Julia Ann Chase died on 19 Sep 1894,<sup>5467</sup> buried in Protection Cemetery, Sardinia, Erie Co, NY.<sup>5467</sup>

Notes for James Kimball: He was the son of John Kimball and Betsey, per Henniker, New Hampshire, birth record. Both John and Betsey are buried in Protection Cemetery in Sardinia, where James is buried.

He was a farmer in Holland, Erie County, New York for most of his life. He married his first wife, Esther Wheelock, probably in Holland circa 1826. Shortly after she died, he married his second wife, Julia Ann Chase, circa 1842.

He wrote his will on 25 Feb 1885, and it was admitted 5 Sep 1888. In it he left bequests to his wife, Julia Ann Kimball; his daughters Lucy Kimball, Hellen Nichols, Lucinda E. Whaley; his granddaughters Effie Smith, and Jennie Kimball, daughter of Winfield Kimball deceased; his grandson Frank Kimball son of Delos Kimball; his great grandson Jimmie D. Kimball, son of Frank Kimball; Filena Russell, wife of Joseph Russell; and his son Chapin Kimball. He appointed Marcellus L. Bickerman sole executor.<sup>5468</sup>

Research Notes:

In 1850 he was living in Holland, New York, age 49, born New Hampshire, farmer, with his wife, Julia, age 41, born New York, and children Deloss, 19, Chapen, 15, Lucinda, 7, all born in New York. Lydia Farrington, 20, born New York, was also in the household.

In 1855 he was again in Holland, age 54, born New Hampshire, with his wife, Jullia Ann Kimball, 43, born in Cayuga County, New York, his daughters Lucy, 27, Hellen, 16, and Estes [Esther?] S., 11, all born in Erie County. Mariam Chase, mother, age 66, born in Cayuga County, was also in the household.

In 1860 he was again in Holland, living alone with his wife Julia.

In 1865 he was living in Holland, age 64, married twice, with his wife, Julia A. Kimball, 55, married once, with two children (probably Filena and Lucinda Esther), Esther S. Kimball, 21, and Lucy Kimball, 38.

In 1870 he was in Holland, 69, with Julia A. Kimball, 60, Esther Kimball, 26, and Lucy Kimball, 42.

In 1875 he was a retired farmer in Holland, 74, with his wife Julia, 63. Living in nearby dwellings are Delos and Marentha Kimball, with their son Frank; Dexter and Esther Whaley, with their daughter Julia; and Chapin and Lucy Kimball, with three children.

In 1880 he was in Holland, 79, living alone with his wife, Julia, 70.

Notes for Julia Ann Chase: She is said to be the daughter of James Chase and Miriam Challis, per family trees at Ancestry.com and FamilySearch.org, consistent with the fact that Mariam Chase (listed as "mother" on the census) was living with Julia and her husband James in Holland in 1855.

Julia Ann wrote her will on 19 Nov 1891, calling herself Juliann Kimball of Holland, New York, widow of James Kimball. The will was approved on 22 Oct 1894. In it she left bequests to her oldest daughter, Philena Russell, widow of James Russel; Jimey D. Kimball; Ellen Lucretia Kimball, Morris George Kimball; and to her daughter, Ester Lucinda Whaley, the widow of Dexter Whaley. She appointed Frank Whaley executor. The probate records contain guardianships for Jimmie D. Kimball, Ellen Lucretia Kimball, and Morris George Kimball.<sup>5469</sup>

Research Notes:

The 1865 New York state census states that Juliann Kimball was married once (to James Kimball) and had two children. Her 1891 will identifies the two children: Philena Russell, widow of James Russell, and Esther Lucinda Whaley. Per census records, Philena was born about 1834 in New York (before Julia and James were married), and Esther Lucinda was born 1844 (after Julia and James were married). If these records are correct, then Philena was born out of wedlock. This is consistent with the fact that Philena's daughter, Ida May (Russell) Savage calls her mother Philena Chase in her (Ida's) 1924 Wyoming County, New York, record of marriage to Luther M. Charles. Chase is Juliann's maiden name.

He was appointed administrator of the estate and after settling all claims sold the farm, and accompanied his mother and sister to Moline, Ill. After a month or two he started for Madison, Wisconsin to visit his uncle, Daniel Larkin, and in February, 1870, with his brother, Jerome B., went on to Springfield, Mo. There they rented a farm of 400 acres and conducted it for two years. In the meanwhile his mother had settled on her farm in Wisconsin and he returned there for a visit and then went back to Holland, NY. After clerking in a store there for one year he worked as a hand in a blacksmith shop, in which he later became a partner; but after two years gave up his prospects there and returned to Wisconsin and while managing his mother's farm devoted his spare moments to study and in December, 1876, was graduated from the Northwestern Business College. On 1 May 1877, he came to Moline and entered the employ of the Victor Scale Company as traveling builder and also worked occasionally in the shops, and in July, 1881 he became superintendent of the shops of this company and continued for four years. Notes for Harry Wheelock: The following is excerpted from "Biographical Review, Biographical Sketches of Leading Citizens of Livingston and Wyoming Counties, New York", Boston, Biographical Review Publishing Company, 1895.

Harry served in the War of 1812, but afterward worked on a homestead till 1819, when he was twenty seven years old. He then came to Livingston County, and purchased a tract of land in Leicester, whereon a log house was the only improvement. After this purchase he returned to Ontario County, and married Judith Gillett. The young couple commenced life in the log cabin; and within its lowly walls was born Austin Wheelock, the special subject of this sketch. In due time a frame house took the place of the more primitive residence; and here Mr. Harry Wheelock remained until his death, which occurred on June 13, 1873, when he had passed from his fourscore years, and had seen the county develop from wilderness to wealth.

From that age until his retirement sixty years later, he was almost constantly engaged in some form of work connected with the manufacture of woolens. When his father retired in 1846, he formed the firm C.A. & S.M. Wheelock, with his brother Charles, and his father. The firm manufactured satinets, plaid linseys, and tweeds. The business prospered. In 1870, Silas M. Wheelock bought the plant of the Harris Woolen Company at Putnam, CT, of which he became treasurer and manager. In 1883 he bought the Central Mill in Uxbridge, MA, and formed the Calumet Woolen Company to operate that extensive plant. In 1886 that company bought the Uxbridge Woolen factory (later called the Hecla Mill), which was operated in connection with the Calumet Mill until 1905. From 1846 until 1891, Mr. Wheelock was owner of Waucantuck Mills, as the plant of the C.A. & S.M. Wheelock Company was called. For forty three years (1858-1901) he was a director of the Blackstone National Bank. He represented the Second Worcester Senatorial District in the Massachusetts Legislature, 1888 and 1889. He was a delegate to the 1900 Republican National Convention, nominating William McKinley for the Presidency; and served Uxbridge as a selectman for three years.

According to these town records, Woodward died in 1879 (when the town paid for a coffin), and Lucinda died in 1896 (when the town, again, paid for a coffin).

Notes for George G. Wheelock: Geo. H. [sic] and Jane are enumerated in the 1880 Census, living in Sugar Grove, Warren Co, PA. Living in the same household is Mary Rice, age 10, identified as the niece of George Wheelock, head of household. She was actually the niece of his wife, Jane (Allen) Wheelock. Jane died in 1811.

The 1894 death record for George G. Wheelock in Warren County, Pennsylvania states that he was the son of Abner and Lydia, and was married at the time of his death, indicating that he remarried after Jane's death. Though no marriage record has been found, the records indicate that his second wife was Belle (Buchanan) Wheelock. For discussion, see the notes for Belle Buchanan.

Notes for Jane Allen: Jane's surname taken from the death certificate of her son. Her parents are indirectly identified in Genealogical and Personal History of the Allegheny Valley, by John W. Jordan, vol. 1, p. 406. Her sister, Mary Ann Allen, married William B. Rice, and had daughter Mary Allen Rice, b. 4 Nov 1869, who lived with George and Jane in 1880, and is called "niece" in the census.

Notes for Belle Buchanan: In 1880, Belle Buchanan, age 27, servant, born New York, was living in Youngsville, Warren County, Pennsylvania, not far from Sugar Grove, Warren County. Her parents (whose identity is revealed below) were enumerated on the same census page.

She likely married George Wheelock shortly after his first wife died, probably around 1852. Their son, George Granville Wheelock, was born 5 Sep 1883 in Sugar Grove.

In 1900 Belle Wheelock, age 47, widowed, was again in Sugar Grove, dressmaker. There were no others in the household.

On 7 Jan 1897, Mrs. Belle Wheelock was elected a Sunday school teacher in Sugar Grove.<sup>5755</sup>

Belle's father, John Parmelee Buchanan, lived in Jamestown, Chautauqua County, New York, not far from Sugar Grove - which may explain why Belle had moved there by 4 March 1902, when her father's obituary identified her as one of five surviving children, referring to her as "Mrs. Belle Wheelock of Jamestown."<sup>5756</sup>

The 21 Oct 1903 edition of the Jamestown Evening Journal noted that "Miss Buchanan and Mrs. Belle Wheelock of Jamestown [were] spending a few days with friends" in Youngsville, Pennsylvania (where the family had previously lived, and where her father was buried).

The 1905 Jamestown city directory listed her as a resident, and identified her as the widow of George G. Wheelock. George Wheelock [her son], upholsterer, was living at the same address.

In 1910 Belle Potter [sic], widow, age 57, was living with her son, George Wheelock, again in Jamestown. George's wife, Marcia F. Wheelock, and their daughter, G. Ruth Wheelock were also in the household, along with George's brother in law, James V. Nash. It is not known whether Belle remarried to a man with surname Potter, or whether the name Potter in the 1910 census is an error. In all previous and later records, she is called Belle Wheelock. Belle Potter does not appear in Jamestown in any other U.S. or New York state census records.

In 1913, Mrs. Belle Wheelock and George Wheelock attended the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Melvina Alvord in Jamestown.<sup>5757</sup>

The 2 Jan 1917 edition of the Jamestown Evening Journal noted that Mrs. Belle Wheelock was visiting relatives in Warren (near Sugar Grove, Pennsylvania).<sup>5758</sup>

In 1920 Belle Wheelock was listed in the Jamestown city directory as the widow of George. Belle Wheelock is found in Jamestown in the 1925 New York state census, age 72, and in Ellicott in the 1930 federal census, aged 77. She is not found in the 1940 census.

She is likely the Belle Wheelock that died 19 June 1931 in Ellicott, Chautauqua County, New York.

Explanation of Some Inconsistencies in the Records of Belle Wheelock:

The 1900 census record for Belle Wheelock in Sugar Grove states that she was born July 1862, but also states that she was 47 years old. Both cannot be correct. Most of the census records for Belle support an 1852 or 1853 birth date. The "1862" is difficult to read in the census record, and could be "1852".

The 1900 census also states that Belle Wheelock was the mother of seven children, five of whom were living. There is no other indication that Belle had that many children. Since she was single in 1880, and married George G. Wheelock in 1883, she couldn't have given birth to that many children between those two dates. The 1910 census says she had one child, still living. This is more consistent with the other records.

As noted above, the 1910 census lists her as Belle F. Potter, "mother" of George G. Wheelock, head of household. There are two likely explanations for the surname Potter: (1) it was a mistake, the informant or census taker got it wrong, or (2) she married someone with surname Potter between 1905 and 1910. He died or they divorced, and she reverted back to the surname Wheelock. The other possible explanation - that Belle Potter and not Belle Wheelock was his mother - seems unlikely given that Belle Wheelock and George Wheelock clearly had a close relationship since they were living at the same address in 1905, and attended a funeral together in 1913. Belle Potter does not appear in any other census records (U.S. or NY state) living in Jamestown; nor does the Jamestown City directory show a Belle Potter living there. There was a Bertha Bell Potter in Jamestown in 1900, married to George W. Potter. The two also appear in the Jamestown city directory in 1901. But Bertha Bell Potter also appears in the 1910 census living in Jamestown with her husband George W. Potter, at a different address in and a different household from the Belle Potter that was living with George Wheelock. Genealogies at Ancestry.com indicate that she was a different woman altogether, not the mother of George Wheelock. Finally, a search of New York state newspapers at FultonHistory.com on 24 Sep 2022 did not reveal any Belle Potter living in Jamestown in the correct time frame. This all points to the conclusion that the surname Potter was a mistake.

Research Notes:

A Belle Wheelock, age 47, born July 1852, NY is enumerated in the 1900 Census living in Sugar Grove, Warren Co, PA, dressmaker. There were no others in the household. She was the mother of 7 children, 5 of whom were still living in 1900.

The 1894 death record for George G. Wheelock in Warren County, Pennsylvania indicates that he was the son of Abner and Lydia, and was married at the time of his death.

In a 1905 city directory for Jamestown, NY, Belle Wheelock is listed as the widow of George G. Wheelock, and is living at the same address as George Wheelock, upholsterer (352 East 4th St).<sup>5759</sup>

In the 1907 Jamestown, NY city directory, she was living at the same address as George Wheelock, loungemaker.

Per 1910 Census, Belle, widow, is living with her son, George Wheelock, in Jamestown, NY. She is listed as Belle F. Potter, age 57, placing her birth around 1853.

She is listed as Belle Wheelock in the Jamestown city directory in 1920 as the widow of George. Belle Wheelock is found in Jamestown the 1925 New York state census, age 72, and in Ellicott in the 1930 federal census, aged 77. She is not found in the 1940 census.

A Belle Wheelock died 19 Jun 1931 in Ellicott, Chautauqua Co, NY, NY death certificate number 37137.<sup>5760</sup>

Parentage:

Mrs. Belle Wheelock of the Jamestown, New York, area seemed to associate with people whose surname was Buchanan. For example, the Jamestown Post-Journal notes in 1903 that Mrs. Belle Wheelock and Miss Buchanan of Jamestown spent a few days with friends.<sup>5761</sup>

In 1913 she attended the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Melvina Alvord in Jamestown with her son, George Wheelock. Also at the funeral was Fred Buchanan of Terra Haute, Ind., and Mrs. Charles Buchanan and son of Warren, Pa.<sup>5757</sup>

Finally, an obituary in the Jamestown Post-Journal makes clear why Belle would be associating with people with that surname. The obit is for John Parmelee Buchanan who died in Jamestown on 4 March 1902. Five children survived him: George W. Buchanan, of Tidioute, Pa.; Charles A. Buchanan of Kane, Pa.; Frederick H. Buchanan of Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Mrs. Belle Wheelock and Margery Buchanan of Jamestown.<sup>5756</sup>

Notes for Alfred Wheelock: Alfred left Vermont in 1849, crossed the Isthmus of Panama, and arrived in San Francisco in July, on board the Capital. He had a mining claim in Placerville in partnership with Alfred Randolph.

Alfred Randolph's sister, Matilda Randolph, moved from the midwest to California in 1864, having been recently widowed. She married Alfred Wheelock on June 19, 1867. They had two children, Carrie Belle, born March 1, 1869, and Samuel Alfred, born October 4, 1871. Sam married Phoebe Reynolds on 1901. They have no children. Carrie married Martin Luther Shellenbarger on Jan 14, 1906. Their son, John Alfred, was born on Jan 10, 1907. Alfred Wheelock died August 29, 1876 of 'inflammation of the bowel'.

It has been incorrectly reported in various places that Alfred was 'murdered' or 'killed by Indians'. He left his home in Vermont in anger, and for many years withheld communications with his father, who though he was dead. Finally, his wife to be, Mathilda (Randolph) Baldwin secretly wrote to Alfred's father, telling of his whereabouts and safety. His father, Jonathan, was overjoyed at the news, and wrote a warm letter back to Mathilda, who then showed it to Alfred.

Source: Private Records of Jacki Hanson, a descendant of Alfred Wheelock and Matilda Randolph, Aug 1999. Jacki has written a book about the life of Alfred's wife, Mathilda Randolph. The book is entitled "Matilda's Story: A Biographical Novel", by Jacquelyn Hanson, published by Glenhaven Press, 1997, ISBN: 0963726536.)

This is, no doubt, the Alfred Wheelock buried in Hicksville Cemetery, Hicksville, Sacramento Co, CA.<sup>5789</sup> The headstone gives his birth date as 12 May 1827, death date 18 Aug 1875.

The birth date on the headstone doesn't match the Vermont vital records, and the death date doesn't match that given by Jacquelyn Hanson. Both dates are suspect.

His probate proceedings were probably started shortly before 22 November 1876, the date on a creditor notice published in the Sacramento Bee on 11 Dec 1876, suggesting that he probably died several months prior to November 1876 - consistent with the 29 Aug 1876 death date given by Jacquelyn Hanson.<sup>5790</sup>

Notes for Lewis C. Baldwin: Lewis C. Baldwin died in an accident while digging a well on his property near Randolph, Riley Co, Kansas. The death notice identifies him as the son-in-law of Mr. Gardner Randolph, "a gentleman well known in this part of the State."<sup>5785</sup>

Matilda Baldwin administered the estate of her late husband, probate filed in Riley Co, KS, 13 May 1864. Gardner Randolph and James Humphrey posted bond.<sup>5791</sup>

The probate records identify three minor children under 14 years of age: Mary Jane Baldwin, Elizabeth Baldwin, and Lewis Gardner Baldwin.<sup>5792</sup>

Lewis Baldwin's probate records identify the date of death as 15 Aug 1863, in contrast to the newspaper articles, which indicate a death date of 20 Aug 1863.

Notes for Matilda Randolph: Matilda was born in 1836 in a log cabin in Illinois, where her parents were the first white settlers. In 1854, when Matilda was 18, her father took the family and migrated to Kansas where they were again the first white family into the area. Gardner Randolph hoped to get Kansas admitted to the Union as a slave state.

She spent ten years in Kansas, enduring not only the vagaries of Kansas weather, but the conflict raging about her in the days leading up to and including the Civil War. These conflicts included land disputes as abolitionists tried to drive her father out. There she married and bore four children, battling floods, prairie fires and drought before her husband was killed.

The following spring, in 1864, the loss of the war by then apparent, her father decided to join the family members already living in California. As a widow with three small children, the youngest of whom learned to walk on the trek across, Matilda traversed the Oregon-California Trail in a covered wagon, arriving in Hicksville, near Sacramento, in September of 1864.

There she met Alfred Wheelock, a young Argonaut, and found happiness again in a new love and new life. Throughout the story shines the courage of a woman who would not allow the world to defeat her.

Matilda's great-granddaughter, Jacquelyn Hanson, wrote a book about the life of this pioneer. The book is entitled "Matilda's Story: A Biographical Novel", by Jacquelyn Hanson, published by Glenhaven Press, 1997, ISBN: 0963726536.<sup>5793</sup>

Notes for William Fry: William Fry's probate records identify his widow as Matilda V. Fry, of Hicksville, previously married with children. Matilda received a life estate in the real estate of William Fry, for as long as she remained a widow, or until death, after which the real estate transferred to various people presumed to be children or relatives of William Fry, with surnames Goforth and Hair.<sup>5794</sup>

Children of Matilda Randolph and Lewis C. Baldwin:

- i. Mary Jane Baldwin was born about Jan 1860, in KS.<sup>5795,5796</sup>

In 1880, Mary's mother, Matilda Wheelock, was enumerated in the U.S. census living in Dry Creek, Sacramento, California. Mary was not in the household. But in the neighboring dwelling is Mary Douglas, wife of George Douglas, age 20, born in Kansas, parents born in Illinois. The 24 December 1959 death notice for Mary's brother, Samuel Alfred Wheelock, confirms that her married name was Mary Douglas.<sup>5797</sup>

Mrs. Wade, a native of Kansas, crossed the plains in the early sixties with her mother and the family of her grandfather, Gardner Randolph. - 974 i. Charles Walter Wheelock was born on 11 Jun 1854, in Calais, Washington Co, VT,<sup>5807</sup> died on 9 Mar 1917, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>5808</sup>

Notes for Carlos Wheelock: In 1860 he was living in Calais, age 31, house joiner by trade, with his wife Esther A., age 24, and daughter Martha I, age 8.<sup>5816</sup>

He was enrolled in Company H, 13th Vermont regiment, but he never showed up for duty, and was dropped from the rolls in Dec 1862.<sup>5817</sup>

He went to Canada during the Civil War, leaving his family behind in Calais. His wife divorced him in 1865, and later married George H. Bennet.<sup>5818</sup>

Carlos is found in the 1881 Canada Census, in the town of Potton, Quebec, not far from the Vermont border. He was a mechanic, age 54, born U.S., living with Harriet G. Wheelock, age 33, Gertrude L. Wheelock, age 10, and George B. Wheelock, age 7.<sup>5819</sup>

In 1891 he was again living in Potton, age 61, farmer, Methodist, born in the U.S., with Harriet E. Wheelock, age 40, George Wheelock, age 17, and Ralph C. Wheelock, age 6, all born in Quebec.<sup>5820</sup>

In 1901 he was living in Potton in the household of his son, George Wheelock. The 1901 Canada census lists the birth dates of all individuals. Carlos, for some reason, probably an error, is listed as George Wheelock, born in the U.S. on 17 May 1829, carpenter by trade, Methodist by religion. His wife, Harriet, was born 12 Feb 1850 in Quebec. Their son, Ralph C., was born 18 Jan 1884, in Quebec. George Wheelock, head of household, was born 28 Feb 1873 in Quebec, Methodist, farmer. His wife, Silome, was born 3 Oct 1881 in Quebec, Roman Catholic.<sup>5821</sup>

He was still in Potton in 1911, listed in the census as "Don Wheelock," born May 1828 (sic), living with his wife, Harriet, and his son, Ralph C. His year of immigration is listed as 1861.<sup>5822</sup>

According to funeral records, he was buried on 9 Dec 1917.<sup>5823</sup> He is buried with his wife in Jones Cemetery, Vale Perkins, Estrie Region, Quebec, Canada (not far from Potton).

Research Notes:

The key evidence tying the Carlos in Canada to the son of Perez and Elizabeth is (1) his name, which is unusual within the Wheelock families of America, (2) his disappearance from Vermont, and subsequent appearance in Canada in a timeframe consistent with his Civil War records, and the divorce of his first wife, (3) the date of birth given in the 1901 census, which matches exactly with the date given in the Vermont vital records, and (4) the alignment with the family story as told in "The Wheelock Family of Calais".

There are some inconsistencies, however. He appears under at least three different names in the Canadian census records: Carlos, George, and Don. His headstone has D. C. Wheelock on it, initials presumably for Don Carlos. He probably went by that name. The name George is probably a mistake, confused with his son, who was the head of the household where Carlos lived in 1901.

His headstone has his birthdate of 1845 carved on it. This is about 16 years off from his actual birth date of 1829. His wife's headstone is nearby, clearly identifying her as Harriet Gardner, wife of D. C. Wheelock. His son, Ralph C. Wheelock is buried in the same cemetery, so it is unlikely this is not the Carlos Wheelock in the census records. The census records all have reasonable ages for Carlos; so in all likelihood, the 1845 date is an error.

Notes for Esther Ann Guernsey: Esther Ann Guernsey married Carlos Wheelock in 1849. They lived in Calais, and had one daughter, Martha. In the early 1860s, Carlos left his wife and daughter behind, and removed to Canada.

Esther divorced Carlos in 1865, and married George H. Bennet in 1867. They lived for a time in Montpelier. A few years later, Esther divorced George Bennet. She then took positions as housekeeper and governess with various employers in the Boston area.

In her later years, she lived with her nephew, Charles Guernsey, in New Hampshire, and later Montpelier.<sup>5824</sup>

Notes for Harriet Gardner: Research Notes:

Her surname is given on her headstone, and in the Vermont marriage record of her daughter, Gertrude Wheelock. Her headstone gives a birth date of 1851, in disagreement with the 1901 Canada census.

Research Notes:

The Vermont vital records incorrectly give a birth date of 11 Nov 1838, in disagreement with most of the census records, which imply 1837. The 1900 census states Nov 1837. His age at death implies a birth date of 12 Nov 1837, in agreement with his obituary in the 19 Jan 1907 Daily Journal (Montpelier, Vermont).

Notes for Olive Matilda Ainsworth: Olive was the daughter of Merrick Ainsworth and Matilda Southwick, both b. in Calais, VT, per death record.

