his second marriage indicates that he was the son of Daniel and Betsey Wheelock, born in Eden, residence Lowell, VT. It is presumed, though not proven, that this is the same Levi that married Cordelia Brown in 1847. Levi and Cordelia Wheelock are enumerated in the 1850 Federal Census living in Eden, VT, next to Stephen and Submit Wheelock. Emogene Wheelock, age 6 months, is living in the household. Emogene's marriage record to D. Eugene Curtis in 1886 indicates age 29.

Levi died "of poison", according to the Vermont VRs; he was age 69y 11m 19d at his death on 19 Mar 1892.

Children of Levi Wheelock and Cordelia Brown:

- i. Eunice Wheelock, buried in Eden Corners Cemetery, Eden, VT.²⁰

There is no birth record for Eunice, but her death record indicates that she is the daughter of Levi and "Corddie" Wheelock. The death date is given as "8 Aug 1851", age 18y 7m 25d, implying a birth date of 14 Dec 1832 (sic).

- ii. Clarence Wheelock, born 3 Oct 1851,⁷¹ died 5 Jul 1875, in Lowell, Lamoille Co, VT.²⁸

A. Samuel Wheelock of Waterville, Eden, and Colchester, VT

31. Samuel¹ Wheelock, born 21 Jun 1797,⁷⁸ died 1878.⁸³ He married (1) Polly Adams 6 Jan 1820, in Waterville, Lamoille Co, VT.⁷⁸ Polly Adams was born 1798,²⁰ died 1841,²⁰ buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Cambridge, VT.²⁰ He married (2) Jerusha _____ DATE UNKNOWN.⁸⁴ Jerusha _____ was born about 1802, in MA.⁸⁴

Notes for Samuel Wheelock: Samuel Wheelock was an early settler of Eden, VT. The first record of him there is a deed dated 13 Jan 1818 in which he appears as a grantee [1]. He is enumerated there in the 1820 Census, next to Martin Wheelock, with one other female adult living in the household, presumably his new wife, Polly Adams. He is enumerated in the 1830 Census living in Waterville with an adult female, four young boys, and two young girls. This tabulation agrees with the recorded births of his children in Waterville. In 1840 he is enumerated in Essex, Chittendon, VT with an adult female, six boys, and three girls. In 1850, he is enumerated in Colchester, Chittenden, VT, next to Willard Wheelock. He is listed as a house builder, age 50, born in NH, living with Jerusha Wheelock, age 47, son Timothy Wheelock, age 17, and daughters Columbia A. Wheelock, age 16, Eleanor Wheelock, age 8, and Emeline Wheelock, age 6. He is enumerated in the 1870 Census living in Burlington, VT, with his wife Jerusha.

The IGI shows the birth of Columbia Wheelock, 20 Aug 1834 in Waterville, presumed to be the daughter of Samuel and Polly (Adams) Wheelock.

The ancestry of Samuel Wheelock is not known for certain, but it is very likely he is either the sibling of, or closely related to brothers Daniel, Martin, and Walter, who settled Eden, VT in the same time frame. The following facts add weight to the argument: (1) Samuel appears next to Martin in the 1820 Census, (2) his Waterville record of birth (21 Jun 1797) fits well with the chronology of births in the family of Stephen and Lucretia (Newton) Wheelock, and (3) his place of birth (NH) indicated in the 1850 census is consistent with the location of the family at that time.

He died 1878 in Cambridge, per the Gazetteer of Lamoille and Orleans counties [2].

Children of Edwin Wheelock and Laura Pierce:

- i. Lucy Wheelock, born 1 Feb 1858, in Cambridge, Lamoille Co, VT,⁷⁹ died 2 Oct 1946, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.