Notes for Hattie Collier: Hattie Collier (Coller) was the daughter of Calvin Coller and Laura (Flint) Coller. She died of a cerebral hemorrhage in Calais, VT.<sup>5895</sup>

Research Notes:

The death record of Harriet Wheelock Brown states that she was born in Calais, in contradiction to her marriage record (to George Brown), which states Hardwick. Her death record states that she died 19 June 1935, but gives contradictory information about her birth date. Her age at death (83 years, 5 months, 11 days) implies a birth date of 8 Jan 1852, but the record explicitly identifies her birth date as 11 Nov 1852. Both are probably wrong. Her granddaughter, Arlene (Jeronime) Fitzgerald gives her grandmother's birth date as 8 Jan 1854. This is consistent with the 1900 census, which identifies her birth date as Jan 1854. It is also consistent with her headstone, which identifies her year of birth as 1854. The 1860, 1870, and 1880 census records also imply that she was born in 1854.

Notes for George G. Brown: He was the son of Stephen Brown and Mary Anna Brackett, per marriage record.

Children of Omar Wheelock and Hattie Collier:

- i. Flora Mabel Wheelock was born on 22 Aug 1875, in Calais, Washington, VT,<sup>106</sup> died on 11 Sep 1950,<sup>5872</sup> buried in Robinson Cemetery, Calais, VT.<sup>59</sup> She married Henry George Brown on 11 Aug 1903, in Montpelier, Washington Co, VT.<sup>5896,5897</sup> Henry George Brown was born about 1882, in VT.<sup>5898</sup>

Flora Mabel Wheelock had no children. Flora was living with her sisters, Gertrude and Ida, in Calais, VT, per 1920 Census. She is listed as married. In 1930 she is again living with her sisters, in Cabot, VT. In 1858 he married Jennie A. Holmes in Northampton. His occupation is given as blacksmith. He and his wife Jeanette had three children recorded in Northampton, from about 1859 to 1866.

In 1863, William A. Wheelock, of Chicopee, age 28, born Amherst, machinist, married, registered for the civil war draft. He had previously served in the 62nd NY regiment.<sup>5936</sup>

The administration petition for his father's probate, dated 13 May 1862, identifies Wm. A. Wheelock as a next of kin, "of Northampton in this county [Hampshire] now in the army." Wm. A. Wheelock, and his siblings Geo. V. Wheelock, and Elizabeth R. Phillips signed the probate documents on 2 Feb 1864.<sup>5937</sup>

In 1865, his wife Jennie Wheelock, age 27, is living in Northampton with her daughter, Kate, age 5, in the household of Franklin Holmes, probably a brother or close relative. She is listed as married, but William is not enumerated in the household.

In Apr 1876, Jeanette A. Wheelock was granted a divorce from William A. Wheelock for cause of desertion.<sup>5938</sup>

His whereabouts after he signed his father's probate documents on 2 Feb 1864 is unknown.

Notes for Jennie A. Holmes: She was born about 1837 in Williamsburg, daughter of George Holmes, per first marriage record, daughter of George Holmes and Electa, per second marriage record. Her death record identifies her mother's maiden name as Nash.

Notes for Roxana Amanda Tucker: Research Notes:

Though the birth date on her Vermont birth record is 27 Nov 1820, a revised record submitted by C. P. Silloway of Minneapolis, Minn in 1923 states she was born 27 Nov 1819, which agrees with the Sons of the American Revolution Membership applications (submitted by Charles Paine Silloway of Minneapolis), and her headstone.

She is enumerated in the 1880 census, widowed, age 60, living in Minneapolis, Hennepin Co, MN, with Henry F. Silloway, son, age 36, born Vermont, and Austin R. Silloway, son, age 27, born Massachusetts.

There was another Roxana Silloway living in Montpelier and Berlin, Vermont, found in the 1860, 1870, and 1880 census, daughter of Zedekiah Silloway.

Notes for Richard Flagg Silloway: He died intestate, a resident of Randolph, Norfolk County, Massachusetts. His probate records are on file in Norfolk County, case 16665. His widow, Roxanna A. Silloway posted bond on 2 Oct 1852. Next of kind are identified as Mary E. Silloway, and minors Henry Clinton Silloway and Charles Paine Silloway.

On 17 Sep 1853, Roxanna A. Silloway, widow of Richard F. Silloway, was appointed guardian to Henry C. Silloway, Charles P. Silloway, and Richard A. Silloway, all minors, children of the late Richard F. Silloway, Norfolk County case 16664.

Notes for Russell T. Wheelock: After marrying Maria L. Ober, Russell T. Wheelock moved in 1857 to a farm in Hopkinton, where he remained until 1865 when he removed with his family to Bridgewater, Vermont. Here his wife died, of typhoid fever. Shortly after her death, he married Lucia Francis Reed in the neighboring town of Woodstock. The marriage to Lucia apparently did not work out, because in May 1874, Russell T. Wheelock and Lucia F. Wheelock filed for divorce. In that same year he returned to New York and settled at Buckton in the town of Stockholm, where he resided until his death.<sup>5982</sup>

Research Notes:

R. T. Wheelock is enumerated in the 1860 census living in Hopkinton, St. Lawrence Co, NY, age 28, born VT, with his wife Maria L. Wheelock, age 21, born NY, and daughter Florence Wheelock, age 2, born NY.

He is enumerated in the 1870 census living in Bridgewater, Windsor Co, Vermont, age 37, with his wife, Mary L., age 30, born NY, and his children Florence, age 12, born NY, Mary, age 6, born NY, and Aida, age 3, born VT.

In 1880 he was living in Stockholm, with his wife, Lois, age 49, his daughters Mary N, age 16, born NY, and Ada M., age 13, born VT.

In 1900 he was again in Stockholm, with his wife, Almira (probably Harmina), born Feb 1831 in NY, married 18 years. His step daughter, Besse Boothe, was also living in the household, born Apr 1863.

In 1910 he was living in Stockholm with his wife, Elizabeth M Wheelock, age 69, born in New York. No other household members.

Notes for Maria L. Ober: "Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Gilbert and son, of Wodstock, and R. T. Wheelock of Stockholm were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ober last week." Published in the Bellows Falls Times (Bellows Falls, VT), 29 Aug 1895, p. 5, col.1; online at GenealogyBank.com, 30 Dec 2020.

She died of typhoid fever, age 31 years, 5 months, 14 days.

Research Notes:

Maria Ober, age 13, born NY, is enumerated in the 1850 census living in the household of Benjamin Ober, age 56, born VT, and Elvira Ober, age 52, born NH. Also in the household is Levi Ober, age 18, born NH.

Notes for Lucia Francis Reed: Daughter of Allen and Adeline Reed, born in Wolcott, Vermont, resident of Woodstock, per marriage record. She and Russell T. Wheelock must have divorced, because she married (second) to Erasto Atwood in Woodstock, 24 Mar 1880.

Notes for Lois Tucker: Lois Tucker was probably born in Stockholm. She lived in Stockholm with her mother, Nancy (Newton) (Tucker) Schellinger, and her husband, William Schellinger. She later married Russell T. Wheelock, his second wife, with whom she probably had no children.

Research Notes:

The probate records of Lois Wheelock of Stockholm, filed in St. Lawrence County, dated 10 June 1882, appoint Russell T. Wheelock as executor, and name the following next of kin: Abigail Cushman of Mattoon, Illinois, Lucia A. Whitney, of Southington, Connecticut, Nancy A. Cook, of Hanover, New Hampshire, Lydia Hall, of Rockville, Connecticut, Olive Hardy, Martha Hardy, Lois A.(?) Hardy, and Celia Dyke all of Stockholm, New York. Thomas Spratt, Esq. was appointed guardian of minor Lois A.(?) Hardy.<sup>5983</sup>

A St. Lawrence County deed, signed 2 July 1872, from Nancy A. Tucker et al to Lois Tucker, proves that Lois (Tucker) Wheelock and three of the women named "next of kin" in her probate papers were sisters. Specifically Nancy A. Tucker of Hanover, New Hampshire, Lucia A. Whitney of Southington, Connecticut, and Lydia Hall of Rockville, Connecticut sold several tracts of land in Stockholm to Lois Tucker for "the sum of one dollar and the promise of said Lois Tucker to support our Mother, [unreadable] Schellinger." One of the abutting parcels was owned by William Schellinger; this will become relevant in the following paragraphs.<sup>5984</sup>

The grantee, Nancy A. Tucker of Hanover, New Hampshire married James M. Cook on 17 July 1872 in Hanover, thus the reference to her as Nancy A. Cook in the probate records. Her New Hampshire marriage record identifies her age as 46, birthplace as Stockholm, New York, and her parents as Oliver Tucker and Nancy Newton, both born in Barnard, Vermont. Per Vermont vital records, Oliver Tucker married Nancy Newton in Barnard, 14 Mar 1815.

Oliver Tucker was living in Barnard, Windsor County, Vermont per 1820 census. In 1830 he was living in Stockholm, St. Lawrence County. He does not appear in the 1840 census.

The reference to their mother in the deed as "[unreadable] Schellinger" is almost certainly the Nancy Schellinger with whom Lois Tucker lived in Stockholm between 1850 and 1870. Also in the household was Nancy Schellinger's husband, William Schellinger. Per census records, Nancy Schellinger was born in Vermont, circa 1787, closely matching the birth date of Nancy Newton, 5 July 1788 in Barnard.

Putting the pieces together, Oliver and Nancy (Newton) Tucker moved from Barnard to Stockholm before 1826, when Nancy A. Tucker was born there. Oliver probably died before 1840, when he no longer appears in the census records. His widow, Nancy Tucker, married William Schellinger sometime before 1850, when they are living together in Stockholm with Nancy's daughter, Lois Tucker. Nancy (Tucker) Schellinger is supposedly buried in Union Cemetery, in Buckton, St. Lawrence County, New York, the same cemetery that Lois Tucker is buried in - but no headstone photo is posted on her Find A Grave memorial, and the relationships shown on the memorial are wrong at the time of writing, 3 Jan 2021.<sup>5985</sup>

Abigail F. Tucker (who married Clark Cushman) was born 5 Apr 1817 in Vermont (Vermont VRs, Abigail F. Tucker Cushman), and is buried in Hartland Village, Windsor Co, Vermont (not far from Barnard). She was the Abigail Cushman mentioned in Lois Tucker's will. She is probably Lois Tucker's sister.

The Nancy A. Cook mentioned in Lois Tucker's will is Nancy A. Tucker, nurse, born Stockholm, New York, circa 1826, married James M. Cook 17 July 1872 in Hanover, New Hampshire, later divorced. She was Lois Tucker's sister. The marriage record identifies her parents as Oliver Tucker, born Barnard, VT, and Nancy Newton Tucker, also born Barnard. This, along with the proof that Nancy A. Tucker and Lois Tucker are sisters (see below) proves that Lois' parents are Oliver Tucker and Nancy Newton.

Lydia Hall of Rockville Connecticut was Lydia Tucker, born circa 1823, Stockholm, New York, parents both born in Vermont, wife of Thomas Hall.<sup>5986</sup>

In 1850, Lois Tucker, age 18, was living with William and Nancy Schellinger in Stockholm.

In 1860 Lois Tucker was living with William Schellinger, age 79, farmer, born Connecticut, and Nancy Schellinger, age 73, housewife, born in Vermont.

In 1870, Lois Tucker, age 35, born New York, was living in the household of Martha M. Tucker, age 46, born

New York, and William Schellinger, age 89, born Connecticut, and Nancy Schellinger, 83, born Vermont. Lucinda Schellinger, 60, was also in the household.

On 27 Oct 1857, William Schellinger and his wife, Nancy, sold land in Stockholm to Martha M. Tucker, for $500.<sup>5987</sup>

Notes for Harmina Riggs: She was the daughter of Jehiel Riggs and Betsey Newton, per "History of Royalton, Vermont: With Family Genealogies, 1769-1911, Vol 2, by Mary Evelyn Wood Lovejoy; online at books.google.com, Mar 2014.

The 31 Dec 1916 edition of the Boston Globe documents the story of locating Manley M. Booth, the youngest son and heir of Mrs. Harmina Wheelock. He was to receive his mother's 40 acre estate near Buckton, St. Lawrence Co, NY upon the death of his step-father, Russell T. Wheelock. When Russell T. Wheelock died, the search for Manley M. Booth began. For years his whereabouts remained unknown, until he was found in an insane asylum, just a few days before the seven year statutory expiration, when the estate would have gone to his siblings.<sup>2916</sup>

Notes for George Brooks Wheelock: George and Emma married in Wisconsin, but soon returned to Vermont, where he was a railroad man at White River Junction.<sup>5994</sup>

Research Notes:

He is enumerated in the 1870 census living in Marcellon, Columbia Co, Wisconsin, age 22, born Massachusetts, with Almina Wheelock, age 18, born in Wisconsin.

In 1880 he was living in Hartford, Windsor Co, Vermont, age 32, "car repair man," with his wife Emma, age 27, born in Wisconsin, and his daughter Marion, age 4, born Vermont.

Notes for Emma Almina Meacher: Research Notes:

Judging by the proximity, dates, and the matching headstone designs in Silver Lake Cemetery, she was likely related to Dr. William Meacher (married Jane Clayton), buried near her. She was probably not their daughter, because, per History of Columbia County, Wisconsin, William and Jane were married in 1854, two years after Emma's birth.

Notes for Arthur Newhall Wheelock: "Samuel Davis, of Oxford, MA, and Joseph Davis, of Dudley, MA, and Their Descendants", by George L. Davis, published by the author, North Andover, MA 1884, has the following to say about Arthur N. Wheelock:

"Arthur N. Wheelock was educated at the Vermont University, at Burlington; for a time principle of the Barre (Vt.) Academy, and later teacher at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, at Boston."

"The Wheelock Family of Calais, VT", by Marcus W. Waite, 1940, adds the following:

Notes for Samuel Leland Wheelock: Samuel Leland Wheelock, for forty years a farmer in Whiteside County, Illinois, was born in Tyringham, Berkshire County, Massachusetts, 26 Jan 1825, son of Luther Wheelock and Clarissa Marcy. His paternal grandfather, Samuel Wheelock, was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, and during that struggle he located in Berkshire County, Massachusetts, where he cleared and developed the farm on which his son Luther, and his grandson Samuel L. Wheelock were born. Samuel L. passed his boyhood and youth on the old homestead, receiving rather a limited education by attending school during the winter months. In 1844 he married Miss Almena R. Langdon, daughter of Amos Langdon, also a resident of Berkshire County. In 1854 Mr. Wheelock and family left the east and went to Whiteside County, Illinois, where they spent the first winter in Portland. After that, he located in Prophetstown where he worked at various jobs for six years, rented land and worked it for three years, then purchased one hundred and sixty acres of land in Hume township. He improved this land, fenced it, cultivated fruit and forest trees, and added to his acreage from time to time until he had four hundred acres. In addition to farming, he engaged in raising and feeding stock for market. In 1893 he retired to Rock Falls, Illinois, where he died of a stroke on 9 Mar 1901. He was buried in Tampico Cemetery with his wife and mother.

Samuel L. Wheelock and Almena (Langdon) Wheelock had four children: Mary Amanda (m. William Dennison), Elbert E., Luther A., and Ozero, who died in infancy.

He left three brothers and two sisters to mourn his death. They were Mrs. Hugins of Rock Falls, Mrs. Breckonridge of Tampico, J. E. Wheelock of Collinsville, CT, Harlow A. Wheelock of Canton, CT, and William L. Wheelock of Bridgemark, MI.

Notes for Daniel S. Wheelock: Daniel Wheelock was among the earliest New Yorkers to follow James Strang and his religious sect to Beaver Island, Michigan. James Strang had been excommunicated from the Mormon Church for attempting to illicitly gain control of it. He had forged a letter from the recently deceased founder of the Mormon Church, Joseph Smith, stating that he, James Strang, was to be the next president of the church. Brigham Young and other church leaders saw through this deceit, leading to Strang's excommunication. But others followed Strang to the Beaver Island Colony. The sect was known as the "Strangites", and James Strang, the leader, was coronated "king" in 1850. Daniel later left the group after testifying against Strang in a federal deposition regarding counterfeiting. He returned to New York, where he married Jane Fikes, then returned to Michigan to live near his brother Benjamin, in Allegan County. He then went back to NY for "civil war defense", and returned finally to Cheboygan County, Michigan, his final resting place.<sup>6095</sup>

The Story of Daniel S. Wheelock and the Strangites, by Jan Wheelock, 1998

"In 1848, two Mormon families named Chessman and Wheelock located in Cheboygan. The former had five wives, while the latter was too poor to keep but one...Wheelock located and improved a farm in Cheboygan County and is now a well-to-do farmer." (1873) [1]

The first Wheelocks of this line in northern Michigan were brothers, Lorenzo Don and Daniel S., sons of Artemas of New York. Lorenzo was the older brother, a married man, probably enticed to the Beaver Island Mormon settlement by the promise of land. Each adult Mormon male was granted a parcel of land in the early development of the Mormon congregation under the leadership of James Strang. Whether Lorenzo heard the "word" in New York, the place of his birth, or in Ohio where he may have married, is not clear. But it is clear that he resided among the early Mormons on Beaver Island, about 1848. ref. [2]

Daniel S. Wheelock accompanied his brother, and was listed as one of the Mormons on the island at the time of the "coronation" of King James Strang. However, Daniel was employed by a non-Mormon, Mr. Peter McKinley, and it appears that Daniel's loyalty was pulled between his employer and the church. Much friction existed between the Mormons and the Gentiles, with thievery, assault, defamation and conspiracy on both sides. Daniel was not very old, only 17 in 1850, and it must have been very difficult for him to be in the middle of the two sides. One tale recalled by a woman who had been a child on Beaver Island at the time, tells of Daniel receiving a severe whipping, a probable result of that conflict (if the story is true--some historians doubt its accuracy).

"Mr. Peter McKinley at the point was now suffering considerable losses by the Mormons taking his cattle and butchering them, also other goods which they were taking. A young man, or boy, Wheelock by name, told or gave information about the butchering of the cattle. He being a Mormon boy employed by Mr. McKinley, had to suffer the penalty by receiving fifty stripes with the "blue beaches," that being one kind of their punishments. We had never heard before of the Mormons doing anything of this kind to their people. The boy had told the truth and had to suffer the cruel whipping." [3]

On April 30, 1851, President Millard Fillmore authorized legal action against the Mormons of Beaver Island. The U.S. steamer ship Michigan was sent to Beaver Island about May 23 to arrest James Strang on charges of thievery, trespassing, mail obstruction and counterfeiting. Depositions were taken for two days, and Daniel was one of those witnesses making a deposition on June 18, 1851.

"Only one person gave testimony to support the allegation that Strang and two other Mormons had counterfeited coin of the United States. The man, a former Mormon named Daniel S. Wheelock, said Strang asked him to pass counterfeit money of October 9, 1850, the morning after a George Adams theatrical production, Pizarro, in the tabernacle. Strang's wife, Mary, who suddenly had been taken ill, had remained there overnight, and the next morning, Wheelock returned to the tabernacle to get an umbrella and saw Strang there. "He wanted men to go off on a consecrating expedition and a-passing counterfeit money," Wheelock said in his deposition.

"Showed me three half dollars, and said he would make more as soon as he could get materials. They were American half dollars. Only had one in my hand. He told me they were bad." Wheelock said Strang never said anything in his presence about counterfeiting at any other time, and he said that he had never seen tools for manufacturing counterfeit coins in Strang's possession. Several Mormons testified that they had been at the tabernacle that morning but had heard no conversation between Wheelock and Strang. They said Strang was busy attending to his wife and that everyone was told to be silent." [4]

It is no surprise that the Mormons declared Daniel an apostate (September 16, 1851) and he left Beaver Island to return home to Philadelphia, Jefferson Co, New York. [5] Mr. McKinley left too, moving to Cheboygan in October 1851. Lorenzo Wheelock followed, settling a farm in Cheboygan County. James Strang was not convicted of any wrong-doing in the federal trial, but was assassinated in 1856, after which the Strangite Mormon sect was pretty much dissolved. Daniel returned to Michigan and was in Allegan County for some time before the Civil War, then enrolled in the 10th New York Heavy Artillery in New York on August 4, 1862. After the war, Daniel returned to the Cheboygan County area to farm and raise his family. Many Wheelock descendants remain in the area.

Children of Calvin Wheelock and Susan S. Dalby:

- i. Jack S. Wheelock was born in Jul 1874.<sup>3079</sup>
- ii. Joseph Wheelock was born about 1875.<sup>6176</sup>
- iii. Fanny Wheelock was born about 1877.<sup>6176</sup> He married Alva Good on 4 Jan 1899, in Conrad, Grundy, IA.<sup>6177</sup>

Notes for Benjamin C. Wheelock: Benjamin was born in South Orange, MA. He settled in North Brookfield, married, and removed to Wyoming Territory. He served in the Civil War; was mustered into service on 3 Feb 1862 with the 15th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry, serving for North Brookfield. His genealogy is written in the "History of North Brookfield, MA", by Josiah H. Temple; and appears next to that of Rufus Wheelock, also of North Brookfield, who had a son, Joseph, in South Orange. The Brookfield marriage record for Benjamin and Jane identifies Benjamin's father as Rufus (vol 101, pg 172).

Benjamin's birth date is given as 1826 on his headstone, but this contradicts "The History of North Brookfield", which gives a birth date of 1830. His 1856 Brookfield marriage record to Jane Donahue implies a birth date of 1830, and the 1900 Federal Census gives a birth date of Mar 1830.

Notes for Jane Donahue: Jane Donahue was from North Brookfield, MA. She was the daughter of Edward Donahue and Mary Boyd, per records of her great-great granddaughter, Debra Cleeton, July 1999.

Her obituary was published in the Worcester Telegram, Saturday 25 Feb 1922. She was 85 years old at death.

Children of Benjamin C. Wheelock and Jane Donahue:

- i. Abbie J. Wheelock was born in 1858,<sup>6188,6189</sup> died in 1885,<sup>6189</sup> buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery, North Brookfield, MA.<sup>6189</sup> She married Alvin Sawyer on 25 Sep 1884, in Worcester, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>6190</sup>
- ii. Benjamin Ellsworth Wheelock was born on 9 Aug 1858, in North Brookfield, Worcester, MA,<sup>945,6191</sup> died on 12 Mar 1940, in Douglas, Converse Co, WY,<sup>6191</sup> buried in Douglas Park Cemetery, Douglas, Converse Co, WY.<sup>6191</sup> He married Margaret AuFrance.<sup>6192</sup> Margaret AuFrance was born on 2 Mar 1878, in Paulding, Paulding Co, OH,<sup>6192</sup> died on 2 May 1940, in Douglas, Converse Co, WY,<sup>6192</sup> buried in Douglas Park Cemetery, Douglas, Converse Co, WY.<sup>6192</sup>

The "History of North Brookfield, MA", by J. H. Temple, 1887, gives the name as Bennie E. Wheelock; but the full name Benjamin Ellsworth Wheelock is given by, Debra Cleeton, great great granddaughter of Benjamin C. Wheelock, July, 1999. She reports the birth date for Benjamin E. as 9 Aug 1858, in contradiction to the 9 Aug 1862 date given in "History of North Brookfield". His headstone in Douglas Park Cemetery, Douglas, Converse Co, WY says the following: "Ben was well versed in the Indian languages and served many times as interpreter for the army and government agencies. He was presented with a gold headed Cane, a gift which he treasured. He was dignified, polite, friendly, and a real gentleman."

- iii. Joseph W. Wheelock was born on 25 Mar 1865, in North Brookfield, Worcester, MA.<sup>945</sup>

Francis James Wheelock moved from Wyoming to Montana, and changed his name to Frank Boyd; per records of Debra Cleeton, great granddaughter of Francis James Wheelock, July 1999. He is enumerated in the 1900 Federal Census living in Lower La Prele, Converse Co, WY. This must have been prior to his surname change to Boyd. In the household is his father, Benjamin C. Wheelock, his wife, Blanch Wheelock, age 29, himself, Francis Wheelock, age 33, their children: Raymond Wheelock, age 9, William B. Wheelock, age 8, Albert F. Wheelock, age 5, and Major Mannie Wheelock, age 3 months. Many of his children are buried under the Boyd surname in Mountain View Cemetery, Big Timber, Sweet Grass Co, MT.

Notes for Henry Wheelock: A record of marriage is published in the "The North Star" of Danville, VT, 24 Feb 1816, for Henry Wheelock and Miss Eleanor Ferry, Johnson, VT.<sup>6197</sup> Henry Wheelock, age 57, laborer, born in Mass, is enumerated in the 1850 Federal Census living in Hyde Park, VT, with Eleanor, age 60, born in Mass, Orilla, age 34, born in VT, and Hannah, age 21, born in VT. Elisha (Elihu) Wheelock, of Hyde Park, VT, age 26, s. of Henry and Eleanor, b. Johnson, VT, married Jerusha M. Hunt 3 Feb 1857. The following children of Elisha/Elihu and Jerusha are recorded in the Vermont VRs: Elizabeth Wheelock, b. 9 Apr 1863, Hyde Park; Phebe Wheelock, d. 23 Jan 1864, Hyde Park, VT, age 4y 11m 25d; and Leo Wheelock, son of E. and J. H(?). Wheelock, d. 13 Oct 1861 in Hyde Park.

There is a 22 July 1857 Worcester, MA marriage record (110:293) for Jonathan F. Wheelock (age 24, from Johnson, Vt, son of Henry and Elanor Wheelock) and Lavina Hollis, age 26, from Providence, RI.

Henry Wheelock appears in the 1850 and 1860 Census, living in Hyde Park, VT. He is not found in census records after 1860.

Children of Henry Wheelock and Eleanor Ferry:

- i. Orilla Wheelock was born about 1816, in VT.<sup>6198</sup>
- ii. Esther Wheelock was born on 13 Nov 1821, in Johnson, VT,<sup>6199</sup> died on 6 Feb 1872, in Hyde Park, VT.<sup>6199</sup> She married Joseph Heath on 21 Mar 1842, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>6200</sup>

Last name is given as Heath on the death record. The death date on the headstone reads 6 Sep 1872, yet the death record clearly says 6 Feb 1872. The birth date 13 Nov 1821 is calculated from the death date, and the age of death given in the death record.

- iii. Hannah Wheelock was born about 1829, in VT.<sup>6198</sup>

The Vermont vital records show a marriage between Hannah D. Wheelock (b. Johnson, VT) and Royal E. Smalley, 16 Dec 1850, Hyde Park, VT.

- 1023 iv. Elihu D. Wheelock was born in 1830,<sup>6201,6202</sup> died on 11 Jul 1901, in VT.<sup>6203</sup>
- v. Jonathan F. Wheelock was born in 1833, in Johnson, VT.<sup>6204</sup> He married Lavina Hollis on 22 Jul 1857, in Worcester, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>6204</sup>

Jonathan's marriage record identifies his parents as Henry and Eleanor. Jonathan and Lavina are enumerated in the 1860 Census living in Worcester, MA. Matilda Gordon, age 19, born in RI is enumerated in the same household.

Notes for Waitstill Dickinson Wheelock: According to "Wheelock Genealogy", by Carlyle Capron Wheelock and Winifred Gonseth, he "moved to Tennessee about 22".

His name is given as Waitstill Wheelock by a handwritten record supplied by Mikey Seabury (Aug 2016), who probably received it from Michal Handy, original source unknown. Carlyle Capron Wheelock gives his name as Dickinson Wheelock. He appears in the records as Waitstill Wheelock (or variations thereof), and W. D. Wheelock. He was, no doubt, named after his maternal grandfather, Waitstill Dickinson.

This is probably the W. D. Wheelock in an 1824 tax record in Cairo, Sumner Co, Tennessee<sup>6206</sup>

He appears in the 1830 Census as Waistal Wheelock, living in Sumner Tennessee; 1 male between 20 and 30, another male between 30 and 40, 2 females under age 5, 1 female between 5 and 10, and 2 females between 40 and 50.

The 18 July 1826 death notice in the Vermont Patriot of his father, Henry Wheelock, indicates that the notice was also published in Kentucky, suggesting relations there, and consistent with his marriage to Nancy Waters in Kentucky:

"Henry Wheelock d. in Johnstown, VT., on 2nd int. aged 56; Mass. and Kentucky Printers are requested, etc."

According to tax records, Waitstill had at least three children: Louisa, Mary, and Caroline.

Nearly all the info about Waitstill D. Wheelock was researched by Gregory Wayne Wheelock, 4th great nephew of W. D. Wheelock.

Children of Waitstill Dickinson Wheelock and Nancy Waters:

- i. Louisa A. Wheelock was born on 18 Feb 1822,<sup>6207</sup> died on 8 Aug 1891,<sup>6207</sup> buried in Marion Cemetery, Marion, Perry Co, AL.<sup>6208</sup> She married James H. Graham.<sup>6207</sup>

Per 1860 Federal census, her mother (Mrs. N. B. Wheelock, aged 72) lives with Louisa and her husband James Graham in Perry Co, Alabama.

- ii. Mary Wheelock

This may be the Mary Whillock that married Benjamin Taliaferro (?) in Roana Co, TN, 29 July 1845.<sup>6209</sup>

- iii. Caroline Virginia Wheelock was born about 1832.<sup>6210</sup> She married William R. Bugg on 16 Oct 1851, in Perry Co, AL.<sup>6211</sup> William R. Bugg was born on 8 Dec 1833, in AL,<sup>6212</sup> died on 2 Nov 1921, in Randolph Co, AL,<sup>6212</sup> buried in Concord Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Wadley, Randolph Co, AL.<sup>6212</sup> William R. Bugg married second Nancy A. James on 8 Feb 1853, in Autauga Co, AL.<sup>6213</sup> He married third Elizabeth Bullard on 29 Nov 1889, in Tallapoosa Co, AL.<sup>6211</sup>

While not certain, the marriage location of Caroline (in Perry Co, AL, where her sister and mother lived) suggests that she is related to, and is possibly the sister of Louise A. (Wheelock) Graham, who also lived in Perry Co, AL (in Marion). Caroline likely died before 8 Feb 1853, when William Bugg married Nancy A. James in Autauga Co, AL.<sup>6213</sup>

Notes for Moses Wheelock: A Moses Wheelock, age 79y, 4m, 17d died on 6 Oct 1882 in South Hadley, MA, implying a birth date of 20 May 1803. His birthplace is listed as "Brimfield", parents unknown.<sup>6214</sup> This is probably the son of Henry Wheelock and Phoebe Dickinson.

He is enumerated in the 1850 Census living in Williamstown, MA, age 47, laborer, born in CT (sic), wife Mary, age 47, born in MA, children Henry J., age 20, born MA, Madison J, age 18, born MA, William F., age 9, born MA, and Mary M, age 5, born in MA.

He is enumerated in the 1860 Census living in Adams, MA, with is wife Mary, children William F. and Mary M.

In 1870 he is in Chicopee, MA, age 67, born MA, with Mary, age 64, born MA, and Ellen, age 24, born MA.

In 1880 he is a widower, living in the household of his daughter, Mary Morton in South Hadley, MA. His birthplace is given as VT, and his middle initial is given as L.

His wife, Mary, must have died between 1870 and 1880. A Mary S. (Bliss) Wheelock died in South Hadley, 10 Aug 1876, age 74y, 14d, married, daughter of Ithamar and Mary, born in Wilbraham.<sup>6215</sup> This is the only Mary Wheelock in the area that died in this time period, and was probably Moses' wife.

Children of Moses Wheelock and Mary Bliss:

- 1024 i. Henry I. Wheelock was born about 1832, in Chicopee Falls, MA.<sup>6216</sup>
ii. Madison Jerome Wheelock was born on 11 Apr 1832, in Springfield, MA,<sup>6217</sup> died on 8 Nov 1907, in Pittsfield, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6217</sup> He partnered with Sara J. Fowler. Sara J. Fowler died on 24 Jul 1900, in Adams, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6218</sup>

This is probably the Jerome Wheelock enumerated in the 1860 Census living in Williamstown, MA. In 1870 he is in Cheshire, Berkshire Co, MA with his wife Sarah J, and children William H. and Emma J. In 1880 he is again in Cheshire (under the name Jerometh). In 1900 he is in Adams (under the name Madison), born Apr 1833, living with his wife Sarah, and a Ruth Wheelock, his cousin, born Aug 1845 in Vermont, widowed (per 1900 census). This could be Hannah R. Wheelock, daughter of Simon Wheelock and Rebecca Kittredge.

- iii. William Franklin Wheelock was born in 1841, in West Springfield, MA,<sup>6219</sup> buried in Forrestdale Cemetery, Holyoke, MA.<sup>6219</sup> He married Hulda Briggs on 6 Sep 1865, in Adams, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6220</sup> Hulda Briggs was born about 1841.<sup>6220</sup>

Enlisted in Company K, Massachusetts 1st Cavalry Regiment on 29 Dec 1863. Mustered out on 26 Jun 1865.<sup>6221</sup> This is probably the William F. Wheelock who died 27 Oct 1907 in Holyoke, MA. His death certificate lists place of birth as Florida, MA.<sup>6222</sup>

- iv. Mary M. Wheelock was born about 1845, in Florida, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6223</sup> She married Lyman Morton on 3 Mar 1866, in Chicopee, MA.<sup>6223</sup>

Notes for Simon Wheelock: Simon and Rebecca are enumerated in the 1850 Federal Census in Florida, MA. Simon, age 38, Rebecca, age 36, Marian, age 13, Lyman, age 11, Tabitha, age 9, Hannah, age 7, all born in Vermont. Francis (male), age 5, Sophronia, age 3, and Junitta, age 1, born in Massachusetts.

The 1860 Census shows Simeon (sic) Wheelock living with children Lyman, 20, Tabitha, 18, Hannah, 16, Francis S, 14, Sophronia, 12, Sarah J, 10, Nancy, 8, Eliza, 6, and Florence, 5. Rebecca appears to have died by that time. The ages of his children Sarah and Sophronia in the census are not consistent with their Florida and Williamstown birth records; which are problematic. The Williamstown birth records show Sarah, Sophronia, Nancy, and an unnamed female all born at different times in 1852, which suggests the records are in error. Of these, Nancy's record is the only one that is consistent with the census records.

The 1870 Census shows a Simon Wheelock, age 70 (sic), living with Lovina, age 50. The 1880 Census shows him living in his daughter, Hannah's house.

The 1860 Adams, MA marriage record for Lovina and Simon indicate that this was the second marriage for each (135:28). Simon is identified as the son of Henry and Phoebe.

His death record identifies his parents as Henry Wheelock and Phebe Kant (?). His mother's birth place is given as Blackinton, which is part of North Adams, MA.

Notes for Rebecca Kittredge: Rebecca's Adams, MA death record (Vol 138, Pg 23) indicates that she died of typhoid fever at the age of 46, the daughter of Asa Kittredge.

Children of Simon Wheelock and Rebecca Kittredge:

- 1025 i. Mary Ann Wheelock was born on 18 Feb 1838, in Montgomery, VT,<sup>6224</sup> died on 1 Jul 1912, in Adams, MA.<sup>6224</sup>
- 1026 ii. Fredrick Lyman Wheelock was born on 2 Sep 1841, in Johnson, VT,<sup>6224</sup> died on 18 Sep 1921, in Adams, MA.<sup>6224</sup>
- iii. Tabitha Rosaline Wheelock was born on 30 Mar 1843, in Johnson, VT.<sup>6224</sup> She married Jason B. Randall on 30 May 1862, in Adams, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6227</sup>
- iv. Hannah R. Wheelock was born about 1844, in Hyde Park, Vermont.<sup>6228,6229</sup> She married James V. Miller on 16 Jun 1867, in probably Savoy, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6229</sup> James V. Miller was born about 1846, in Savoy, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6229</sup>
- 1027 v. Francis S. Wheelock was born about 1846, in Florida, Berkshire Co, MA,<sup>6228,6230</sup> died on 10 Feb 1880, in Adams, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6231</sup>
- vi. Sofronia Wheelock was born on 10 Apr 1848, in Florida, Berkshire Co, MA,<sup>6232,6233</sup> died on 13 Sep 1882, in Adams, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6232</sup> She married William Evans on 10 Apr 1874, in Adams, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6234</sup>

The Massachusetts Vital Records (MA 63:57) give her birth date as 18 Apr 1852, Florida, MA; which is inconsistent with the birth dates of her siblings, and the 1860 Federal Census. Her 13 Sep 1882 death record in Adams gives a calculated birth date of 10 Apr 1848, which is more consistent with the census records. Her marriage to William Evens (MA 262:28) gives her first name as 'Frank', but her death record identifies her as Saphronia.

- vii. Sarah Janette Wheelock was born about 1850, in Florida, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6235,6236</sup> She married J. W. Montgomery on 2 Sep 1865, in Adams, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6236</sup>

- x. Florence P. Wheelock was born on 2 Jul 1855, in Williamstown, Berkshire Co, MA.<sup>6240</sup>

Notes for Cyrus Wheelock: Cyrus was the youngest of 5 sons born to Henry.

Cyrus and Lois moved to Illinois, where Cyrus enlisted in the Civil War (1862). Cyrus was wounded at the battle of Vicksburg, in Mississippi, and returned to Illinois. In 1865 he moved to Steele Co. Minn. He died in 1895.<sup>6242</sup>

According to "Wheelock Genealogy", by C. Wheelock and W. Gonseth, Cyrus is buried in Hunter, ND.

Michal Handy, a descendent of Cyrus Wheelock and Lois Ober, gives the death date of Cyrus as 8 Dec 1895.

Children of Cyrus Wheelock and Lois Ober:

- 1028 i. Lois Lovisa Wheelock was born on 22 May 1842, in Johnson, VT,<sup>6243</sup> died on 9 Nov 1923, in Hunter, ND.<sup>6243</sup>
- 1029 ii. Luman Cyrus Wheelock was born on 10 Mar 1845, in Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>54,6244</sup> died on 31 Jan 1926, in Waseca, Waseca Co, MN.<sup>6244</sup>
- 1030 iii. Edwin Dickinson Wheelock was born on 15 Apr 1847, in Eden, Lamoille, VT,<sup>6241</sup> died in Sep 1926.<sup>6241</sup>

- v. Emma Ober Wheelock was born on 27 Jul 1851, in Eden, Lamoille, VT.<sup>3095</sup>

Notes for Uriah Wheelock: Uriah is presumed to be the son of Levi Wheelock and Hepsibeth Mitchell based on Fairfield, Franklin Co, VT land records, which involve sales of land between Uriah, Alden, Levi, Hepsibeth, and Addison.

Fairfield, Franklin Co, VT land records, Vol 14 1851-1855, pg 32 indicate that Jonathan Sherwood sold lands to Uriah and Alden D. Wheelock prior to 1851. Uriah relinquished his share to Alden, who then sold it to Thomas Hooker on 22 Apr 1851. This land exchanged hands again, and on 27 May 1852, Alden D., Levi, and Hepsibeth sold this land, included Uriah's share, to Addison Wheelock (Pg 149).

Other evidence that Uriah is the son of Levi and Hepsibeth is more circumstantial. The 1870 Census indicates that Uriah was born in Vermont, about 1823. Furthermore, the 1830 and 1840 census records for Levi and Hepsibeth both show an otherwise unaccounted for male child of Uriah's age in the household.

Notes for Charles Gleason Wheelock: Charles Wheelock, age 19, splitter, is listed on the 1850 U.S. census in Barre, Worcester Co, MA, in the household of Jason Desper.

No birth record has been found for Charles Gleason Wheelock in Barre. But a Westfield record of marriage of Chas G Wheelock to Lucinda Avery, dated 24 Apr 1854, states that he was 23 years old, gentlemen, resident of Worcester, born in Barre, son of Moses & Mary.

He is probably the Charles Wheelock, age 24, that is enumerated in the 1855 Mass state census living in Worcester, curiously without Lucinda, his new wife. His brother, Henry M. Wheelock, age 23, is enumerated in the same household.

Chas G. Wheelock was a waiter at Thurston & Rice's in the 1854 Worcester city directory. He is not listed in the 1855-1856 city directories, but he is listed in the 1857 directory, "at Spurr & Lewis's [restaurant]," and in 1859 thru 1862 as a jobber, housed at 77 Exchange St. He is missing from the 1863-1865 city directories. He is probably the Charles Wheelock, hack driver (taxi driver, chauffeur), housed at 1 Columbia Court in the 1866

Worcester directory. Chas G. Wheelock is listed in the 1867 Worcester directory as a hack driver, housed at 14 Fruit. He is not listed in the 1868 directory, but he is in the 1869 and 1870 directories, hackman, housed at 3 Central Court. In 1871 he is listed again as a hackman, housed at 3 Houchin Ave.<sup>6365</sup>

This may be the Charles G. Wheelock, age 32, teamster, married, born in Mass. that registered for the Civil War draft in June 1863 in the first congressional district of Rhode Island (including Newport, Bristol, and parts of Providence Co).<sup>6366</sup>

Charles G. Wheelock and Lucinda Avery must have divorced, but no record has yet been found. Both went on to marry other people (see notes for Lucinda).

On 31 Dec 1865, an unnamed male child was born in Worcester, son of Charles G. Wheelock, hackman, born Mass, and Mary, born NY. ["Massachusetts: Vital Records, 1841-1910," database with image, AmericanAncestors.org

Charles G. Wheelock of Worcester is identified as a child of Moses Wheelock in the petition to administer his fathers estate, dated 7 Dec 1867.<sup>6368</sup>

He is probably the Chas G Wheelock in Worcester in 1870, age, 38, born Mass, hackman, with Kity Wheelock, age 30, born NY, Frank Wheelock, age 7, born NY, and Chas H Wheelock, age 4, born Mass.

Chas G. Wheelock is enumerated in the 1875 Rhode Island census living in Providence Ward 7, age 38 [sic], physician, living with Kittie J. Wheelock, age 34, wife, born NY, Frank J. Wheelock, age 12, born NY, scholar, and Chas H. Wheelock, age 9, born MA, scholar.

In 1880 Charles G. Per marriage record of their son, Charles Henry Wheelock, Mary's surname was Near.<sup>6369</sup>

In 1885 in Providence, Rhode Island, Chas G. Wheelock, married, age 55, born Mass, hack driver, is enumerated in the RI state census in district 33, family 66, with Mary Wheelock, Chas H. Wheelock, tool manufacturer, and Frank J. Wheelock, machinist.<sup>6370</sup>

Mary Janette Wheelock, age 56, wife of Charles G. Wheelock, daughter of Columbus and Jane Near, born Poughkeepsie, NY, died 6 Feb 1897, in Providence.<sup>6371</sup>

Charles Gleason Wheelock died 27 June 1901, aged 70 years, 3 months, 16 days, a widower and a resident of Providence, Rhode Island. His birth place is listed as Barre, Mass. Per death record, he was buried in the North Burial Ground in Providence. Mrs Isabella Thaxter, sister-in-law, was the informant.<sup>3283</sup>

Notes for Lucinda Avery: She was the daughter of John Avery and Lydia Atkins; also went by the name Ida Lucinda. Charles and Lucinda must have divorced, because both went on to marry other people, but no divorce record has yet been found. Ida Lucinda married (2) Major Cordis King, (3) John O. Hebren. She had no children.<sup>6363</sup>

Notes for Mary Janette Near: She is enumerated in the 1850 census living in Poughkeepsie, age 10, daughter of Columbus and Jane Near.

She was in Poughkeepsie again in 1860, age 20, in the household of Columbus and Jane Near.

Mary Near had married Charles Wheelock by 1865, when she gave birth to their second son, Charles H. Wheelock, in Worcester, MA.

After her marriage to Charles, she sometimes appears in the census records with the name Kittie.

Per death record, she died in Providence, aged 56, was the wife of Charles G. Wheelock, daughter of Columbus and Jane Near. She married Charles G. Wheelock circa 1863, probably in NY, based on the approximate birth year of her oldest son, Frank, and the fact that both she and Frank were born in NY.

Children of Charles Gleason Wheelock and Mary Janette Near:

- i. Frank James Wheelock was born calculated 7 Feb 1864, in New York, NY,<sup>6372</sup> died on 22 Aug 1897, in Providence, Providence Co, RI.<sup>6373</sup>

Notes for Everett Baxter Wheelock: His death certificate gives a birth date of 27 Mar 1846.

Middle name Baxter given by the death certificate of his daughter, Mabel Louise Wheelock.

There is no primary record to show that Burton Everett Wheelock is a child in this family; but the location of his headstone, his name, and the pattern of births in this family strongly suggest it.

There is a birth record for Anna Maria Wolf Wheelock, daughter of Everett B. and Alice Wheelock, with a date that is conflicting with that of Mabel Louise Wheelock. Since other records confirm the birth date for Mabel Louise (e.g. 1900 Census), the birth record for Anna Maria Wolf Wheelock must be incorrect in some way.

Children of Everett Baxter Wheelock and Alice E. Leland:

- i. Burton Everett Wheelock was born in 1882,<sup>6384</sup> died on 12 Mar 1886,<sup>6384</sup> buried in Rosehill Cemetery and Mausoleum, Chicago, Cook Co, IL.<sup>6384</sup>

Yet her birth date conflicts with that of her sister Mabel, born 15 Mar 1887. Maria does not appear in the 1900 census. It's possible that she was a twin, who died young.

- vi. Earle Nathaniel Wheelock was born on 28 Nov 1893,<sup>6393</sup> died on 26 May 1986,<sup>6393</sup> buried in Rosehill Cemetery and Mausoleum, Chicago, Cook Co, IL.<sup>6393</sup> He partnered with Marian Kimball.

Notes for Addison Patridge Wheelock: Around 1862, Addison and his wife, Ann, moved to Benzie County, MI and were among the first to homestead in Almiere Township. During the next few years, Addison acquired a great deal of land in Benzie County. He was the first sheriff of that county and was a school master at Long Lake, Grand Traverse Co., MI. His last known land purchase was in 1882. His whereabouts after that time is not known.

Notes for Ann McBride: The village of Lake Ann, Benzie Co., MI was named after Ann McBride Wheelock. She was the first white woman in Benzie County. The Indians loved her. Lake Ann (the lake in the village) was also named after her. She is buried in Greenbriar Cemetery, Lake Ann, MI. She died very suddenly from pneumonia. Even though there was a severe snow storm, at her funeral, the house was packed full to overflowing. She was admired by all in the village.

Notes for Charles Wheelock: The following biography was found on the Harrison County RootsWeb pages at <http://www.rootsweb.com/~iaharris/index.htm>, taken from "1891 Harrison County Iowa History", pp. 936-938. It is transcribed here in the original form.

Charles WHEELOCK, of section 31, Magnolia Township, came to Harrison County in September, 1866, and settled on his present farm. Four years prior to this he bought two hundred acres - one hundred and sixty acres on section 31 and forty on section 30 - same being wild prairie land, upon which he erected a frame house 16 feet square, in which he lived until 1863 (?), and then built his present residence, which is a two-story brick structure 30x32 feet, with two brick partitions that reach to the eaves. It is a sixteen-room house, and considered one of the best in Harrison County. He now has two hundred and eighty acres in his home farm, and a farm of one hundred and forty three acres in Jefferson Township, together with forty acres of grass land in Taylor Township.

Mr. WHEELOCK was born November 3, 1833, in Windsor County, Vermont. In 1855 he left the old Green Mountain State and came to Iowa City, Iowa, remained one year, then removed to Mills County, where he remained until September 14, 1861, when he enlisted in Omaha, Neb., as a member of Company B, First Nebraska Calvary, afterwards called "Curtis' Horse," and still later the Fifth Calvary.

After enlistment his company went to Benton Barracks, Mo., after which he participated in the following engagements: Fort Donelson, which commenced February 14, 1862, and surrendered two days later; Paris, Tenn., where our subject's horse received two shots. He was in three different fights at Fort Donelson, almost on the same ground. He was at the Battle of Shiloh, April 6, 1862; also at Rolling Mills, seven miles from Fort Donelson, besides other small engagements.