Lucy Wheelock, educator, and founder of Wheelock College, was born 1 Feb 1857, in Cambridge, VT, the daughter of Edwin Wheelock and Laura Pierce. Her father graduated from the University of Vermont, was a Congregational clergyman, a superintendent of Schools, a representative to the Vermont Legislature, and, briefly, a state senator. Her mother was a teacher and briefly ran a small school. Her grandparents, Samuel Wheelock and Polly Adams were early settlers of Eden, VT. Strong religious influence and upbringing characterized Lucy's early years in Cambridge, VT. It was through her mother's Bible readings and catechisms that she learned to read; and her fathers faith and religious influence affected her deeply, remaining with her as a positive force for the rest of her life. Her early education took place at home and in the small school that her mother ran for a year or two. At the age of twelve she went to Underhill Academy in Vermont, where she studied Latin, History, and other subjects. After a year at Underhill, she moved with a neighbor to Reading, MA, in order to attend high school. Here, in addition to her high school studies, she travelled into Boston for French lessons and began to learn translation, at which she became adept. Later, she would continue her study of languages, including German, and engaged in the translation of many works, including those of the German educator Friedrich Froebel, and some of the childrens stories of Johanna Spyri, author of Heidi. After graduating from Reading High School in 1874, Lucy returned to Cambridge, VT, for a brief period of teaching. Her ambitions were to attend Wellesley College, which was set to open in 1875 as a model educational institution for women. To prepare for Wellesley, she applied to (and attended) the Chauncy-Hall School, one of the few private coeducational institutions in Boston. Here she met Alice Stone Blackwell, a fellow student who went on to become a leading women's rights activist, and editor of the Woman's Journal. The two remained close for life. Lucy continued her study of languages at Chauncy-Hall, and soon completed her college preparatory work for Wellesley. It was during this time that she visited a kindergarten class, and found her avocation. She was so taken with the idea of teaching children, that she dropped her Wellesley ambitions, and approached Elizabeth Peabody for advice on how to enter the profession of kindergarten education. Ms. Peabody, one of the first American followers of the educational philosophy of Friedrich Froebel, advised Lucy to enter the training school of Mrs. Ella Snelling Hatch, where Ms. Peabody was a frequent lecturer. And thus Lucy's education career was started. Upon completion of kindergarten training in 1879, she returned to Chauncey-Hall where she taught the kindergarten class for ten years, an endeavor she enjoyed immensely. She revered Froebel, and followed his curriculum closely, but was not afraid to deviate from it when she felt the need. Her kindergarten became well known, even controversial. She was criticized by strict Froebellians for her deviation from the curriculum, and she had a steady stream of visitors who came to observe her teaching methods. In 1888 Boston instituted kindergartens in the Boston Public Schools. Lucy was asked to establish a training class for teachers. She was reluctant to take on such a formidable task, but on advice, agreed to do so. The class was established and in time it began attracting students nationally. After two years it became an independent training school. Later, the Wheelock School expanded it's curriculum, and, by 1939 had 325 students and 23 faculty. With success of her class at Chauncey-Hall, Lucy soon became active in the kindergarten movement nationally. She served as president of the International Kindergarten Union (IKU) from 1895-1899. She chaired a committee appointed by the IKU to to prepare a definitive report on the status of kindergarten philosophy and methods. During this time, she worked hard to unite the more liberal and conservative factions on this committee, but ultimately was unable to do so. She later became involved in the National Congress of Mothers, a forerunner of the Parent Teachers Association. In 1929 she was appointed to the education committee of the League of Nations. Lucy was one of the first to apply kindergarten teaching methods to Sunday School classes. She taught classes throughout the 1880's and 90's, and became well known for her Sunday School teaching. She was soon asked to teach other Sunday School teachers. In these training classes, she showed how Froebels methods could be used to improve their teaching, and enhance the interest of the students. Her Saturday afternoon training class at the Primary Sunday School Union was very popular, and led to requests for her to speak at Sunday School teachers conventions nationwide. Lucy wrote extensively throughout her career. Among her translated works were "Red-Letter Stories" (1884) and "Swiss Stories for Children" (1887), both translated from the writings of Johanna Spyri, author of "Heidi". She produced numerous stories with moral themes for children which were well read in her time, including "Allan's Thanksgiving", "Clifton's Lunch", "Cousin Ruth", and "A Lily's Mission". During her Sunday school years she published a weekly column "Hints to Teachers" in The Congregationalist, and edited a weekly Boston Sunday school journal, The Child's Hour. In 1920 she published "Talks To Mothers" (with Elizabeth Colson), a book on the subject of child rearing, schooling, and the relationship between home and school. She retired as director of the Wheelock School in 1939. The school was incorporated in that year, and in 1941 it became Wheelock College. Lucy Wheelock died in Boston, Massachusetts, on October 2, 1946. (Written by Roderick B. Sullivan, Jr., Nov 2001.)