Christmas Eve, 1862, his command overtook a large number of rebels and made them prisoners of war. He was also at the Battles of Stone River, Waverly, Murfreesboro, Athens, Pulaski, Sugar Creek during two engagements, and Huntsville. Here he went with Gen. Rosencranz from Murfreesboro, and was with him in the capture of Shelbyville, Chattanooga, etc., also at the Battle of Chickamauga, and assisted in taking Lookout Mountain. At Pulaski, Tenn., January 1, 1864, he re-enlisted and came home on a month's furlough, joining his regiment at Nashville, Tenn., and was with Gen. Sherman until after the capture of Atlanta, Ga., and was in the principal fights of that campaign. July 10, 1864, he started on a raid with Gen. Rousseau, and went thirty miles of Montgomery and destroyed thirty-five miles of railroad track, being in the skirmish all the time, and losing eighteen men at Marietta, and after that fight went with Gen. McCook on another raid lasting ten days, when they were under constant fire.

One night when he was on duty an encounter occurred between his comrades and the rebels, near Newman, when twenty-seven men were lost. He ran against the limb of a tree and ruptured himself. After this he returned to Vienna Station and went with Kilpatrick on one of his famous raids. He went with Col. Cline on a raid, and when near Atlanta, Ga., they destroyed the telegraph line and tore up the railroad track, and continued this work until the enemy became too strong for them, when they retraced their steps to Chattahoochee river. After the Battle of Atlanta they went with Sherman to Jonesboro, where they had a hotly contested battle, after which only four of his company were left able for duty. They went into camp and stayed there until Sherman started for the sea, when our subject went with Thomas and encountered Gen. Hood, with whom they had several hard fights, one at Columbus, November 16, 1864, and November 18, at Franklin, also at Ralls Creek and Duck river. They went into camp at Nashville, and were there until the battle occurred at that point. At Pulaski, Mr. WHEELOCK had his beard shot off and his shirt collar torn, by rebel lead. On January 1 they crossed Duck river and camped near Huntsville, and from there went to Gravelly Springs.

During the war our subject had sixteen bullet holes put through his clothing, and had his boot-heel shot off. A cannon ball shot the nose off his comrade's horse, at which time the bridle-bits were violently thrown against Mr. WHEELOCK's shoulder. This was at Nashville. In this campaign they burned everything they came to, and encountered skirmishes all the time. They captured Montgomery, Columbus and Macon. At the last named place news came that Lee had surrendered, also that President Lincoln had been assassinated; they also captured the school fund of the State of Tennessee, which they took to Nashville. Mr. WHEELOCK was ordered back to Macon, Ga., and from there to Nashville, where he was discharged August 11, 1865, and was mustered out at Clinton some time afterward.

After the war he returned to Mills County, Iowa, and worked in a sawmill one winter. He had entered a piece of land before the war, and in the spring of 1866 commenced to improve it. February 29, 1864, he was united in marriage at Red Oak, Iowa, to Miss Elizabeth BURRIS, by whom four children were born -- Miranda, Nora, Ira and Alice. Mrs. WHEELOCK, the mother of these children, was born in Henry County, Indiana, April 15, 1847, and in 1858 accompanied her parents to Montgomery County, Iowa.

Our subject started in life for himself with no means, the only money he remembers of ever having been given to him was fifty cents, on a Fourth of July, by his father; the balance of what he possesses, which is now a handsome competency, he worked for.

Politically, our subject is identified with the Republican party, is a member of the Grand Army Post at Magnolia, and in religious matters he and his wife are in sympathy with the Methodist Church.

In reviewing this man's life by the above brief sketch the reader will be impressed with the fact that our subject had an excellent war record during the time of the Rebellion, and many times almost miraculously escaped. Since war times he has been a hard worker and a successful man, and if any one man above another is entitled to wear the crown of success, it is he who tramped, tented, and fought under Southern skies during the Civil War.

He worked as a lumberman in the Green Bay area during the 1850's and is said to have started one of the first sawmills north of Green Bay. In Feb 1859 he left Wisconsin to join his parents in California. His wife, Matilda stayed behind with the three children. She later filed for divorce, claiming that he had failed to send support money. The divorce was granted in 1861. Sometime after his marriage to Mary Drever, he took up farming on a ranch near Rough and Ready Creek in Sonora. The ranch, however, was not productive, and after borrowing money to make ends meet, he eventually lost it. In 1890 he filed a quart claim ten miles east of Sonora. Probate records for his estate (#888) are on file at the County Clerk, Tuolumne County, Sonora, CA.

Notes for Robert U. Wheelock: This is probably the same R. U. Wheelock who came upon the victims of the Spirit Lake Massacre in Iowa, 1857, as documented in "Legends, Letters, and Lies: Readings about Inkapaduta and the Spirit Lake Massacre", By Mary Bakeman, Published by Park Genealogical Books, 2001, pg 221. Digitized online at www.google.com.

Robert U. Wheelock, age 29, is enumerated in the 1860 Federal Census living in Spirit Lake, Dickinson, IA, with Euphemia (probably his mother), age 57, and Isabella E., age 19 (his sister).

He is enumerated in the 1870 Census living in Boonsboro, Boone Co, IA, age 39, with Ellen, age 37, Nellie, age 3, and Isabel, age 9/12. Euphemia Wheelock is listed in the same household, age 66.

Notes for Sylvester Wheelock: Sylvester Wheelock is enumerated in the 1850 Census living in Lancaster, Erie Co, NY, age 26. Living in the same household is Irene Wheelock, his wife, age 23, Albert Wetherwax, age 9, Cyrenus Cunningham, age 20, and Martha Wheelock, age 13. Martha is presumed to be the daughter of Jotham Wheelock and Hannah Warner. This ties Sylvester to Jotham and Hannah.

Note that Hannah Wheelock is enumerated in the 1850 Census, living not far from Sylvester. Martha is not enumerated in Hannah's household, lending support to the theory that Hannah's daughter Martha is the same Martha living in Sylvester's household. Martha eventually marries Alfred Cunningham; the fact that a Cunningham is living in the same household as Martha lends further support to the theory.

Sylvester is enumerated in the 1860 Census living in West Seneca, Erie Co, NY, age 36, with children Emma J, age 9, Kate, age 8, Sylvester, age 7, Harriet, age 4. Also in the household is Albert Weatherway, age 19, and Caroline Lee, age 18.

726. Lorenza Smith (Salley Wheelock<sup>7</sup>, Stephen<sup>6</sup>, Nahor<sup>5</sup>, Samuel<sup>4</sup>, Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Gershom<sup>2</sup>, Ralph<sup>1</sup>) was born on 4 Oct 1810, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>3401</sup> died on 15 Jul 1850, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>3402</sup> She married (1) Daniel Clark on 11 Oct 1832, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>3399,6474</sup> She married (2) Winslow Wheelock on 8 Dec 1840, in Cambridge, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>6475</sup> He was the son of Martin Wheelock and Rachel Ordway.<sup>308,3438</sup> Winslow Wheelock was born on 25 Oct 1818, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>3438</sup> died on 25 Jul 1892, in Morristown, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>3439</sup> buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Morristown, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>6476</sup> Winslow Wheelock married second Betsey Smith. Notes for Winslow Wheelock: Winslow and his brother Martin N. were administrators of their father's estate.<sup>6481</sup> A Lewis Wheelock, son of W. and L. E. Wheelock, died in Eden, VT, 23 July 1843, aged 3 years 9 months, and is buried there per Vermont VRs. Winslow is listed on the 1850 census living in Eden, age 31, with Lorenza E., age 38, Edmund, age 8, and Martin, age 4. By 1860 he was in Morristown, age 41, with Betsey, age 46, Edmond C., age 18, Martin, age 15, Sarana [probably Lorenza], age 6, and Sally Smith, age 82 [probably Betsey's mother, Sarah (Wheelock) Smith]. In 1870 he was in Morristown, age 51, with Betsey, age 55, Martin, age 24, and Lorenza, age 16. In 1880 he was again in Morristown, age 62, living with his wife Elvira, age 44, son Martin, 34, daughter Lorenza, age 26, and his son Levi W., age 2. He is listed in the 1883-1884 Morristown business directory as a farmer, residing at the same address as his son, Martin.<sup>6482</sup>

Research Notes:

There are three Vermont state birth records for Winslow Wheelock, born Eden, son of Martin and Rachel: 25 Oct 1818, 24 Aug 1820, and 24 Jan 1825. This suggests that the first two Winslows may have died young. But the marriage, census, and death records for Winslow Wheelock all imply the 1818 birth date, including his gravestone which says "1818 - 1892." The second two birth records for Winslow must be in error, or perhaps somehow refer to Abigail Wheelock, who was born 24 Aug 1820, and Joseph W. Wheelock, who was born 24 Jan 1825 (see notes for Joseph).

Notes for Betsey Smith: An unnamed female child was born to Winslow and Betsey on 1 Jan 1863, in Morristown, per VT vital records.

In 1860 Sally Smith, age 82, was living in the household of Winslow Wheelock and his wife Betsey in Morristown, Eden Co, VT. This was Betsey's mother, Sally (Wheelock) Smith, born 1 Oct 1778 in Hubbardston, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>6483</sup> Her maiden name (Wheelock) is identified in the Vermont death record of her son, Asa Smith.<sup>6484</sup>

Notes for Elvira Baker: She was the daughter of Asa and Mary (____) Baker (per marriage and death records).

Freeman R. Alexander, 40, and Elivra Alexander, 34, were living in Morristown, Lamoille Co, Vermont in 1870 (per census).

Children of Lorenza Smith and Winslow Wheelock:

- i. Edmund Wheelock was born about 1842.<sup>6485</sup>

Edmund Wheelock, born about 1842 in Vermont, is enumerated in the 1880 Census living in Rock Run, Stephenson Co, IL, with his wife, Anna, and son of 5 months, Winslow. This is probably the Edmund C. Wheelock, buried with wife Anna in Crown Hill Cemetery, Wheat Ridge, Jefferson Co, CO.

- ii. Martin Wheelock was born about 1846.<sup>6485</sup>

Martin Wheelock, of Morristown, VT, son of Winslow, is listed in the 1883-1884 Morristown business directory as a farmer, residing at the same address as his father.<sup>6486</sup> Martin Wheelock, age 74, is enumerated in the 1920 Federal Census living in Morristown with his brother, Levi W. Wheelock, age 46. This is probably the Martin Wheelock (1845-1922) buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Morristown, Lamoille Co, VT. His obituary was published in The Burlington Free Press (Burlington, Vermont) 21 Feb 1922, p. 5. col. 3-4, online at Newspapers.com.

Research Notes: There are discrepancies regarding his birth date. The Vermont state records indicate a birth date of 11 Jan 1878. His World War I draft registration card gives a birth date of 4 Jan 1878. The 1900 census says Jan 1878. But his gravestone says 1876.

He married (2) Colby Dane on 6 May 1858.<sup>6492</sup>

Notes for Walter Wheelock: Walter's birth is recorded in Eden, VT, and indicates that he was born in NH, probably in Marlborough, where his parents lived at the time of their marriage.

Notes for Eliza Stone: The death record for Eliza indicates that she was the daughter of J. Stone and Azubah; "Gregory Stone Genealogy: Ancestry and Descendants of Dea. Gregory Stone of Cambridge, Mass., 1320-1917", by J. Gardner Bartlett, identifies Eliza's parents as Jeduthan Stone and Azubah Merriam, of Hubbardston, MA, and Eden, VT. Jeduthan Stone was chosen by Daniel Wheelock as his guardian in 1813, Eden, VT.

Notes for Colby Dane: Colby Dane's last name is difficult to read in the Vermont VRs, and may be Zane, or a variation.

Children of Walter Wheelock and Eliza Stone:

- 1074 i. Walter Judson Wheelock was born on 29 Mar 1829, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>308</sup> died on 15 Jul 1904, in Waterville, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>3412</sup>
ii. David W. Wheelock was born on 14 Jun 1833, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>308</sup>

David does not appear in the 1850 Federal Census.

- iii. Caroline H. Wheelock was born on 26 Apr 1835, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>308</sup> She married Ira Hawley on 3 May 1859, in Cambridge, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>308</sup>

The marriage record to Ira Hawley (Hamley) identifies Caroline as the daughter of Walter, Jr., and indicates she is 25 yrs old.

- iv. Dorcas Wheelock was born on 24 Apr 1837, in Eden, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>308</sup>
v. Emery Wheelock was born on 25 May 1841, in Cambridge, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>308</sup> died on 11 Sep 1865,<sup>308</sup> buried in Smilie Cemetery, Cambridge, VT.<sup>308</sup>

The Vermont VRs indicate that Emery died of an "injury received on cars". He was 24y 5m of age.

- vi. Jane Wheelock was born about 1845.<sup>6493</sup>
vii. Edna Wheelock was born about 7 Feb 1849,<sup>6494</sup> died on 7 Aug 1863, in Cambridge, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>308</sup> buried in Smilie Cemetery, Cambridge, VT.<sup>308</sup>

Notes for Lucy J. Wheelock: The birth of Lucy Wheelock is given as 23 May 1809 in the "Pierce Genealogy", in disagreement with the 23 May 1808 date given in the Vermont VRs. The evidence linking Lucy (Wheelock) Pierce with the daughter of Walter and Betsey (Johnson) Wheelock is as follows: (1) the 23 May 1808 and 23 May 1809 birth dates are sufficiently similar to suspect a typographic or transcription error, (2) Lucy's father, Walter Wheelock, engaged in land transactions with Daniel Pierce, and (3) Lucy's sister, Lucretia (Wheelock) Stone, name a child Lucy Pierce Stone.

He is enumerated in the 1870 Census living in Boston Ward 16, with his wife Martha, and children (all born in MA) Emma J, Nellie S, and Frank A.

His remains were brought back to Morristown, where he was buried beside his only son, who died in 1869. He left a widow.

Research Notes:

There are two Vermont state birth records for Martin N. Wheelock: 12 Jan 1817 in Eden, and 24 Oct 1818 in Eden. The latter is one day before his brother, Winslow was born, and is presumed to be in error, possibly a mistaken or incorrectly transcribed copy of Winslow's birth record. The census records, his death record, and his obituary are all consistent with the 12 Jan 1817 date.

Children of Martin Newton Wheelock and Lydia Little:

- i. Lyman L. Wheelock was born on 28 Jul 1847,<sup>6508</sup> died on 5 Mar 1869, in Morristown, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>308</sup> buried in Riverside Cemetery, Morristown, VT.<sup>308</sup>

There is no birth record for Lyman L. Wheelock, but his death record specifies that he was the son of Martin M. Wheelock and Lydia Little.

Alexander. Freeman R. Alexander died on 10 Mar 1871, in Morristown, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>6509</sup>

Notes for Winslow Wheelock: Winslow and his brother Martin N. were administrators of their father's estate.<sup>6481</sup>

A Lewis Wheelock, son of W. and L. E. Wheelock, died in Eden, VT, 23 July 1843, aged 3 years 9 months, and is buried there per Vermont VRs. Winslow is listed on the 1850 census living in Eden, age 31, with Lorenza E., age 38, Edmund, age 8, and Martin, age 4. By 1860 he was in Morristown, age 41, with Betsey, age 46, Edmond C., age 18, Martin, age 15, Sarana [probably Lorenza], age 6, and Sally Smith, age 82 [probably Betsey's mother, Sarah (Wheelock) Smith]. In 1870 he was in Morristown, age 51, with Betsey, age 55, Martin, age 24, and Lorenza, age 16. In 1880 he was again in Morristown, age 62, living with his wife Elvira, age 44, son Martin, 34, daughter Lorenza, age 26, and his son Levi W., age 2. He is listed in the 1883-1884 Morristown business directory as a farmer, residing at the same address as his son, Martin.<sup>6482</sup>

Research Notes:

There are three Vermont state birth records for Winslow Wheelock, born Eden, son of Martin and Rachel: 25 Oct 1818, 24 Aug 1820, and 24 Jan 1825. This suggests that the first two Winslows may have died young. But the marriage, census, and death records for Winslow Wheelock all imply the 1818 birth date, including his gravestone which says "1818 - 1892." The second two birth records for Winslow must be in error, or perhaps somehow refer to Abigail Wheelock, who was born 24 Aug 1820, and Joseph W. Wheelock, who was born 24 Jan 1825 (see notes for Joseph).

Notes for Betsey Smith: An unnamed female child was born to Winslow and Betsey on 1 Jan 1863, in Morristown, per VT vital records.

In 1860 Sally Smith, age 82, was living in the household of Winslow Wheelock and his wife Betsey in Morristown, Eden Co, VT. This was Betsey's mother, Sally (Wheelock) Smith, born 1 Oct 1778 in Hubbardston, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>6483</sup> Her maiden name (Wheelock) is identified in the Vermont death record of her son, Asa Smith.<sup>6484</sup>

Notes for Elvira Baker: She was the daughter of Asa and Mary (____) Baker (per marriage and death records).

Freeman R. Alexander, 40, and Elivra Alexander, 34, were living in Morristown, Lamoille Co, Vermont in 1870 (per census).

Children of Winslow Wheelock and Lorenza Smith:

- i. Edmund Wheelock was born about 1842.<sup>6485</sup>

Edmund Wheelock, born about 1842 in Vermont, is enumerated in the 1880 Census living in Rock Run, Stephenson Co, IL, with his wife, Anna, and son of 5 months, Winslow. This is probably the Edmund C. Wheelock, buried with wife Anna in Crown Hill Cemetery, Wheat Ridge, Jefferson Co, CO.

- ii. Martin Wheelock was born about 1846.<sup>6485</sup>

Children of Winslow Wheelock and Betsey Smith:

- i. Lorenzo Wheelock was born about 1854,<sup>6487</sup> died on 4 Sep 1899, in Morristown, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>6487</sup>

Children of Winslow Wheelock and Elvira Baker:

- i. Levi Winslow Wheelock was born on 11 Jan 1878, in Morristown, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>6488,6489</sup> died in 1942,<sup>6490</sup> buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Morristown, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>6490</sup>

Research Notes: There are discrepancies regarding his birth date. The Vermont state records indicate a birth date of 11 Jan 1878. His World War I draft registration card gives a birth date of 4 Jan 1878. The 1900 census says Jan 1878. But his gravestone says 1876.

Notes for Joseph Wilson Wheelock: No birth record has been found for Joseph W. Wheelock. However, the birth of Winslow Wheelock in Eden, son of Martin and Rachel, is recorded in the Vermont Vital Records, 24 Jan 1825. This record conflicts with the birth of another Winslow Wheelock in Eden, 25 Oct 1818, son of Martin and

Rachel, who lived to maturity and died in Morristown, Lamoille Co, Vermont, leaving it open to question who the 24 Jan 1825 Winslow was. [There is also a record of another Winslow, born 24 Aug 1820. This is presumed to be Abigail, see notes for Winslow Wheelock, b. 1818.]

The birth date for Joseph W. Wheelock is inscribed on his gravestone - 24 Jan 1825, suggesting that the Winslow Wheelock, born 24 Jan 1825 was actually Joseph. The middle name Wilson is also inscribed on the gravestone.

Joseph W. Wheelock must have been a town clerk in Berlin, as his signature appears on many of the vital records there in the 1870s. He was an editor per his Berlin death record. He had a one-half interest in the "Green Mountain Freeman" in 1869, and owned all of it in 1873. His son, Herbert R. Wheelock, later published the paper, which was located in Montpelier, VT.<sup>6512</sup>

Children of Joseph Wilson Wheelock and Laura E. Phillips:

1077 i. Martin W. Wheelock was born on 18 Mar 1853, in Montpelier, Washington Co, VT,<sup>6510</sup> died on 30 Oct 1912.<sup>6513</sup>

ii. Florence E. Wheelock married Elmer E. Bancroft on 27 Nov 1884, in Montpelier, Washington Co, VT.<sup>3412</sup>

1078 iii. Herbert R. Wheelock was born about 1855,<sup>6514</sup> died on 18 Dec 1939, in Montpelier, VT.<sup>6515</sup>

Notes for Stephen Wheelock: Stephen Wheelock, age 35, is enumerated in the 1850 Federal Census, living in Eden, VT, with Submit Wheelock, age 45, and Calista Wheelock, age 7. The family is living in the household next to Levi and Cordelia Wheelock. Submit Wheelock, daughter of ____ Jacobs, born in Waterford, died 10 Dec 1893, age 84 years, recorded in Eden, VT, vital records. According to LDS Records, Submit Jacobs was the daughter of Amaziah Jacobs and Submit, born 23 Jun 1802, Waterford, Caledonia Co, VT; and was the sister of Salome Jacobs, who married Walter Wheelock.

Stephen's Eden death record gives age 69 at death, and identifies his mother as Betsey Phelps. His death date is given as 4 Sep 1884, in contradiction to his headstone, which reads 4 Oct 1884.

Stephen Wheelock, of Eden Mills, VT, is listed as a farmer in the 1883-1884 Eden business directory.<sup>6517</sup>

Children of Stephen Wheelock and Submit Jacobs:

i. Calista Wheelock was born about 1844.<sup>6518</sup>

1079 ii. Calvin F. Wheelock was born on 20 Apr 1851,<sup>6519</sup> died on 9 Aug 1931.<sup>6519</sup>

Marriage note: Estimate based on birth of first child circa 1845.

Notes for Levi Wheelock: There is no birth record for Levi, but the record of his second marriage indicates that he was the son of Daniel and Betsey Wheelock, born in Eden, residence Lowell, VT. It is presumed, though not proven, that this is the same Levi that married Cordelia Brown in 1847. Levi and Cordelia Wheelock are enumerated in the 1850 Federal Census living in Eden, VT, next to Stephen and Submit Wheelock. Emogene Wheelock, age 6 months, is living in the household. Emogene's marriage record to D. Eugene Curtis in 1886 indicates age 29.

Levi died "of poison", according to the Vermont VRs; he was age 69y 11m 19d at his death on 19 Mar 1892.

Notes for Lucretia Curtis: Her marriage to Levi is recorded at least twice, using the name Lucretia Curtis, and Lucretia Curtis Dana. The Vermont vital records imply (sometimes indirectly) at least six children born to Lucretia Curtis and David Dana, in Lowell, between 1845 and 1853.

Children of Levi Wheelock and Cordelia Brown:

- i. Eunice Wheelock was buried in Eden Corners Cemetery, Eden, VT.<sup>308</sup>

There is no birth record for Eunice, but her death record indicates that she is the daughter of Levi and "Corddie" Wheelock. The death date is given as "8 Aug 1851", age 18y 7m 25d, implying a birth date of 14 Dec 1832 (sic).

Notes for George Gill Wheelock: George Gill Wheelock was born at Avon Place, Boston, 24 Nov 1838. He attended the Adams Grammar School in Boston, from which he graduated in 1851 with the first silver medal, and then attended the Public Latin School, from which he graduated in 1856 with the third Franklin medal. He then entered Harvard College, where he studied Greek, Latin, physics and chemistry, among other subjects. He sang in the choir at morning prayers and Sunday services, and was a member of the Glee Club, singing second bass. He later became a member of the "Hasty Pudding Club", assisted in preparing the illuminated playbills, and took part in the various theatrical entertainments sometimes in female charaters. He graduated in 1860, ranking 6th out of 113.

When he graduated, his mother having recently died, he went to stay with his sister, Mrs. Chandler, in New York City, where he soon began the study of medicine. In 1861, at the outbreak of the Civil War he volunteered for duty, and became assistant to the surgeon of the Fourth New York Volunteers, where he served under General Butler at Newport News, VA, until the end of summer. After this, he attended lectures at the United States Sanitary Commission, and worked with the sick and wounded, under General McClellan, until he became sick himself, and was obliged to return to New York. Here he continued his medical studies and obtained his M.D. in March, 1864. The war continued, and he took a position as a contract surgeon for the Union Army. He was sent to Savanna, then just captured by General Sherman, and was made executive officer with about 18 surgeons under him. He remained in this position until July 4th, 1865.

In October, 1865 he went to Europe to continue his medical studies and to enjoy the art and sculpture of the continent. He traveled to Paris, England, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, and Italy, where he revelled in the enjoyment of sculpture and painting.

Soon after his return from Europe he was appointed assistant demonstrator of anatomy in the College of Physicians and Surgeons. He remained associated with the college for 24 years. In 1891 the College of Physicians and Surgeons merged with Columbia College, and Dr. Wheelock was one of the two trustees chosen as trustee of Columbia, a position that he held for many years. He was a member of the building and finance committee of Columbia, and served as attending physician to the Presbyterian Hospital and to St. Luke's Hospital. He contributed five years of his time to the Colored Home and Hospital and was a consulting physician to the Emigrant Hospital on Ward's Island. During this time he maintained a lively medical practice in New York city, and found time to contribute occasional articles to medical journals, and translate works from German to English.

After retiring from medicine, he led a busy life contributing time and effort to charitable organizations. He was a trustee of the Childrens Aid Society of New York, established by Charles Loring Brace; a trustee of the Society for Caring for Juvenile Delinquents on Randall's Island, NY; trustee of the State Charities Aid Association; and president of the County Visiting Committee whose function was to improve through critical review all city institutions under the commissioners of charity.<sup>6529</sup>

His letters published in the "Report of the Class of 1860", Harvard, indicate that his only son married Catharine Morgan Dix, daughter of Rev. Morgan Dix of the Old Trinity Church. (Report of the Class of 1860, By Harvard College (1780- ). Notes for Albert Gassett Wheelock: The birth records for Albert G. Wheelock's children gives his middle name as Gassett.

Notes for Louisa Stone: Age at death: 54y 6m 4d per headstone inscription.

Ellery Bicknell Crane in "Genealogical and Personal Memoirs of Worcester County, MA" indicates that Louisa is the daughter of Dana Stone and his first wife, Mary Whitney, of Northborough, MA.<sup>6539</sup> This, however, contradicts the Northborough marriage record, which lists her parents as Dana Stone and Louisa Stone (deceased). (Mass Archives, Vol 137, Pg 207).

- Elizabeth was from Shrewsbury, where Nathan Smith Wheelock was born, and raised.
- Nathan's marriage date of 1836 makes him 22 years old at the time of marriage; typical age.

Notes for Joel Wheelock: The 1850 Census shows Joel, age 14, living with his parents, Joel and Chloe Wheelock, in Sweden, Monroe Co, NY, giving a birth date of around 1836. Notes for Jerome Wheelock: Jerome Wheelock was a man of considerable achievement in the Worcester County manufacturing industry, and earned himself a place of note in the local history of Grafton. At the age of 15 he ran away from home, and successfully evaded any attempt to find him. After a three year apprenticeship at the Taunton Locomotive Works, under Harrison Tweed, Esq., he obtained a position as a manager of the steam and machinery department of the Washburn Iron Works, in Worcester.

During this time, Jerome Wheelock invented and patented a means to simplify, and more efficiently manufacture steam engines. This changed the nature of steam engine manufacture, and earned a place for Jerome Wheelock in the history of steam engines and manufacturing.

A statue of Mr. Wheelock stands in the center of Grafton.

Sarah resided in Boston in 1876.<sup>3619</sup> Sarah's death notice in the Boston Weekly Journal, Thursday, July 28, 1887 shows age 49 yrs, 3 mos, 22 days at death.

- iii. John A. Wheelock was born calculated 26 May 1845,<sup>1240,6695</sup> died on 10 Apr 1846, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>857</sup>

There is a John Wheelock, son Amasa, born Apr 1845, teamster, buried in Harmony Grove Cemetery in Salem. This may be the same John, but would conflict with the 1847 death date given by the "History of Sanbornton".

- iv. Charles Wheelock was born in 1851.<sup>1240</sup>

Charles lived in Boston in 1876.<sup>3619</sup>

Notes for Lois Shepherd: Lois Sheppard's headstone in the Coventry Village Cemetery reads as follows: Lois H. wife of Joseph Wheelock died Jan 23 1863 age 45 yrs 11 mths.

Notes for Lydia Hanson: The inscription on Lydias stone in Center Cemetery, Lyman, NH reads: Lydia wife of Joseph Wheelock, formerly wife of Aaron Wheelock d. Oct. 6, 1869 AE. 46 y's. 7 m's.

She married her husband's cousin, Joseph Wheelock, shortly after Aaron died. She is referred to as "Mrs. Lydia Wheelock of Lyman, NH" in the 19 Jan 1866 announcement of her marriage to Mr. Joseph Wheelock, of Coventry.<sup>6699</sup>

Her death notice in the 26 Oct 1869 edition of the Burlington Free Press refers to her as "Mrs. Lydia Wheelock, of Coventry, died Oct 6, aged 47."

Notes for Emeline Houston: The marriage notice in 1 Feb 1870 edition of "The Orleans Independent Standard" refers to her as Mrs. Emeline B. Houston of E. Hardwick.

Children of Joseph Wheelock and Harriet Pierce:

- 1104 i. Josiah B. Wheelock was born on 2 Jan 1836,<sup>1240</sup> died in Feb 1916.<sup>6705</sup>

Children of Joseph Wheelock and Mary Shepherd:

- i. Harriet Wheelock was born on 1 Nov 1841,<sup>1240</sup> died on 1 Jan 1865,<sup>1240</sup> buried in Coventry Village Cemetery, Coventry, VT.<sup>1238</sup>

Harriet Wheelock's headstone in Coventry Village Cemetery indicates a death date of 1 Jan 1865, age 22 yrs, 2 months. The implied birth date disagrees with that provided in the "History of Sanbornton", by Rev. Runnels.

Children of Joseph Wheelock and Lois Shepherd:

- i. Mary Wheelock was born in 1846,<sup>1240</sup> died on 3 Nov 1863.<sup>1240</sup>
1105 ii. John P. Wheelock was born on 18 Feb 1851,<sup>1240</sup> died on 1 Apr 1928.<sup>1238</sup>
iii. Ida Wheelock was born on 20 Nov 1854.<sup>1240</sup>

"The History of Sanbornton" expresses uncertainty about the first name Ida.

- iv. Amasa S. Wheelock was born on 14 May 1857,<sup>1240</sup> died on 31 Mar 1885,<sup>1238</sup> buried in Coventry Village Cemetery, Coventry, VT.<sup>1238</sup>

- i. Rufus Wheelock was born on 12 Feb 1865.<sup>1240</sup>

Notes for the family of Aaron Wheelock and Lydia Hanson: Last name 'Hanson' from Boston death record of son William.

MA.<sup>1275</sup>

Notes for Archippus Wheelock: The Greenfield VRs shows a marriage between Archippus Wheelock (Wheeler in intention) of Newport, VT, and Catherine Moore. This is presumably the same Archippus Wheelock. Catherine would have been his first cousin once removed.

Notes for Catharine Moore: In the 1860 Census Catharine is enumerated in the household of her presumed son, Edwin(sic), in Greenfield, MA. Charline Wheelock is also in the household.

Catharine's Greenfield Mass death record (MA 283:306) identifies her as the daughter of Jonas Moore (of Sudbury), and Alice (of Lancaster). She was 68 when she died of pneumonia.

Children of Archippus Wheelock and Catharine Moore:

- 790 i. Edward Willard Wheelock was born on 3 Oct 1836.<sup>1274</sup>
- ii. Julia Ann Wheelock was born on 8 Sep 1841,<sup>1274</sup> died on 19 Nov 1845, in Charlestown, MA.<sup>3665</sup>
- iii. Mary Charlean Wheelock was born on 12 Jun 1850.<sup>1274</sup>

In 1860, Charline Wheelock, age 10, is living in the household of her brother, Edward Wheelock in Greenfield, Franklin Co, MA. Her mother, Catherine, age 41 (sic), lives in the same household. In 1865, she's listed as Mary C. Wheelock, age 15, living in the household of Susan Root, age 57, Mary J. Root, age 28, Alice Moore (probably her aunt), age 64, Catherine Wheelock (her mother), age 54, and Edward W. Wheelock (her brother), age 28. In 1870, she is again living with her mother in Greenfield, listed as Mary C. Wheelock, age 18. This may be the M. Charline Wheelock living in Amherst in the late 1800s. She's enumerated there in the 1900 census, Charline M. Wheelock, age 44, born June 1855. And it may be the M. Charlene Wheelock died 24 Sep 1932 in Amherst, MA, buried in Green River Cemetery, in the same lot as Archippus Wheelock.<sup>3666</sup>

784. Peter Wheelock (Peter Sanborn<sup>7</sup>, Archippus<sup>6</sup>, Joseph<sup>5</sup>, Joseph<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, Gershom<sup>2</sup>, Ralph<sup>1</sup>) died in Boston, MA.<sup>1240</sup> He partnered with Mary Dane.

Children of Peter Wheelock and Mary Dane:

- i. Curtis H. Wheelock was born on 15 Nov 1850,<sup>6709</sup> died on 4 Feb 1852, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>6709</sup>

Notes for Jonathan B. Wheelock: Jonathan's death record identifies his parents as Aaron Wheelock and Mary Colbert(?), both of Lyman, NH. Since Aaron Wheelock of Lyman, NH was married to Anna Bowman, the presumption is that Jonathan's death record incorrectly referenced his wife, Mary Colbath, rather than his mother.

Jona B Wheelock, age 40, is enumerated in the 1860 Federal Census in Dorchester, MA, living with Mary A Wheelock, age 36, Charles D Wheelock, age 15, and Julia A. Wheelock, age 10.

Notes for Mary Ann E. Colbath: Mary Ann Colbath was the daughter of Dudley and Betsey Colbath, per death record.

Children of Jonathan B. Wheelock and Mary Ann E. Colbath:

- i. Charles D Wheelock was born about 1845.<sup>6711</sup>
- ii. Julia Ann Wheelock was born on 9 Oct 1850, in Boston, MA.<sup>6712</sup>
- iii. Albert Henry Wheelock was born on 10 Oct 1860, in Dorchester, MA.<sup>6713</sup>

She married her husband's cousin, Joseph Wheelock, shortly after Aaron died. She is referred to as "Mrs. Lydia Wheelock of Lyman, NH" in the 19 Jan 1866 announcement of her marriage to Mr. Joseph Wheelock, of Coventry.<sup>6699</sup>

Her death notice in the 26 Oct 1869 edition of the Burlington Free Press refers to her as "Mrs. Lydia Wheelock, of Coventry, died Oct 6, aged 47."

Notes for the family of Aaron Wheelock and Lydia Hanson: Last name 'Hanson' from Boston death record of son William.

Children of Aaron Wheelock and Lydia Hanson:

787. Cyrus Wheelock (Aaron Sanborn<sup>7</sup>, Archippus<sup>6</sup>, Joseph<sup>5</sup>, Joseph<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, Gershom<sup>2</sup>, Ralph<sup>1</sup>) was born on 19 Jun 1825,<sup>3630</sup> died on 7 Dec 1903,<sup>3630</sup> buried in Center Cemetery, Lyman, Grafton Co, NH.<sup>3630</sup> He married (1) Sarah C. Thornton on 22 Nov 1853, in Lyman, Grafton Co, NH.<sup>6714</sup> She was the daughter of Adna Thornton and Betsey Moulton.<sup>6715,6716</sup> Sarah C. Thornton was born on 5 Mar 1830,<sup>6715</sup> died on 11 Apr 1872,<sup>6715</sup> buried in Center Cemetery, Lyman, Grafton Co, NH.<sup>6715</sup> He married (2) Esther K. Boutelle on 26 May 1875, in Bath, NH.<sup>6714</sup> Esther K. Boutelle was born in 1823, in Plymouth, NH.<sup>6714</sup> He married (3) Julie Little on 26 Aug 1896, in North Haverhill, NH.<sup>6714</sup> Julie Little was born in 1851, in Lyman, Grafton Co, NH.<sup>6714</sup>

Notes for Cyrus Wheelock: Cyrus is enumerated in the 1860 U.S. census, age 35, living in St. Johnsbury, Caledonia Co, VT with his wife Sarah, age 30, daughter Elizabeth B. Wheelock, age 5, and son Adna T. Wheelock, age 2.

The inscription on his headstone in Center Cemetery, Lyman, NH reads:

Cyrus Wheelock June 19, 1825 - Dec. 7, 1903 / Sarah Converse his wife Mar. 5, 1830 - Apr. 11, 1872

Cyrus' death is recorded in Boston, MA, 7 Dec 1903, residence given as 204 Boston St, Boston, MA.

Abner Wheelock, son of Cyrus (born Littleton, Nh) and Susan (born Lisbon, NH) was born 1 Dec 1859 in St Johnsbury, per Vermont VRs. This is probably Adna T. Wheelock.

Notes for Sarah C. Thornton: Her headstone gives her name as "Sarah Converse" husband of Cyrus Wheelock. However, the 1853 NH marriage record refers to her as Sarah C. Thornton.

She was age 23 when she married, suggesting that it was her first marriage, that her maiden name was Thornton, and her middle name probably Converse. Her parents were likely Adna Thornton (1791 - 1842) and Betsey Moulton (1795 - 1885), as outlined in the following argument.

Adna Thornton is buried in the same cemetery as Sarah (Center Cemetery, Lyman, NH). Per headstone, his wife was Betsey M. Thornton. Betsey Thornton, age 54, is enumerated in the 1850 U.S. census living in Lyman, Grafton Co, NH, in the household of Michael and Hanna Stevens, with Sarah C. Thornton, age 19. This is likely Sarah Converse Thornton. Adna had died in 1842 (per headstone), which is why he is not present in the 1850 census.

Cyrus Wheelock and Sarah Thornton had a son, Adna Thornton Wheelock, further reinforcing the idea that Adna Thornton was Sarah's father.

Notes for Julie Little: Julie was the daughter of Abram Little and Martha Bedell (per NH Marriages).

Children of Cyrus Wheelock and Sarah C. Thornton:

- i. Elizabeth B. Wheelock was born about 1855.<sup>6717</sup>
- ii. Adna Thornton Wheelock was born on 1 Dec 1858,<sup>6718</sup> died on 8 Mar 1933.<sup>6718</sup> He married (1) Frances D. Wadleigh on 1 Nov 1882, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>6719</sup> Frances D. Wadleigh was born in 1858,<sup>6720</sup> died in 1883,<sup>6720</sup> buried in Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy, Norfolk Co, MA.<sup>6720</sup> He married (2) Ethelyn G. McKeen on 10 Jun 1891, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>6721</sup> Ethelyn G. McKeen was born about 1872, in Somerville, MA.<sup>6721</sup>

There is a record of birth for Abner Wheelock, 1 Dec 1859, St. Johnsbury, VT, son of Cyrus Wheelock and Susan. This is probably Adna.

Children of Isaac P. Wheelock and Ethelinda Bailey:

- ii. Frank J. Wheelock was born in Dec 1860,<sup>6726</sup> died on 26 Apr 1864,<sup>6726</sup> buried in Center Cemetery, Lyman, Grafton Co, NH.<sup>6726</sup>

Gilbert is identified as the son of Isaac P. Wheelock and Ethelinda (Bailey) Wheelock in his 1895 Rutland, MA marriage record to Lizzie Belle Goldthwaite. He is enumerated in the 1920 Census living in Lancaster, MA, age 54, with his wife Belle, and his mother, Ethelinda, age 86.

Notes for George A. Wheelock: His headstone indicates that he served in Compay G., 10th Mass Volunteers.

Notes for Ida Addie Zigler: Ida Zigler was from New York City.

Ada Wheelock is enumerated in the 1930 Census living in the household of her daughter, Daisy Archer, in Springfield, MA.

Notes for Edward Willard Wheelock: Research Notes:

This is presumably the Edward W. Wheelock who was mustered in to Co. F, 34th Reg't Mass Infantry on 31 July 1862, age 25 years, enrolled from Greenfield, Massachusetts. He entered service as a private, and emerged as a coporal. He filed for a pension on 22 Dec 1896, and died 17 July 1922 at Natl Soldiers House (in Maine, or Mass, not quite readable).<sup>6735</sup>

His Rock Island Co administration of estate identifies his date of death "on or about" 5 Sep 1857, mentions his widow, Ann E. Wheelock, "who hath since intermarried with one Oliver Wight of said county," and mentions heirs Ebenezer Scott Wheelock, age about 13, and Franson Wheelock, age about 10. In addition, the estate file contains a receipt for payment of money lent to Wesson Wheelock by Thos. Jeff. Wheelock.<sup>3669</sup>

Notes for Elisha Kent Kane Wheelock: Elisha Kent Kane Wheelock was named for the Arctic explorer who returned from his second expedition and published his memoirs in 1856. He grew to boyhood in Leo, Indiana, where he attended school. In 1872, he entered into a dental apprenticeship with Dr. Long and Dr. Brown, both of Fort Wayne, Indiana. Not satisfied with the dental profession, and against the advice of his father, he studied to teach, obtained a license, and began to teach in an Amish settlement, one half mile east of Leo.

In 1877, his half brother, Dr. Elbridge Gerry Wheelock came to Leo to take up the practice of medicine. Inspired, Elisha Kent Kane Wheelock entered Bellevue Hospital Medical College in New York City, where he graduated 1 Mar 1880. After this he returned to Huntertown, Indiana, where he was born, and where his father and half brother had already established enviable reputations as doctors. He practiced there for a time, and then moved to Fort Wayne, Indiana, where he continued his practice.

From 1884 to 1900, Dr. Wheelock held the professorship of ophthalmology and otology at the the Fort Wayne College of Medicine. He was the first coronor of Allen County, having been appointed to the position in 1881. He was elected the following year, and held the position for four more years.

Notes for John A. Wheelock: John is listed as the administrator of Josephus Wheelock's estate on Josephus' petition to the Southern Claims Division for reimbursement for damages incurred during the war.

It would appear that John went from Alabama to Tishimingo, MS prior to his father. He is listed there in the 1840 Census, no wife or children, 4 slaves.

He is enumerated in the 1850 Census living in Tishimingo, MS, with Lucy F., and Harriet. Occupation: School teacher.

He is still living in Tishimingo in 1860, with his wife Lucy F, age 29, and his daughter Harriet, age 14. His occupation is given as Bapt. Clergyman.

In 1870 he is living in luka, Tishomingo, MS, with his wife, Lucy F. Wheelock, age 38, and his son, Robert, age 6.

In the 1860 and 1870 Census, John and Laura Wheelock are living with Mary E. and Daniel Bush in Corunna, Shiawassee Co, MI.

This census information is taken as strong evidence that Mary Emily Wheelock married Daniel Bush, probably in New York.

Notes for Jay Wheelock: In 1850, he was living in Vienna, NY, in the household of his parents. Note that his twin brother, Jasper, was also in Vienna, but in a separate household. This, and the fact that they are enumerated separately in the 1900 census, prove that Jay and Jasper are two different people

Jay registered to vote in San Francisco, California in June 1866, and appears on various California voter registers between 1866 and 1873. Also in San Francisco at the same time are his cousins, John Dexter Wheelock, and Samuel Wheelock.<sup>6778</sup>

His name appears in the 1880 census as Otis J. Wheelock. This is presumed to be the Jay O. Wheelock buried in Sherburne Quarter Cemetery, near Jay Wheelock, his father. Wheelock (Wesley<sup>7</sup>, Samuel<sup>6</sup>, Abel<sup>5</sup>, Joseph<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, Gershom<sup>2</sup>, Ralph<sup>1</sup>) was born in Aug 1840, in Annapolis Co, Nova Scotia,<sup>4046</sup> died after 5 Jan 1920.<sup>4046</sup> She married Nelson Pierce about 1858, in Massachusetts.<sup>4046</sup> Nelson Pierce was born in Nov 1827, in Canada.<sup>6827</sup>

Notes for Syretha A. Wheelock: According to the History of Annapolis County, by W. A. Calnek, Syretha "moved to Roxbury, MA".

The marriage location for Syretha and Nelson is not proven. Though she appears with her parents in the 1850 Federal Census, living in Boston, neither she nor her parents are found in the 1860 Federal Census. It is possible that the entire family moved back to Nova Scotia in the 1850's, and that Syretha was married there, rather than in Massachusetts. The fact that Syretha's brother, Guilford, was married in Nova Scotia in 1861 lends credibility to this theory.

Syretha's parents are enumerated in the 1870 Federal Census, living in Massachusetts again; the family probably moved back to the United States when the ports were reopened after the Civil War. Syretha may have come later. She doesn't appear in the 1870 census, but does show up in Boston in the 1880 census.<sup>6828</sup>

Notes for Nelson Pierce: Nelson Pierce was the son of Henry Pierce.

Children of Syretha A. Wheelock and Nelson Pierce:

- i. Ida M. Pierce was born in May 1859, in MA.<sup>4046</sup>
- ii. Ella F. Pierce was born in Oct 1860, in MA.<sup>4046</sup>
- iii. Minnie H. Pierce was born BET 1863 - 1864.<sup>4046</sup>

Notes by Georgia Wheelock, who has done research on this line: "Minnie age 16 is listed in 1880 Census and is marked as Minnie Goodson. She is too old to be the daughter of the young Goodson couple. It is my belief that this is another daughter of Syretha and Nelson Pierce. Note that Syretha's birthplace is marked as MA and Minnie's parents both marked MA. Nelson is not in the household for 1880 and whereabouts is unknown. He is in the 1900 Census as head of household."

Tracy on 24 Jan 1832, in Grafton, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>2764</sup> Mary E. Tracy died on 18 Mar 1856, in Worcester, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>6829</sup> He married (2) Sophronia Kemp on 13 Dec 1856, in Worcester, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>6830</sup> Sophronia Kemp was born about 1810.<sup>6830</sup> Sophronia Kemp married first Samuel H. Wheelock on 3 Nov 1836, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>6831</sup> He was the son of Josiah Wheelock and Thankful Harrington.<sup>1371</sup> She married second Elias Reed in 1845, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>6832</sup>

Notes for Joel H. Wheelock: His death record implies a date of birth (10 June 1806) that is earlier than his parent's marriage. Yet the 1806 birth date is consistent with the 1850, 1855, and 1860 census enumerations.

The marriage notice for Joel and Mary is published in the 18 Feb 1832 edition of the Columbian Centinel, and indicates that Joel is from Boylston, and that the two were married in Grafton.<sup>6833</sup>

Joel is identified as the son of Josiah and Thankful Wheelock in his 13 Dec 1856 Worcester marriage to Sophronia Reed (MA 101:279). He is also identified as the son of Josiah and Thankful of Concord, MA in an 1819 guardianship (Middlesex County Probate Records, case 24388) in which he is identified as a minor, under the age of 14.

His 1864 Worcester County administration of estate (case 63706) indicates that there is "no widow", and lists his children: William Wheelock, in the army, stationed near Richmond VA; Martha Blankenhorn; and George W. Wheelock, in the army, stationed near Blacksburg, VA. John Blankenhorn, his son in law, is appointed administrator.

Notes for Samuel H. Wheelock: Samuel H. Wheelock, minor, under the age of 14, is identified as the son of Josiah and Thankful Wheelock, of Concord, MA in an 1819 guardianship<sup>4061</sup>.

The identity of the Samuel H. Wheelock who married Sophronia Kemp as the son of Josiah and Thankful is assumed based on the name match, and the fact that his brother, Joel H. Wheelock also married Sophronia Kemp.

Saml H. Wheelock is enumerated in the 1840 census living in Boston, ward 11, age between 20 and 30, with two females, also between 20 and 30.

He is not found in the 1850 census, and is presumed to have died prior to the 1845 marriage of his wife to Elias Reed.

A Harriet L. Wheelock, age 3 months, daughter of Samuel, died in Boston on 26 Oct 1831, probably a daughter of Samuel and Eliza.<sup>857</sup>

Notes for Sophronia Kemp: Sophronia, age 46, is identified as the daughter of Lewis Kemp, born in Boston, in the 1856 record of her marriage to Joel H. Wheelock.

The identity of the Sophronia Kemp who married Samuel H. Wheelock with the one that married Joel H. Wheelock is based on the fact that Samuel and Joel are brothers, and that a consistent set of marriage records and surnames can be established for Sophronia between her marriage to Samuel and her marriage to Joel.

Sophia Reed, age 32, is enumerated in the 1850 U.S. census living in Boston, ward 11, with Harriet Reed (aka Harriet L. Wheelock), age 8, Sarah Reed, age 5, and Mary Reed, age 3. Also in the household is Julia Kemp, age 25, and Harriet Randall, age 30. Elias Reed is not in the household, and is presumed to have died.

Saphronia Wheelock, age 43, is enumerated in th 1860 U.S. census living in Worcester, ward 2, with J. H. Wheelock, age 54, and Sarah Reed, age 15.

Her husband's 28 Aug 1864 death record specifies a status of "married," yet his administration of estate, dated 21 Nov 1864, indicates that there is "no widow," leaving her date of death uncertain.

Children of Joel H. Wheelock and Mary E. Tracy:

- i. William Henry Wheelock was born on 25 May 1834, in Worcester, Worcester Co, MA,<sup>1408</sup> died on 29 Jun 1877, in Worcester, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>6834</sup>

This is probably the William Henry Wheelock buried in Hope Cemetery, Worcester, MA; Co. H, 7th Connecticut Infantry.

- ii. Martha Louisa D. Wheelock was born on 30 Jul 1836, in Worcester, Worcester, MA.<sup>1408</sup> She married John Blankinhorn on 20 Jul 1857, in Worcester, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>6835</sup>
- iii. George Washington Wheelock was born on 24 Jun 1838, in Worcester, Worcester, MA,<sup>1408</sup> died on 2 May 1902, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>6836</sup>

This may be the George W. Wheelock enumerated in the 1870 Census living in Boston, painter, age 31, wife Harriet A, age 35, and son Edward, age 3. The Boston birth record for his son, James Edward Wheelock, born 10 July 1867, identifies his father's birthplace as Worcester (MA 198:74). His Boston death record identifies his occupation as printer.

Children of Sophronia Kemp and Samuel H. Wheelock:

- i. Harriet L. Wheelock was born in Feb 1843, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>6837,6838</sup> She married Albert Newton on 25 Nov 1858, in Worcester, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>6838</sup> Albert Newton was born about 1837.<sup>6838</sup>

The identity of the Samuel H. Wheelock who married Sophronia Kemp as the son of Josiah and Thankful is assumed based on the name match, and the fact that his brother, Joel H. Wheelock also married Sophronia Kemp.

Ludlow about 1840.<sup>6862,6863</sup> Harriet L. Ludlow was born about 1816.<sup>6863</sup>

Notes for Benjamin F. Wheelock: Benjamin F. Wheelock was a brother of James H. Wheelock, according to the biography of James that appears in "Pioneer History of Milwaukee: 1840-1846", Volume 2, by James Smith Buck, 1881, pages 69-71, online at books.google.com, retrieved Oct 2017. The book also states that James H. Wheelock was a brother of H H, Ira, and Dunham Wheelock, of Hartford, WI.

This would make Benjamin the son of Haskell Wheelock and Lydia Dunham.

He is presumed to have married Elmira Fowler first, based on the 1836 Wisconsin marriage record; but nothing further has been found to confirm this. His daughter Sarah was probably a result of this marriage. The 1850 census places her in the household of Benjamin and Harriet, age 11, implying a birth date before Benjamin and Harriet were married. Elmira must have died or divorced Benjamin before 1840.

Benjamin appears in the 1850 Census, living in Milwaukee. He's in the 1855 Wisconsin State Census, living in Williamstown, Dodge Co, WI; in the 1860 Census living in Oconomowoc Village, Waukesha Co, WI; in the 1870 Census living in Green Bay, Brown Co, WI; in the 1875 Wisconsin State Census, living again in Green Bay; and finally in the 1880 Federal Census living in Medford, Taylor Co, WI. He appears in no further census records.

This is the J H Wheelock that appears in the 1850 Census. He is referred to as Harvey in the 1860 Census, and James Harvey Wheelock on his FindAGrave death record (memorial number 86587274).
- iv. Henry Wheelock was born about 1849.<sup>6863</sup>
- v. Ella J. Wheelock was born about 1851.<sup>6863</sup> She married Henry A. Milham on 7 Sep 1875, in Brown Co, WI.<sup>6861</sup>

Edgar Wheelock's death record ("Illinois, Deaths and Stillbirths Index, 1916-1947", www.Ancestry.com) identifies his father as Benjamin Wheelock, born in Royalton, VT. His mother is Hamil Patricia Staufer, born in NY. This is problematic, given that the census (1860, 1870) lists him in the household of Benjamin Wheelock and Harriet Ludlow, who were together as a family starting in the 1850 census through at least 1870.
- vii. Carolina Wheelock was born about 1856.<sup>6863</sup> She married Clement H. Brown on 7 Sep 1875, in Brown Co, WI.<sup>6861</sup>
- viii. Mary Wheelock was born about 1860.<sup>6863</sup>

Notes for Hiram H. Wheelock: Hiram H. Wheelock was a native of the State of New York. When about a year old, his parents moved to Royalton, VT; and shortly thereafter to Newburg (Wisconsin). In 1840, he moved to Milwaukee, and then to Pewaukee, Waukesha Co, Wisconsin where he established a factory for the manufacture of hay rakes and wooden handles. Later he became involved in milling and the manufacture of furniture. In Apr, 1846 he moved to Hartford, Washington Co, Wisconsin, then a small hamlet consisting of a few log houses and a saw mill. There he built a store, selling general supplies. The business expanded, and he formed a partnership with Mr. R. S. Kneeland, under the name Wheelock & Kneeland. Shortly after, Mr. Ira H. Wheelock and Mr. Nathan Parker bought an interest in the business, and the firm name was changed to Wheelock, Kneeland, & Co. About 1850, Mr. H. H. Wheelock & Bros. had established a branch store at Mayville, Dodge Co., under the name of Wheelock Bros., and under the management of J. D. Wheelock.

A successful business, Hiram H. Wheelock was involved in milling, retail sales of general merchandise, sale and processing of pearl ash, and water power. A man of rare business ability, with energy and courage to execute his plans, he was a powerful factor in the growth and development of Hartford and adjacent towns.<sup>6869</sup>

The birth date on his headstone (1818) disagrees with the birth date given in "History of Washington" (16 Dec 1817).

He served in this unit for three months, after which he enlisted as a private in the Seventh Wisconsin Light Artillery. He served as a recruiter, and in Sep 1861 was promoted to second lieutenant. Notes for Jerome Slater Wheelock: The children of Jerome and Anna are taken from "Biographical Review, Biographical Sketches of The Leading Citizens of Livingston and Wyoming Counties, NY", Boston, Biographical Review Publishing Company, 1895.

The same book writes the following about Jerome:

Jerome S. Wheelock was but five years old when his parents came to New York; and he clearly remembers many incidents of the journey, and the pioneer life during the early years in the new home. He assisted his father with the farm and hotel work until he was twenty-one, when he started for himself in the grocery business. Soon after, he gave this up for a short time and engaged in buying standing timber, which he cut, and then rafted the lumber through the Genessee and Erie Canals to Albany. He again took up the grocery business for a period of five years, after which time farming occupied his attention; but, as this was not entirely satisfactory, he resumed mercantile business, carrying a general stock, continuing in this until 1884. At that time he was owner of a farm at Conesus Lake; and, as he had sold out his business, farming interested him for a number of years, until, finding a suitable purchaser, he sold out, and has since lived practically retired.

Mr. Wheelock cast his first vote with the Democrats for Polk and Dallas, and his next with the Free Soil party, for Van Buren. Then, being one of the first to realize the benefits to be derived from a change in politics, he assisted in the organization of the Republican party. He was appointed Postmaster under Lincoln's administration, his commission bearing the signature of Montgomery Blair; and the length of time he held this post shows the efficiency with which he has served the public, and the high esteem in which he is regarded.

Research Notes:

The 15 Mar 1828 birth date has not yet been confirmed with original records. The 1855 NY state census lists his age as 26, implying an 1829 birth date. The 1870 U.S. census implies a birth date of 1830; the 1875 NY state census - 1831; the 1880 U.S. census - 1829; and the 1900 U.S. census states March 1829. His U.S. Civil War Draft Registration (Ancestry.com, New York, 25th Congressional District, Leicester, Vol 3 of 7), implies a birth date before July 1828. His New York Death Certificate number 36984, Nahun B. Wheelock, 6 Sep 1900, would probably resolve the conflicts, and identify the birth date.

Notes for Julia Susan Wheelock: Julia Susan Wheelock, teacher, author, and heroine of the Civil War was born in Avon, Ohio, on October 7, 1833, the seventh child of Alden and Elsie (Morey) Wheelock. In her time, she was referred to as "The Florence Nightingale of Michigan"; a tribute to her efforts tending wounded Civil War soldiers. She kept a well written diary of her Civil War experiences that serves as a captivating chronicle of the war and her times. The diary is part of the Civil War collection housed in the Lincoln Museum of Lincoln Memorial University (LMU).

When Julia was four, her father moved the family from Ohio to Erie, Pennsylvania. Her father died when she was 11 years old, and her mother when she was 21. After her mother died, Julia moved to Michigan to be near her brothers Orville and Chapin. In 1858, she entered Kalamazoo College, majoring in Latin and higher Math. Upon graduation, she began teaching.

Julia's story as a courageous participant in the Civil War begins in 1861, when her brother, Orville, enlisted. On September 23, 1861 he was mustered into Company K, Eighth Michigan Infantry. After a brief assignment as a recruiter in Detroit, he was sent to Washington, DC, with his regiment. The Eighth Michigan Infantry saw action in September of 1862 at the Battle of Chantilly, Orville's first battle. He was seriously wounded during the encounter, losing his left leg.

Julia was preparing for the new school year when a messenger delivered word of her brother's condition. She started her diary that day (September 10, 1862) with this entry:

"At 1/2 past 8 o'clock Tinie Stone called and wished to see me: I went to the door, when she informed me, that brother Orville was seriously wounded the first day of Sept. in the battle near Centerville, that he lay several days on the field, had his left limb amputated -- but was finally taken to a hospital in Alexandria, Va."

The next day Julia set out for Washington, DC, to the aid of her brother. Anna, Orville's wife, and her sister, Sarah, both accompanied Julia on her journey. In two days they arrived and immediately began looking for Orville among the wounded and dying in the hospitals of Washington. During her search Julia befriended Elmina Brainard, a nurse from Michigan who had come to attend to the wounded soldiers of the Seventh Michigan Infantry. She and Elmina became close friends and would work together throughout the Civil War.

On September 14, 1862, Julia, Anna, and Sarah were told that Orville had been seen in a hospital in Alexandria, Virginia. When they arrived, they went first to the Southern Methodist Hospital, and then to the Lyceum, where they were told that Orville was just across the street, at the Baptist Church hospital. They started across the street, but were called back and told that Orville was at the Lyceum, and was doing fine.

But hope quickly turned to despair when they were met at the door, and told that Orville had died on September 9, 1862, and had been buried the next day in grave 207 at the soldiers cemetery in Alexandria (now the Alexandria National Cemetery).

The grief stricken women were taken to the cemetery by Clara Jones, the nurse who attended to Orville in his final hours. Clara greatly impressed Julia with her account of Orville's sickness.

Several days later, Anna and Sarah left for Michigan; but Julia stayed behind and visited hospitals with her new friend, Elmina. By the end of September, both had been appointed visiting agents of the Michigan Relief Association.

Julia's duties during this period were to administer to the sick, wounded, and dying soldiers; with an emphasis on those from Michigan. She would assist the nurses, help feed the soldiers, write letters home for those unable to do so themselves, and provide moral support for those who might not live to see the morrow.

Julia's diaries are filled with accounts of anguish and suffering. She worked for up to twelve hours a day, caring for the wounded and dying, after which she would return to her Alexandria boarding and bake pies to take to the soldiers the next day.

Julia fought to improve the conditions of the warehouses and churches that were used to house the wounded. They were often dirty and unsanitary. She felt that they were looked upon as repositories for the dying rather than houses of healing.

In time, Julia's kindness and hard work became well known amongst the soldiers. She was paid five dollars a week, funded with donations by the people of Michigan.

She occasionally did some sightseeing. Her diary has stories of visits to the Capitol, Mt. Vernon, and Christ Church in Alexandria, where she wrote about running her hand over the pew that George Washington sat in.

During a speech, given by Andrew Johnson, she saw Abraham Lincoln, and his young son, accompanied by members of his cabinet. She met Ulysses S. Grant, in 1864, during one of her visits to the front.

She writes at length of Lincoln's assassination. She visited Lincoln lying in state at both the White House and the Capitol. The following is her account:

"The windows, mantle & walls were heavy draped in black. In the middle of the room on a platform covered with black sat the coffin which was beautiful beyond description. A wreath of white flowers and green leaves lay all around the coffin & overhead was a canopy of black. There in the cold embrace of death lay the Chief Magistrate of our country - a placid smile was upon his countenance. It seemed he must only be sleeping, that he would soon awake, but alas! he sleeps the sleep that knows no waking."

Julia's work with the Michigan Relief association ended in July 1865. She stayed in Washington, working at the Treasury Department, until 1873, when she returned to Michigan.

She married Porter C. Freeman, of Middleville, Michigan, on May 18, 1873. The couple lived in Middleville, where they had two sons, Frank Wheelock Freeman, born 1876, and Frederick Orville Freeman, born 1879. The family later moved to Springfield, Missouri, where Frank died at the young age of 14. Fred became a geologist and oil operator.

Julia wrote "Boys in White, Experiences of a Hospital Agent in and Around Washington" while in Middleville. The book described her wartime experiences. It sold reasonably well, and received good reviews.

In 1890, Julia was granted a pension of 12 dollars a month for her service during the war. A document, issued by the House of Representatives stated, "Julia Wheelock was a brave woman, a patriot in the highest sense of the term."

She died on June 7, 1900, at the age of sixty six. She was buried next to her son, Frank, in the Hazlewood Cemetery, in Springfield, Mo. Today, the site overlooks the Springfield National Cemetery.

In Oct 2002 she received a post-humous award from the Michigan Women's Hall of Fame, for her selfless, tireless efforts during the Civil War. The award, presented by Dr. Weldon Petz, was received on her behalf by Bonnie Bergeron, a gg-niece.

Notes for Amelia Lyon: Her surname, Lyon, is identified in the 1928 Cass Co, MI, death record of her daughter, Cora (Wheelock) Harley.

Per death certificate, she was the daughter of Asa Lyon and Marcia Malory, both born in New York.<sup>6939</sup>

She is enumerated in the 1900 U.S. census living with her son, Asa P. Wheelock, in Chicago, Cook Co, IL, born Oct 1832 in New York, widowed, mother of eight children.

In 1910 she is again enumerated in the household of her son Asa P. Wheelock, this time in Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co, CA. Her status is given as widowed.

Children of George A. Wheelock and Amelia Lyon:

- i. Nelson Wheelock was born on 6 May 1855, in NY,<sup>6940,6941</sup> died on 7 Jul 1939,<sup>6941</sup> buried in Hollywood Forever Cemetery, Hollywood, Los Angeles Co, CA.<sup>6941</sup>

Notes for Ezekial Wheelock: Ezekial moved to Maine sometime before 1850, when he appears in Wayne, Kennebec Co living with Cyrena Wheelock, age 5, and John W. Wheelock, age 3, both presumed to be children of Ezekial and Uraniah. A Urania D. Wheelock is buried in Wayne, age 6 months. Her headstone confirms that she is the "daughter of E. F. and U. E. Wheelock". Her mother died 6 months earlier, suggesting that she may have died giving birth to Urania.

Also living with Ezekial in 1850 is Charlotte Small, age 20, whom he married 30 Oct 1850 in Wayne.

The family moved to Corning, Steuben Co, NY sometime before 1855, when they are enumerated there in the New York census. This is the key evidence that links Ezekial's father, Silas, with his parents, Baruch and Philadelphia. Many other members of this family moved to Corning, including Ezekial's uncles, Paris, Marcus, and David.

Ezekial's second wife died in 1872 (per headstone record). By 1875 he had apparently remarried, as he is living with Sarah A. Wheelock, age 41, in the 1875 New York Census.

Notes for Uraniah E. Aldrich: Her calculated birth date, from age at death, is 31 Oct 1822, yet her FindAGrave memorial, and most online genealogies cite a birth date of 10 Nov 1822.

Notes for Sarah A. (--?--): This is probably the Sarah A. Wheelock (1831 - 1915) buried in Hope Cemetery, Corning, Steuben Co, NY.

Notes for Susan Wheelock: An obituary, written by Susan's brother in law, Benjamin N. Langston, was found in a family bible, originally owned by Jane Coppock, now owned (Oct 2000) by Barbara Teague (ggg-granddaughter of Jane Coppock, and a descendant of Susan (Wheelock) Teague):

"TEAGUE - Died, near Pleasant Hill, Miami County Ohio, December 8th, 1868, Susan Teague, wife of John Teague, in her 45th year. After taking an affectionate farewell of her husband, five children, and other relatives, and friends, she fell asleep in Jesus. At her fall many tears were shed, and many hearts were filled with sorrow and mourning. Funeral sermon by Elders William and Thomas Jay to a large congregation.

B. N. Langston"

Notes for John Teague: John was a farmer in Newton Township, Miami Co, OH. His estate was entered into probate 9 May 1898. The "History of Miami County, Ohio", by W. H. Beers, published Chicago, 1880, pg. 795 has further information on John Teague.

John Teague is the son of Moses Teague. Moses and his father Samuel Teague moved from South Carolina to southwest Ohio between 1800 and 1805.

John Teague's death certificate gives date of death as 10 May 1898, in disagreement with the obituary (which gives 4 May 1898). Since other Miami Co records give 9 May 1898 as the date the estate entered probate, it is assumed the 4 May 1898 date is more accurate.<sup>6972</sup>

He remained on this property for about six years, after which he removed to West Milton, where he owned 118 1/4 acres of land.

He was a member of Company D, 148th O.V.I., 100-day men, whose time of service was consumed in doing duty on the Potomac, in the vicinity of Washington. As of 1880, he had six children, all of whom were living:

Notes for Martha A. Trott: Per marriage record, she was born circa 1836, Boston, Massachusetts, daughter of Edward Trott.

She is enumerated in the 1900 census living in Janesville, Wisconsin, with her son, Frank H. Wheelock. She was, widowed, born Mar 1836 in Massachusetts, "capitalist" by occupation.

Research Notes:

Martha Trott is enumerated in the 1850 census in Boston, age 14, in the household of Mrs. Trott, age 39, Charles W. Trott, age 9, Ire E. Isley, age 40, M. Bowker, age 40, B. F. Perry, age 39, and J. W. Perry, age 5.

Per Martha Trott's marriage record, her father was Edward Trott, probably the man who died intestate in Boston, 20 July 1842, explaining his lack of appearance in the 1850 census. His widow, Sally R. Trott was granted administration of the estate. (Suffolk Co probate, case 33343.) He is buried in Swansea, born 1805 per headstone. This matches the Swansea birth record for Edward Trott, the son of James and Martha Trott.

There is a 27 Jan 1833 marriage record for Edward Trott, of Swansea, and Sally R. Tibbetts - the only matching record in Boston. Edward would have been 25, and Sally, as will be seen later, 24.

Sarah R. Trott, likely Edwards widow, age 43, married 1 Sep 1850 in Boston to Benjamin F. Perry, also a plasterer, age 41, born Hardwick, son of Ebenezer, second marriage for both. Per marriage record, she was born in Rochester, NY, no parents identified (MA 47:99). Note that her husband was probably the B. F. Perry living in "Mrs. Trott's" household in 1850.

Sarah R. Perry is enumerated in the 1855 state census, age 50, living with Benjamin F. Perry, plasterer, age 50, in Boston, with James R. Perry, age 11, and several others. Per this record, Sarah R. Perry was born in New Hampshire.

In 1870 Sarah Perry, age 60, born New Hampshire, was living in Janesville, Wisconsin, in the household of Wadsworth Grant and Martha A. Wheelock.

In 1880, Sarah [?] Perry, age 64 [or 74], mother-in-law, born Wisconsin (sic), was living in the household of Walter Wheelock (sic) with his wife Martha A. Wheelock, born Massachusetts, and children George, Arthur W., and Frank. W.

Sarah R. Perry died 22 Mar 1884, Rock Co, Wisconsin. Per death record, she was born 29 June 1806 in Rochester, NY (Wisconsin Death Records, FamilySearch.org).

She is buried in Oak Hill Cemetery in Janesville, near her daughter, Martha, with a gravestone marked Grandma, dates 1806 - 1884 (FindAGrave memorial 143838717).

With these facts, it seems certain that Sarah R. Perry is Martha's mother, and that her maiden name was Tibbetts. Her birth place - either New Hampshire, or Rochester, New York, is less certain. It is possible that she was from Rochester, Strafford County, New Hampshire. There was a large population of Tibbets living there in 1810. Rochester, New York was not founded until 1817, after Sarah's birth. And, in 1810, there were only a few Tibbets living in towns near the future site of Rochester - Sodus, Canandaigua, and Geneva. Examining the Rochester, New Hampshire town records might reveal proof.

Martha Trott's obituary identifies a surviving brother, Charles A. Trott (consistent with the 1850 census), living in Joplin, Missouri. This is actually Charles Ware Trott, born 20 Aug 1841, died 16 Nov 1932, buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Webb City, Missouri (FindAGrave memorial 57022217.) His death certificate does not identify his parents.

Research Notes:

In Sep 1847, Benjamin Hare married Elizabeth Peck Lee in Providence, Rhode Island.<sup>7091</sup>

In 1860 the couple was living in Providence, ward 1. Edward Hare, age 34, carpenter, born in Connecticut, and Elizabeth P. Hare, age 34, born in Massachusetts are living with Lewis A. Hare, age 7, born Rhode Island, and Frank E. Hare, age 5, born Rhode Island. Both children are probably from a previous marriage.

Edward E. Lee was born 9 Oct 1852, in Providence, Rhode Island, per Wheelock Family of Calais.

By 1860 he and his mother were living in Cumberland Rhode Island - with no other household members.

Elizabeth Hair, age 44, born in Massachusetts, and Edward E. Hair, age 7, born in Rhode Island, occupy their own dwelling.

In 1865 Elizabeth P. Hare, age 49, born in Massachusetts, was living on her own in Cumberland, Rhode Island.

In 1870, Edward B. Lee, age 17, born Rhode Island, clerk in stationary store, was living with member of the Wilkinson family, in Pawtucket.

In 1875 the two were living together again in Pawtucket: Elizabeth P. Lee, age 59, head of household, born Cumberland, and Edward E. Lee, age 22, son, single, clerk by profession.

Likely Benjamin Hare and Elizabeth Lee separated before 1860 (or before 1854, see below), when she and her son are living in a different household from Benjamin Hare. Between 1860 and 1870, Edward started going by his mother's surname, rather than his fathers.

Probably this is the same Benjamin Hare of Providence, Rhode Island, age 39, cabinet maker, born Woodstock, Connecticut, son of Roswell and Ann Hare, that married 5 Dec 1854 Lydia A. Engles, of Providence, Rhode Island, age 31, ceremony held in Millbury, Massachusetts (MA 80:248).

Research Notes:

Regarding Alfred's birth place: a family record places his birth in Alexandria, Jefferson County, New York, which is near Le Ray.<sup>1698</sup> In 1865, the family was living in Le Ray, per New York state census, and later (before the 1870 census was taken) moved back to Stockton. Based on these records, the Alexandria birth place is plausible. However, his marriage record gives his birth place as Stockton, Illinois, which is where, no doubt, he spent most of his youth. The 1870, 1880, 1900, 1910, 1920, and 1930 federal census records state that he was born in Illinois. An obituary specifically says he was born in Stockton, Jo Daviess County, Illinois;<sup>7263</sup> and does his 1936 Oregon death certificate also says Stockton (with his son Clifford as informant).

Notes for Mary Croissant: She was the daughter of Charles Croissant and Christena Crahingerg [sic] per transcribed marriage record.

In 1875 he was 57, living with his wife, Laura, 44, his daughter Eliza, 2 1/2, and his daughter Hattie, 15. In 1880 he was 61, living in Hamburg with his wife, Laura, 48, his daughters Hattie, 20, and Eliza L., 7.

The petition for his estate was filed 30 Apr 1883, Erie County case 19752, letters testamentary 11:228, will 26:171 (not available online as of 30 May 2023). The petition for will, dated 28 Apr 1883, named the following heirs and next of kin: George E. Schmitt (probably the Eugene in the 1865 census), aged 32 years, residing at

Denver, Colorado; Louis E. Schmitt, aged 30, residing in the Village of Hamburg, Erie Co, NY; and Eliza L. Schmitt, who resided with the petitioner (Laura Schmitt, widow) in the Village of Hamburg. Laura Schmitt, Amos Colvin, and Hilton Wheelock were appointed executors.<sup>5297</sup>

Children of George A. Schmitt and Sophronia Wheelock:

- i. George Eugene Smith was born about 1851, in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY,<sup>5295,5299,5300</sup> died on 13 Nov 1930, in Miami, Miami-Dade Co, FL.<sup>5300,5301</sup> He married Theresa Lawler on 23 Sep 1877, in Denver, CO.<sup>5302</sup> Theresa Lawler was born in Nov 1860, in Ireland,<sup>5303</sup> died on 29 Jan 1952, in Miami, Miami-Dade Co, FL.<sup>5304</sup>

He was called Eugene Schmitt in the 1865 NY census. He was listed in his father's probate records, dated 28 Apr 1883, as George E. Schmitt of Denver, Colorado. He was listed in his uncle Homer Wheelock's probate records, dated 5 Feb 1892, as Eugene Schmitt, of Denver. He called himself George E. Smith in the census records, except for the 1920 census, in which he is listed as Eugene Smith. He was a bookkeeper and accountant. He had moved to Denver, Colorado, by 1877, when he married Theresa Lawler there. Per obituaries and Denver directory, they remained in Denver until about 1827, when they moved to Miami, Florida, where both remained for the rest of their lives. Per obit, George was survived by his widow, Mrs. Teresa Smith of Miami, a son, Harold E. Smith of Denver, a daughter, Mrs. E. Fox, of Miami, and a grandson, Eugene S. Huges, of Miami.<sup>5301</sup> His death certificate says he was born 19 July 1847 in Hamburg, New York, son of George E. [sic] Smith. Besides the middle initial of his father, the birth date is also incorrect. His parents didn't marry until 1849, and on 8 Aug 1850, when George A. and Sophiah Smith were enumerated in the U.S. census in Hamburg, there were no children in the household Research Notes: George E. Smith married Theresa Lawler in Denver, Colorado, 23 Sep 1877.<sup>5302</sup> George E. Smith, book keeper, 28, born New York, is enumerated in the 1880 census living in Denver, Arapahoe County, Colorado, father born in Germany, mother in Ireland. He was married to Florence Smith, 19, who was born in Ireland, parents born in Ireland. They had a 1 year old daughter, Annie Smith, born in Colorado. Also in the household was Mary Lawler, 75, born Ireland, possibly Theresa's grandmother, or relative. Florence Smith must have been Theresa - perhaps a mistake by the census taker, or an alternative name for Theresa. In 1900, George E. Smith, book keeper, age 49, born July 1850 in New York, was living in Denver, with his wife, Theresa L. Smith, 39, born Ireland. They were married about 1878. His parents were both born in Germany. Her parents were both born in Ireland. Their niece, Mildred Culbert, 20, born Jan 1880 in Colorado, was also living in the household. She could be the Mildred Anna Culbert, who married 6 Oct 1909 in Seattle, Washington, Frank E. Groppenbacher. She was the daughter of Wm. C. and Mary Culbert.<sup>5305</sup> In 1910, George E. Smith, accountant, 59, born about 1851 in New York, mother born New York, father Germany, was living in Denver with his wife, Theresa L. Smith, 49, born Ireland, parents both born in Ireland. In 1920, Eugene Smith, 69, and his wife, Theresa, 59, were living in Denver. Eugene was born about 1851 in New York, mother born in New York, father in Germany. No occupation listed. Theresa was born about 1861 in Ireland, parents both born in Ireland. She immigrated about 1880. He was not found in the 1930 census. Geo E. Smith not found in 1929 Denver directory (image 1089 of 1258). Nor was Theresa found (image 1093). George Eugene Smith died 13 Nov 1930 in Miamia, married to Theresa L. Smith. Per death certificate, he was born 19 July 1847 in Hamburg, New York. He had been a resident of Miami for three years before his death.<sup>5300</sup> So George did not die in Colorado. He and Theresa moved to Miami circa 1927 or 1928, when they both disappeared from the Denver City directory. His death notice, which does not identify his parents, was published in the 14 Nov 1930 edition of The Miami News. He was survived by his widow, Mrs. Teresa Smith of Miami, a son, Harold E. Smith of Denver; a daughter, Mrs. E. Fox, of Miami, and a grandson, Eugene S. Hughes, Miami.<sup>5301</sup> In 1940, Theresa Smith, 80, widowed, born Colorado, lived in Miami, Florida, with Eugenia H. Fox, 60, daughter, born Colorado. Eugenia may also have gone by the name Annie. She may be the Annie E. Hughes, born June 1879 in Colorado, living in Denver with her husband, Amos B. Hughes. The two later got a divorce, and Eugenia Hughes married 26 July 1920 Herman C. Fox in Denver.<sup>5306</sup> A Theresa L. Smith, who came from Denver to Miami, Florida, circa 1929, died 29 Jan 1952 in Miami, after a long illness. She was survived by a daughter, Mrs. Eugenia H. Fox; a son, Harold E. Smith; and a grandson, Eugene S. Hughes, all of Miami.<sup>5304</sup> Regarding Harold E. Smith: Harold E. Smith married Nettie E. Needham, 8 Oct 1911, in Denver.<sup>5307</sup> Harold Edward Smith, b. 12 Dec 1880 in Denver, Colorado, resided at 1325 Delaware Ave on 12 Sep 1918, when he registered for World War I draft. This is the same address his that George E. and Theresa Smith lived at in the 1920's. His wife was Nettie E. Smith.<sup>5308</sup> In 1920, Harold E. Smith, 40, born Colorado, manager, DC and H, was living in North Platte Ward 3, Lincoln, Nebraska, with Nettie E. Smith, 42, Mary Jane Smith, 20, a Richard J Burros. His father was born in New York, mother in Ireland. In 1930, he was living in Denver, 49, born Colorado, age 17 at first marriage (i.e. he married about 1898). His wife was Nettie E. Smith, 54, and daughter Marijane Smith, 30. In 1940, Harold E. Smith was 58, born Colorado, living in Warren, Marion County, Indiana, inferred residence in 1935 was Miami, Florida. His wife was Nettie E. Smith, 64, daughter Maryane Smith, 40. In 1950, Harold E. Smith was 68, born Colorado, widowed, living in Dade County, Florida, with Mary Jane Smith, 50, born Indiana.

- ii. Lewis E. Smith was born in Jan 1852.<sup>5299,5309</sup> He married Bertha White about 1876.<sup>5310,5311</sup> She was the daughter of Hoel White and Hepzibah Allen.<sup>5310,5312</sup> Bertha White was born about 1856, in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY,<sup>5310</sup> died on 7 May 1892, in Denver, CO.<sup>5310</sup>

Per probate records of his father, on 28 Apr 1883, he was 30, residing in Hamburg, Erie County, New York.<sup>5313</sup> In the probate records of his uncle, Harmon Wheelock, dated 5 Feb 1892, he was referred to as Lewis Schmitt, 40, of Denver, Colorado.<sup>2149</sup> In 1880 Lewis E. Smith was living in Hamburg, age 28, born New York, merchant tailor, with his wife Bertha Smith, 22, born New York, and son George E. Smith, 3, born New York. Circa 1889 they moved to Denver, Colorado, where he was employed as a tailor.<sup>5314</sup> His wife died 7 May 1892 in Denver, per her obit. At the time, they had four children: George, Lewis, Helen, and Tessie (or Jessie). The latter two went back to Hamburg to live with their grandfather, Hoel White.<sup>5315</sup> In 1900, Louis E Smith, 48, born Jan 1852, tailor, widowed, mother born New York, father Germany, was living at 929 16th Street, in Denver, Arapahoe County, Colorado, with his son, Louis H. Smith, 15, born Jun 1884 New York. In 1901, Louis E Smith, tailor, was living at 929 17th St in Denver, per city directory. Not found in 1902 Denver city directory, or thereafter. Research Notes for Lewis E. Smith: In 1880 Lewis E. Smith was living in Hamburg, age 28, born New York, merchant tailor, with his wife Bertha Smith, 22, born New York, and son George E. Smith, 3, born New York. Per obit, Bertha White, wife of L. E. Smith, died in Denver, Colorado, 7 May 1892, aged 36 years, leaving behind a husband, sons Georgie and Lewis, daughters Helen and Tessie, her father Hoel White and brothers, Benton, Zoeth, and Demetrius White. She was born in Hamburg and had resided here until about three years before her death. Her mother was a sister of "Aunt" Amanda Wheelock.<sup>5310</sup> The Buffalo Weekly Express on 2 June 1892 announced the return of Hoel White to his home in Hamburg from Denver where he was called by the death of his daughter, Mrs. Bertha Smith. His granddaughters, Helen and Jessie came with him, and will make there home at Hoel White's.<sup>5316</sup> In 1850, Hoel White, 33, born Vermont, was living in Hamburg with Sylvia J. White, 25, born Canada, with Thom H. White, 6, Lewis White, 3, and Rebecca White, 65. H. White was living in Hamburg in 1855, his wife was H. White, age 29, born Erie County. T B White, 10, L(?) A White, 8, and M. D. White, 4, was also in the household, along with R White, 69, mother, and H. White, 17, nephew. Hoel

White was living in Hamburg in 1860. Bertha was enumerated in the household, age 2. Hepzibah White was Hoel's wife, age 35, probably Bertha's mother - although FamilySearch says it was Sylvia Pierce (his previous wife).<sup>5317</sup> Also in the household: Thomas, Zoth, Demetrius, Alice, all children of Hoel's, and Rebecca White, 75, possibly his mother. In 1865, Hoel White, 47, was living in Hamburg with Laura White, age 46. Also in the household was Zoheth White, 18, Demetrius White, 14, Alice White, 8, and Bertha White, 6, all children of Hoel, all born in Erie County. After Hepzibah, Hoel married two women name Laura (per Find A Grave). One of them died 10 Oct 1874 at Hamburg, Laura A. White, aged 55.<sup>5318</sup> Another, who was affectionately called "Grandma White", died 25 Apr 1923 in Buffalo, where she had been living for 10 years. Her grand-daughter was Mrs. Helen Hipple of Buffalo.<sup>5319</sup> Hoel died 10 Apr 1899 in Hamburg. He was survived by his wife and two sons.<sup>5320</sup> In 1900, Louis E Smith, 48, born Jan 1852, tailor, widowed, mother born New York, father Germany, was living at 929 16th Street, in Denver, Arapahoe County, Colorado, with his son, Louis H. Smith, 15, born Jun 1884 New York. In 1901, Louis E Smith, tailor, was living at 929 17th St in Denver, per city directory (image 650 at Ancestry). Not found in 1902 Denver city directory.

- iii. Hattie Schmitt was born in 1860,<sup>5321</sup> died in 1881,<sup>5321</sup> buried in Prospect Lawn Cemetery, Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>5321</sup>

Per headstone, she was the adopted daughter of George A. Schmitt.

Lida Beetch married first Bernard H. Doland about 1879, in probably Saline Co, KS.

Notes for William Henry Harrison Wheelock: The genealogy of William Harrison Wheelock, Sr. was derived from a letter written to Virginia Rees Burdick by his grandson, Albert Wheelock; and by a typewritten note, written by one of William's grandchildren (a child of Edward Silas Wheelock). This typewritten note was found in the private records of Persis (Park) Ivett, a Wheelock genealogist; it's origins are not known. Nearly all of the data from these two sources are consistent. Whenever an inconsistency was found, the data was taken from the typewritten note, as this seemed more detailed, and thus more accurate.

The New York census of 1850 corroborates the information presented here. It identifies a William H. Wheelock, age 13, residing in the household of Albert Wheelock, of East Hamburg, N.Y.

Albert wrote that some of his ancestors were from Hamburg, Germany. According to the 1850 Census records, the Dorst family was from Germany; and many of them lived close to the Wheelocks in East Hamburg.

William Harrison had 8 children by his first wife. William and 3 of his boys (Albert, Edward, and William) moved from Buffalo, N.Y. to Marion, Kansas circa 1880. His wife (Caroline Dorst) followed him out with 4 daughters, but did not like it and returned to Buffalo. The letter states that William's father had 7 brothers. It also states that William Harrison's oldest son (Jacob) was killed when he was around 14 years old.

Though the source letter from Albert Wheelock, from which most of this information was derived, indicates that William H. Wheelock was from Buffalo, the N.Y. census of 1850 and 1860 place William in East Hamburg, N.Y.

His obituary, published in the 11 June 1908 edition of the Marion Record, states that he was born 9 July 1836 at Hamburg, NY, died Marion, Kansas, 3 June 1908 at 4 am. He was a member of the baptist church. William married at Middle Creek, Marion Co, Kansas, 20 November 1884, Lida A. Doland. He was in the stock business, and was proprietor of the New Elgin hotel. The children present at the funeral were: Mr. Ed Wheelock, banker at Watonga, Okla.; Mrs. E. B. Coen, Bloomington, Ill; Mrs. Lillian Immer and C. H. Wheelock, of Marion. Relatives "from a distance" were: Mr. S. Beetch; Mr. F. Heldstab and Mrs Lizzie Haney, Carlton, Kansas, and Mr. B. Beetch, Enid, Okla.<sup>7409</sup>

Another obituary in the 11 June 1908 edition of the Marion Headlight, agrees with the birth, death, and marriage date above, and lists the children present at the funeral: "Ed Wheelock, who is a banker at Watonga, Okla.; Henry Wheelock of this city; and the step-daughters, Lillian Immer of Marion and Mrs. E. B. Coen of Bloomington, Ill."<sup>7410</sup>

A "card of thanks" was published in the Marion Record. It read: "We wish to express our thanks for the kindness and sympathy extended during the recent illness and death of our husband and father, Signed: Mrs. W. H. Wheelock, Mrs. Immer, Mrs. Coen, C. H. Wheelock, Ed Wheelock."<sup>7411</sup>

Notes for Caroline Juliana Dorst: In 1860 Caroline, was living in Buffalo, New York, age 17, born New York, with her father, Jacob Dorst, 46, born Bavaria, and her mother, Louisa Dorst, age 40, born France. Other children in the household were Louisa, 19, Sophia, 15, and Julia, 14, all born in New York.

After marriage, Caroline Dorst lived with her husband, William Harrison Wheelock in East Hamburg, NY. They had eight children (3 boys, 5 girls). Circa 1880 William Harrison Wheelock, Sr. moved (with the 3 boys) to Marion, Kansas, where he established a Ranch. Caroline followed with the daughters, but did not like it, and returned to NY. William Harrison Wheelock remarried, so one can speculate that Caroline and William must have divorced.

Her parents are identified as Jacob Dorst, born Germany, and (--?--) Smith, born France, in the Cook County deaths index.

Notes for Bernard H. Doland: In 1880, B. U. Dolan [sic], age 28, postal carrier, was living in Salina, KS, with his wife, Lydia Dolan, age 19, born Kentucky. They had a 1 month old daughter, Lillie Dolan, born Kansas.

In 1882, B. H. Doland was listed in the Saline County Directory, living in Salina.

Lida A. Doland was granted a divorce from Bernard H. Doland by District Court in Saline County, Kansas, 14 Jan 1884.<sup>7412</sup>

Notes for Lida Beetch: William's second wife was called "Lida A. Doland" in his obituary, which says they were married 20 Nov 1884 in Middle Creek, Marion County, Kansas.<sup>7409</sup>

In 1880, Lida Doland was living in Salina, Saline County, Kansas, listed as "Lydia Dolan", age 19, born Kentucky, parents born in Prussia. Her husband was B. U. Dolan, age 28, born Rhode Island, parents born in Ireland. Also in the household was Lillie Dolan, age 1 month, born Kansas.

On 2 Nov 1883, Lida A. Doland published intention to sue Bernard Doland for divorce.<sup>7413</sup>

Lida A. Doland was granted a divorce from Bernard Doland by District Court in Saline County, Kansas, 14 Jan 1884.<sup>7414</sup>

In 1900, Lida A. Wheelock, born Oct 1862 in Kentucky, parents born in Germany, was living in Gypsum, Saline County, Kansas, with her husband, W. Henry Wheelock. She was the mother of three children, all living. Also in the household were her presumed children - Lillie Doland, born Oct 1879, and L. May Doland, born Sep 1883, both born in Kansas, both listed as step daughters of W. Henry Wheelock; and Henry Wheelock, son, born Sep 1887 in Kansas.

On 31 March 1906, C. H. Wheelock was referred to as the proprietor of the New Elgin hotel.<sup>7415</sup>

In 1908, a newspaper advertisement for Christmas dinner at the New Elgin Hotel in Marion, Kansas, refers to Mrs. W. H. Wheelock as "proprietess" of the hotel, and Lillian W. Immer as manager.<sup>7416</sup>

In 1925, Lida A. Wheelock, age 65, widow, born Kentucky, was living with her sister Mary Beech, 50, born in Kansas, and with her grand-daughter, Virginia Beech, age 14, born Colorado.

In 1930 she was again in Marion, age 67, occupation proprietor, rooming house, living with her daughter, Mamie Coen, 35, and her sister, Mary Beetch, age 64, single, born in Kansas. Both Lyda and Mary list their father's birth place as Germany, their mother's as Ohio. In 1950, Mary Beetch, age 73, was "never married (single)", a patient in the State Home for the feeble minded in Walnut Cowley County, Kansas. This implies Lida's maiden name was Beetch. See notes about Beetch surname below.

In 1940 Lida A. Wheelock was living in Marion, Marion County, Kansas, age 78, with her son in law, Edward B. Coen, and her daughter, Clara May Coen, age 55. This latter is presumably the L. May Doland, born Sep 1883, living with Lida and William in 1900.

The wedding of Clara Mae Wheelock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wheelock, and Dr. Edward Coen, of Bloomington, Illinois, was announced in the 20 June 1907 edition of the Marion Record. It mentions "little William Immer," the brides nephew, and Mrs. Immer, the brides sister. Reception was held at the Elgin Hotel.<sup>7417</sup>

Beetch Surname:

The 1930 census identifies Mary Beetch as the sister of Lida A. Wheelock. Mary was single, suggesting that Lida's maiden name may have been Beetch.

Per census records, Mary Beetch was born circa 1875. The 1930 census is an outlier, saying she was born circa 1865.

There was a Mary Beech [sic], born circa 1875 in Kansas, enumerated in the 1880 census, living in the household of her mother, Catherine Beech, who was age 44, divorced, born in Prussia. The following children were in the household (Lida not present): Mike, Victoria, Charles, Simon, and Biernard Beech. Per FindAGrave memorial, Catharine Sedan Beetch died 30 May 1900, buried in Fairview Cemetery, Carlton, Dickinson County, Kansas. She was divorced from her husband Jacob.<sup>7418</sup>

An obituary for Catherine Beetch was published in the 8 June 1900 edition of The Gypsum Advocate. It identifies her birth date, her maiden name, confirms her marriage to Jacob Beetch, and states that her memorial service was conducted at the residence of W. H. Wheelock.<sup>7408</sup>

A probate notice for the estate of Catharine Beetch was published in the 10 May 1901 edition of The Salina Semi-Weekly Journal identifying the following heirs: Henry Beetch, Bernard Beetch, Mrs. Lida A. Wheelock, and Mrs. Lizzie Haney.<sup>7419</sup>

W. H. Wheelock was granted letters of administration on the estate of Catharine Beetch.<sup>7420</sup>

Unfortunately, the probate files for Catharine Beetch deceased (case 1256, 1 May 1901), and Mary Beetch insane (case 1262, 29 May 1901) are both missing from the FHL film 2367400.

These facts confirm that Lida's maiden name was Beetch. The identify of her surname as Coen or Timmer in the letter from Albert Wheelock to his relative, Virginia (Rees) Burdick, date unknown, was likely an error. The names of Lida's son's in law were Coen and Immer, possibly the source of this confusion.

Children of William Henry Harrison Wheelock and Caroline Juliana Dorst:

- i. Jacob Dorst Wheelock was born on 31 Aug 1861, in Hamburg, Erie County, NY,<sup>5130,7421</sup> died on 1 May 1874, in Armor, NY,<sup>5130,7421</sup> buried in Hillcrest Cemetery and Mausoleum, Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>7421</sup>

Jacob died in the town of Armor, NY, which was originally Abbott's Corners.

- ii. Arvilla Augusta Wheelock was born on 2 Jan 1863, in Hamburg, Erie, NY,<sup>5130</sup> died on 17 Aug 1891, in Buffalo, NY.<sup>5130</sup>

The City of Buffalo Health Department Registers give a death date of 17 Aug 1891, age 28 years 7 months 10 days implying a birth date of 7 Jan 1863.<sup>7422</sup>

- 1147 iii. Edward Silas Wheelock was born on 30 Apr 1864, in Hamburg, Erie County, NY,<sup>5130,7423</sup> died on 26 Sep 1959, in Napa, California.<sup>5130,7423,7424</sup>

- 1148 iv. Albert Henry Wheelock was born on 6 Feb 1866, in Hamburg, Erie County, N.Y.<sup>5130,7425</sup> died on 20 Sep 1915, in Alva, Woods, Oklahoma.<sup>5130,7426,7427</sup>

He married Betty Heald on 5 May 1897, in Gypsum, Saline Co, KS.<sup>7430</sup>

Per letter from his nephew, Albert Bryan Wheelock, William moved (probably from Marion, Kansas, where his father lived and operated a ranch) to Woodard, Oklahoma, where he also operated a ranch, and later died of typhoid fever. Research Notes for William H. Wheelock, Jr: His gravestone states that he was born in 1870.<sup>7431</sup> His obituary agrees, stating that he was born in Erie County, New York in 1870. But it also states that he was 31 years 11 months and 16 days of age when he died on 23 Oct 1901, which implies a birth date of 7 November 1869.<sup>7428</sup> A child of his brother, Edward Silas Wheelock, in an undated letter to a distant relative, gave a birth date of 6 Nov 1867. He was listed as 2 years old in the 1870 census, living in the household of Henry and Carrie Wheelock, Hamburg, Erie County, New York. In the 1875 New York state census, he was listed as 7 years old, living with his parents and siblings in Hamburg. In 1880 he was 12, living in Gypsum, Saline County, Kansas, with his parents, his sister Clara, age 7, and a cousin, William Poole, age 14. These ages are all consistent with the 6 Nov 1867 birth date. He was not found in the 1900 census. He is probably the W. H. Wheelock Jr of Gypsum, Saline County, Kansas, who was issued a license to marry Miss Bettie Heald, also of Gypsum, as reported in the 8 May 1897 edition of The Salina Sun.<sup>7432</sup> The license was issued on 30 Apr 1897. His age on the license was 29 years, which is also consistent with the 6 Nov 1876 marriage date reported by his relative.<sup>7433</sup> The same age is given on the certificate of marriage, dated 5 May 1897.<sup>7430</sup>

- 1149 vi. Caroline M. "Carrie" Wheelock was born on 5 Sep 1869, in Armor, NY,<sup>5130,7434</sup> died on 16 Jan 1957, in Buffalo, Erie County, NY.<sup>7435</sup>

- viii. Ida Lela Wheelock was born on 5 May 1873, in Armor, Erie Co, NY,<sup>5130</sup> died on 1 Jan 1951, in Chicago, Cook Co, IL.<sup>5130,7439</sup> She married Edwin Mason Mead on 20 Jun 1900, in Armor, Erie Co, NY.<sup>7440</sup> He was the son of Darius Mead and Orinda Mason.<sup>7441,7442</sup> Edwin Mason Mead was born on 18 Jun 1870, in NY,<sup>7441</sup> died on 1 Dec 1946, in Chicago, Cook Co, IL.<sup>7441</sup>

- She went by the name Mabel C. Wheelock, apparently never married. She may be the Mabel C. Wheelock that was a nurse, enumerated in the 1930, 1940, and 1950 census living in New York City, working a private practice. She also appears in the 1925 and 1933 New York city directories as a nurse. In 1951 she was back in Buffalo. Her obit identifies her parents and siblings; date of death 4 Jan 1953. Per cemetery records, which refer to her as Mabel C. Wheelock, died 4 Jan 1953, she was buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo, New York.<sup>7445</sup>
- 1151 x. Grace Corinne Wheelock was born on 17 Feb 1882, in Armor, Erie Co, NY,<sup>5130,7446</sup> died on 7 Oct 1975, in Santa Clara Co, CA.<sup>5130,7446</sup>

In the 1900 census, she is listed as Lillie Doland, the step-daughter of W. Henry Wheelock. The wedding of Clara Mae Wheelock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wheelock, and Dr. Edward Coen, of Bloomington, Illinois, was announced in the 20 June 1907 edition of the Marion Record. Amongst those attending were "little William Immer," the brides nephew, and Mrs. Immer, the brides sister.<sup>7417</sup> She and her husband were divorced before 19 April 1910, when Lillian Immer was listed as divorced in the 1910 census, rooming in Marion with her son, William Immer, and her mother, Lida A. Wheelock. On 29 May 1914, Lillian W. Immer and Alfred J. Sparks, both of Marion, Kansas, were married in Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri.<sup>7450</sup> In 1920 Lillian, Alfred, and William (listed as "William Sparks" in the census) were living in Wichita, Kansas. In 1930 they were back in Marion where they remained for the rest of their lives.

- ii. Clara May Doland was born in Sep 1883, in KS,<sup>7447</sup> died in 1954,<sup>7452</sup> buried in Marion Cemetery, Marion, Marion Co, KS. She married Edward B. Coen on 19 Jun 1907, in Marion, Marion Co, KS.<sup>7453</sup> Edward B. Coen Occupation: Dentist.<sup>7453</sup>

Clara May used surname Wheelock, and was called the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wheelock in the wedding announcement. In the 1900 census, she is listed as L. May Doland, the step-daughter of W. Henry Wheelock.

Children of William Henry Harrison Wheelock and Lida Beetch:

- 1152 i. Charles Henry Wheelock was born on 13 Dec 1887, in Gypsum, Saline Co, KS,<sup>7454,7455</sup> died in 1925.<sup>7455</sup>

Notes for Oscar Wheelock: Oscar is enumerated in the 1870 Federal Census living in East Hamburg, NY, age 29, with Jennie Wheelock, age 25.

Oscar is enumerated in the 1880 Federal Census living in East Hamburg, NY, age 39, born VT (sic), with his wife Nancy Wheelock, age 35, born in NY, and children Hattie Wheelock, age 9, born NY, Arthur Wheelock, age 7, born NY, Fred Wheelock, age 5, born NY, and Matie Wheelock, age 3, born NY.

He is enumerated in the 1920 Census living in Dunkirk, NY, age 79, with his wife Jennie, age 75.

Oscar appears on an original list of members of GAR Post 393 in Dunkirk, NY, date unspecified.<sup>7460</sup>

Larry Danker identifies the children of Oscar Wheelock as Dime (m. Frank Frey), Hattie (m. Lee Taylor), Lee, and Fred. The 1880 Census confirms two of these - Hattie and Fred. Oscar Wheelock's obituary refers to son O. Lee Wheelock, which is probably the Lee that Larry Danker referred to. Dime's granddaughter indicates in an email that her correct name is Dawn, and confirms her marriage to Frank Frey. Dawn and Frank Frey are enumerated in the 1920 Census adjacent to Jennie and Oscar Wheelock in East Hamburg.

Oscar's obituary in the 16 Jan 1922 edition of the Dunkirk Evening Observer lists as survivors his widow, his sister Mrs. Laura Smith of Hamburg, two daughters, Mrs. J. Adelbert Taylor and Mrs. Frank S. Frey, three sons, Raymond Wheelock of Buffalo, and Fred H. and O. Lee Wheelock of Clarksburg, W.V.

Notes for Clarinda Wheelock: The 1884 administration of estate for Clarinda's father, Lewis Wheelock, refers to grandchildren Edward, and Mary Hedges, of Colden, NY, and Lewis Hedges, of Boston, NY. Clarinda is not mentioned.<sup>7494</sup>

Clarinda Hedges appears in the 1880 Census, living in Sardinia, NY (adjacent to Colden), with children Eddie, Lewis, and Mary, and husband John.

Clarinda's age in the 1850 census is 18, implying a birth date between 1831-2. Her gravestone says 13 Dec 1833, but that conflicts with her brother Orlando's birthdate of 30 July 1834, as given in the Foote genealogy, and consistent with the 1900 census.<sup>7495</sup> Her obit, published 11 Mar 1882, states that she died 5 Mar 1882, aged 50, suggesting she was born in early 1882, or perhaps 13 Dec 1881.<sup>7496</sup>

Notes for John R. Hedges: In 1850, John Hedges was a farmer, age 27, living in Colden with his wife Elizabeth, also 27, born in New York. Josephine, 6, and William, 4/12, both born in New York, were also living in the household.

In 1860 he was a lumberman, 38, living in Colden with Clarinda, 24, Josephine, 14, and E W D Hedges, 3. Elisha and Stephen Hedges were both listed on the same census page.

In 1863 he was from Colden when he registered for the Civil War draft, age 40 on 1st July 1863, lumberman, born New York. Stephen J. Hedges, 36, also from Colden, is adjacent to John in the registration booklet.

In 1865 he was again in Colden, with Clarinda, 22, Edward, and Mary, age 2, all born in Erie County.

In 1880, John, 56, and Clarinda, 47, were living in Sardinia, Erie County with their children Eddie, 22, Lewis, 15, and Mary, 17.

This may be the John Hedges who in 1892 was 70, a farmer, living with Anna Hedges, 56, in Ashford, Cattaraugus County, New York.

In 1900 he was living with his daughter, Mary Brady, in Portage, Potter County, Pennsylvania.

In 1905, John R. Hedges was living in Colden with his daughter, Josephine L. Hambleton, and her husband, Henry.

There is a long expose on John Randall Hedges in the 1 Feb 1906 edition of the Springville Journal.<sup>7497</sup>

No probate records have been found.

Notes for Hannah A. (--?--): Hannah A. Hedges died 1 Jan 1899. A probate notice in the 4 May 1899 edition of the Springville Journal lists as heirs (among others) E. E. Hedges, Mary A. Brady, and Josephine Hambleton [all children of John R. Hedges].<sup>7498</sup> On 10 Jan 1899, John R. Hedges of Colden was appointed administrator of the estate of Hannah A. Hedges, late of Colden, deceased.<sup>7499</sup>

She is buried in Glenwood Maltby Memorial Cemetery.

Per article in the Springville Journal, Lewis G. Hedges went to Dakota territory in mid 1884.<sup>7512</sup> He was probably the Louis Hedges enumerated in the Dakota territorial census, 1 June 1885, living in Enumeration District 4, Walsh County, Dakota Territory, single, age 20, born New York, living in the household of his uncle, Elesline Hedges, 55, farmer, born New York.<sup>7513</sup> In 1888 Lewis Hedges of Auburn, Dakota, made a return trip to New York to visit his father, J. R. Hedges.<sup>7514</sup> He married Minnie Dieter in Walsh County, North Dakota, circa 1889.<sup>7508</sup> Minnie Hedges is enumerated in the 1900 census living in Grafton, Walsh County, North Dakota, born Jan 1871 in Minnesota, widowed, with three children: Mabel, 11, Chester, 9, and Louis W. Hedges, 5. On 1 Nov 1894, the death of Lewis Hedges, son of J. R. Hedges, was reported in the Springville Journal: "News of the death of Lewis Hedges formerly of this place, and son of J. R. Hedges, who died on the 15th ult., at Winnepeg, Montoba [sic] was received last week. He leaves a wife and three children."<sup>7515</sup> His death is also reported in the 17 Oct 1894 edition of the Daily News Advertiser: "Mr. Louis Hedges, traveller for the firm of Messrs. Rublee, Riddel & Co., after a long struggle with fever, succumbed this morning."<sup>7516</sup> In 1932, Leslie J. Hedges was a plaintiff against (among many others) Edward E. Hedges, Mary Brady, and Minnie Viola Hedges, widow of Louis G. Hedges [all heirs of John R. Hedges and Clarinda Wheelock].<sup>7517</sup>

Notes for Orlando Wheelock: According to the Petition for Administration of his father's estate (Erie County Surrogate Court File # 24272), Orlando lived in South Bend, Indiana, in 1884, when the petition was filed. Orlando Wheelock appears in the 1870 (pg 430) and 1880 (page 450) Federal Census, living in Portage, St. Joseph Co, Indiana. The 1870 Census shows him age 36, butcher, born in NY, living with Susan, age 31, born in NY, Hattie, age 8, born in NY, and Flora, age 3, born in Indiana.<sup>7522</sup> The IGI gives a marriage for Orlando Wheelock and Susan Foote, 6 Apr 1857, Glenwood, Erie Co, NY. Marriages Published in the Christian Intelligencer of the Reformed Dutch Church From 1830 to 1871 (Online database: NewEnglandAncestors.org, New England Historic Genealogical Society, 2003), gives a marriage date of 14 May 1857.

Note that Orlando's brother, Lewis, lived in South Bend, Indiana for a time, sharing the same occupation as his brother - "Agent for the Iron Fence".

Orlando was 66 when he died 7 Nov 1900 per South Bend death record.

Though Hattie Wheelock, age 8, was living in the household per 1870 Census, she is not the daughter of Orlando and Susan. She is not listed as a child in the Foote Genealogy; and a descendant indicates that she was the daughter of Louise Ellis (sister of Edward Ellis - Irena's husband). Her father was a Wheelock, probably a brother of Orlando, but it is not known who. She was adopted by David D. Barrett, of Concord, NY between 1870 and 1880. She married George Priel.

Children of Orlando Wheelock and Susan Foote:

i. Hattie Wheelock was born in 1862, in NY.<sup>7523</sup>

1836,<sup>5176</sup> died on 9 Dec 1875, in Glenwood, Erie Co, NY.<sup>5177,5178</sup> She married Daniel D. Chase about 1859. Daniel D. Chase was born in Aug 1836, in NY,<sup>7525</sup> died before 24 Nov 1902.<sup>7526</sup>

Notes for Daniel D. Chase: Daniel was a blacksmith. After his first wife, Mary Ann Wheelock, died, he married Mary J. (--?--) sometime before the 1880 census was taken. He lived at various time in Colden, Hamburg, and Boston, all in Erie County, New York.

In 1900, Daniel, age 63, widowed, was living in the household of his brother, Albert Chase, in Colden, Erie Co, NY.

He died sometime before 24 Nov 1902, when the heirs of Daniel D. #### Research Notes for George W. Wheelock:

The age at death (85y 1m 26d) on his death certificate is not consistent with the birth date given on the same certificate. His age implies a birth date of 26 Nov 1849. The birth date, 25 Dec 1849, is consistent with the 1900 U.S. census, which says he was born Dec 1849. Likely the age at death was calculated incorrectly on the death certificate. The informant was his daughter, Anna.<sup>7793</sup>

Wheelock Company, continuing as bookkeeper and assistant buyer until 1883, when he became agent and a director of the Calumet Woolen Company, and succeeded his father as treasurer in 1889. In 1905 he liquidated the Calumet Woolen Company and bought their Calumet Mill, and the same year he organized the Stanley Woolen Company, of which he was president.

He later became president of the Putnam Woolen Company; vice-president and director of the Blackstone National Bank; life-trustee of the Uxbridge Savings Bank, and a trustee of the Prospect Hill Cemetery Corporation. He was promoter and first president of the Uxbridge and Northbridge Electric Company; and was a life trustee of the Uxbridge Free Public Library.

(Source "History of Worcester County, Massachusetts", edited by Ellery Bicknell Crane, Lewis Historical Publishing Company, NY and Chicago, 1924.)

The old Stanley Woolen Company building still stands on Rt. 16 in Uxbridge, MA (July 2000). The huge building, in decay, windows broken, is a powerful reminder of the great influence the woolen mills had on this region of the country. A sign, posted by the Blackstone National Heritage Corridor, reads as follows:

"Oral history Interview with Philip, Arthur, and Strickland Wheelock, March 1994: "Our family has grown..dates back to 1768 when our family moved to Uxbridge. Our family has been very active as far as school boards, library, and many other town functions. In 1883 to 1905, the Wheelock family ran the mill as Calumet Woolen. In 1905, Stanley Woolen Co. was incorporated and named after Stanley Wheelock...Ever since we were teenagers we worked in the mill, doing various jobs, learning the business, so we got to know the people, and they knew us..."

The parents of Jesse Comfort Wheelock and some of her siblings are also buried here, so it seems likely the headstone records are more accurate. W. T. Wheelock gives dates: b. 11 Apr 1859, d. 7 Mar 1935. Headstone says 1858 - 7 Mar 1904.

Notes for Joseph Robbins Wheelock: Joseph R. Wheelock is enumerated in the 1870 Census living in Pomfret, NY, with his mother and siblings. His father had just died. In 1880 he is in Nickerson, Reno Co, KS, with his wife and two young boys. In 1889-1892 he appears in the Somerville, MA, city directory, signal master for the railroad, living on 357 Beacon St. The Danvers City Directory shows a Joseph A. Wheelock living there, but his age, 34, is too young to be this Joseph. 1920 and 1930 Census records for Joseph R. Wheelock have not been found.

Notes for Juliette C. Dearing: Juliettes marriage record indicates that she was age 19, from Charlestown, MA. Juliette is living with her mother, Hannah M. Dearing, in Danvers, MA, per 1900 census. She identifies as married, but Joseph is not living in the household.

Oscar Merritt Wheelock, alias Oscar G. Creighton "the dynamite devil", is noted for his short life of intrigue and bank robbery in the United States, followed by a burst of heroism during his short but highly publicized participation in the Mexican Revolution. His feats of courage and bravery were publicized internationally, and his efforts contributed directly to the success of the revolt. Wheelock lost his life in the Mexican Revolution, having died a hero. In 1951 he was awarded the Legion Of Honor by the Mexican government; but in the United States his acts of embezzlement and bank robbery cast him as a common criminal. The facts of this man's life can be found in archives, newspapers, and vital records of the time; but the motives that led him to abandon a middle class life for a life of crime and war will remain a mystery forever. He was born 10 January 1877 in Danvers, Massachusetts, the son of Joseph Robbins Wheelock and Juliette Childs Dearing. Named after an uncle on his mothers side, he grew up in the relatively sedate Boston suburb of Somerville, Massachusetts where his father worked for the railroad. He was probably educated in the public schools of Somerville. One newspaper reports that he attended Harvard (NY Times, 1911), but records of such attendance could not be found. His brother, Frank Robert Wheelock, attended Somerville High School, then Harvard Medical School, and became a prominent doctor and noted expert on tuberculosis. Oscar was a bookkeeper, living in Somerville, MA, when he married Frances Gertrude Gateley in June, 1904 (MA Archives, Somerville Vital Records, see note 2). For the next few years the couple lived in Somerville, where Oscar appears in 1908 and 1909 city directories as an auditor. Frances died of chronic tuberculosis on 26 July 1909 in Somerville (MA Archives, VRs), just five short years after their marriage. They had no children. Shortly thereafter, at the age of 32, his life took a sharp turn. His sedate middle class life was about to change. In January 1910 he was charged with missappropriating $9200 from the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Company, where he worked. He fled Massachusetts for Butte, Montana, where he gained employment at the National Packing Company. He married Miss O'Malley, said to be a cousin of the mayor of Butte. (This is reported in the Boston Traveler, Tuesday, 6 June 1911, but no record of this marriage was found in the Massachusetts or Montana Archives, see note 3). He may have gone to San Francisco as well, because he is charged with robbing banks there, and in the next few months the police initiated a nationwide search for Oscar Wheelock, catching up with him only after his death (see note 4). During this time he continued his old practice of embezzling money from his employer. He was eventually caught. On New Year's Eve, 1910 he wrote his last will and testament in Butte, Montana, leaving everything to his wife, Winnie. He then packed up and left for Mexico. Oscar Wheelock joined the Mexican Revolution in January 1911, under the pseudonym Oscar G. Creighton. The 6 June 1911 Boston Traveler reports the story as follows: "Troubled by the spectres of his past, Wheelock arrived in Mexico last January, when the insurrecto movement was in its infancy. One day he stood on the firing line at Bauchi ... as a spectator. Orozco and Villa, the insurrecto leaders, noticed him, and engaged him in conversation. Although bullets sang about his head he did not flinch. The upshot of this talk was that he was offered a commission in the army, and accepted." The article goes on to say that Wheelock outfitted a band of American outlaws, at his own expense. They didn't stay with him long. To a person, they felt that Wheelock was too "nervy". In his few short months as a rebel, he gained a remarkable reputation for acts of daredevil bravery. In March, General Madero ordered Wheelock with a band of 40 scouts to run all the ammunition they could over the border and destroy all bridges and railroads. While executing these orders, Creighton earned his nickname as "the dynamite devil". He destroyed over 250 miles of railroad track on the Mexican Central Railway, effectively disrupting rail traffic, telephone and telegraph communication between federal troops and their command bases. Most of these operations occurred within a few miles of Juarez, where 1000 enemy troops were garrisoned, and where a bounty of "$5000 in American gold" had been placed on his head. Newspaper articles are filled with stories of heroic bravery. The 6 June 1911 Boston Traveler tells the following story. While running ammunition across the border, Wheelock and his 8 men came upon a force of 150 federal troops blocking their way. Confronted by this superior force, one of the 8 deserted. Vastly outnumbered, Wheelock with his remaining 7 men cut through the enemy troops, killing 8 of them. Only one of the Wheelocks men were killed. Wheelock played a key role in the capture of Ciudad Juarez which ultimately led to the fall of the Mexican government. It was strategically important to control the railroad station at Bauche in order to isolate the Federal garrison in Juarez, and cut it off from supplies. Bauche was 16 kilometers south of Juarez. On 15 Apr 1911, during the second battle of Bauche, Wheelock died holding a weak point in the line. The Boston Traveler (6 June 1911) tells the story like this (paraphrased): While seated at lunch in his tent with Col. Giuseppe Garibaldi and other officers, a soldier rushed in announcing that the federal troops were advancing. Wheelock left immediately for the front line. Upon arrival he surveyed the situation, formed a detachment of 50 men, and proceeded to lead them into a flanking position. Just then a force of 200 additional federal troops came into view. Frightened, 20 of Wheelocks men started to retreat. In an attempt to rally the troops, Wheelock and two other officers rode to the top of a hill, exposing themselves to the full view of the enemy. The three officers fired at the federal troops. A crack shot, Wheelock dropped one of the federal officers immediately. Responding with rage, the federal troops directed a disastrous volley of fire at the three officers on the top of the hill. Wheelock and one of the others were killed immediately, shot through the head. Despite Wheelocks death, the line was held and reinforcements arrived, led by Pancho Villa, Giuseppe Garibaldi, and Pascual Orozco. With Bauche firmly under control, Juarez soon fell, and the peace treaty was signed on May 21st. Wheelocks death in battle converted him into a true hero and martyr of the revolutionaries. Shortly after the fall of Juarez, Wheelocks body was exhumed from his grave in Bauche and carried through the streets of Juarez in a grand funeral cortege for his final trip home, to Boston. The procession was captured in a postcard photograph by H. J. Guitierrez. The mislabelled photograph, which refers to the subject as "Grayton" rather than "Creighton", was properly identified by Professor Douglas Nance, Universidad Panamericana, Mexico City. When Oscar left Butte, Montana for Mexico, he left not only his name behind, but his wife, Winnifred, as well. During his few short months in the war, he posed as a single man, and became engaged to Miss Frances Hughes, a daughter of one of El Paso's prominent families. (The Washington Post, 21 Apr 1911, pg 3). A local scandal ensued when Winnifred arrived in Mexico to receive the body of her husband. Apparently, Oscar had said nothing about Winnie. Nonetheless, Winnifred I. Wheelock was eventually successful in receiving a pension from the new Mexican government as a widow of the revolution. She received the relatively large sum of 2000 pesos, the only foreigner to receive a pension. In June 1911, Oscars body was returned to his mother, Juliette, in Somerville, MA. The 6 June 1911 Boston Traveler writes: "He left Boston in January, 1910 ... He came back today, dead, all Mexico ringing with his valor." General Madero wanted to send a guard of honor to accompany Oscar's return, draping the coffin with the Mexican and American flags. But because of his criminal past, the United States government forbade it. In 1912, having read about Winnie's pension in the newspapers, Oscar's mother wrote to then President Madero thanking him for sending the body back to her, and asking for a small amount of money to cover expenses and to erect a marker on his grave. "In life he wandered far but in death he came back to me thank God and you", she wrote. According to the Boston Traveler, Oscar Wheelock was buried in the Dearing family lot in Danvers. His mother is buried in the same lot, but no headstone for Oscar has been found. On 15 November 1951, Captain Oscar G. Creighton of the Ejercito Libertador received his recommendation for the posthumous Legion of Honor, awarded at that years ceremony at the Mexican Monument to the Revolution. (Written by Roderick B. Sullivan, May 2004; based on material and research kindly supplied by Professor Douglas Nance, Universidad Panamericana, Mexico.)

References, Sources, and Notes [1] Most of the research for this article was done by Professor Douglas Nance, a professor of history at Universidad Panamericana, Mexico City, Mexico. He spent several years (between 2001 and 2004) reconstructing the life of Oscar M. Wheelock from old photographs, newspaper articles, and documents from the Mexican archives. Most of the references are attributed to him. [2] The parents of Frances Gertrude Gately are given as William Gately and Mary Lennon by the marriage certificate, and Patrick McGrath and Margaret Conlon by the death certificate. No resolution for this conflict has yet been found. She is buried with the McGrath family in Brookline, MA. [3] A miss Winnie Omalley, age 19, is found in the 1910 US Federal Census, living in Brookline, MA. But this is unlikely to be the Winnie O'Malley who married Oscar. Both she and Oscar are enumerated in the 1910 US Federal Census, living in Butte, under the names Rodney H. Merrick (a pseudonym Oscar was using at the time) and wife Winnie. Both census records were taken in April, rendering it unlikely that the two Winnie's are the same. [4] A book by the chief surgeon of the insurrecto movement, Ira Jefferson Bush, entitled "Gringo Doctor", Caldwell Idaho, Caxton Printers, 1939, tells the following story: "Shortly after his death [Creighton], there came a long letter from the Chief of Police of San Francisco to the Chief in El Paso, telling all about Creighton. It seems that one of the San Francisco bank vaults had been opened without setting off the burglar alarm, and the bank robbed. How it could have been done was a mystery, and the bank, the insurance company, and the police were very anxious to know about it. Finally, a newspaper notice was inserted promising that if the robber who opened the valut without setting of the burglar alarm would show how it was done, his theft of the money would not be punished in any way. A lawyer sent to the bank to investigate came away convinced that the offer was bona fide. Next day, at an appointed hour, the burglar walked into the bank, looked around, went to the vault, and opened it without setting off the alarm. Then he walked out without having spoken a word." There remains some doubt about the veracity of this story, since there was only a short period between Oscar's departure from Butte in Jan 1911, and his arrival in El Paso. But it can't be discounted - and it's possible he went to SF prior to Jan 1911. [5] The Boston Traveller, 6 June 1911. A several page article in this newspaper has a picture of Oscar Wheelock, announces the arrival of his body back in Boston, and has a very colorful description of his experiences in the Mexican Revolution. The fact that he married "Miss O'Malley" is given in this article. [6] "Bookkeeper, Bank Robber, Mercenary, Revolutionary Hero: Who is That Man in the Postcard, Anyway?", Professor Douglas C. Notes for Mary P. Travers: Per obituary of her husband, Fred Wheelock, Mary had three children alive on 27 Nov 1940 when Fred died: Mrs. Lillian Harrison, Walter Hammond, and Ray Hammond, all living in Buffalo, Erie Co, NY.<sup>7995</sup> These children were the product of her first husband, who was Maylen Hammon, as shown by the following records.

Mary's first child, Walter, was born 15 March 1879, per World War I draft registration card. On the card, dated 12 Sep 1918, he identified himself as a resident of Buffalo, and his nearest living relative as his mother, Mary Wheelock of Corry, Pennsylvania.<sup>7996</sup>

In 1880 Mary and her first husband, Maylen Hammond, were living in the household of his parents A. A. and Julia Hammond, in Concord, Erie County, Pennsylvania. Walter Hammond, age 1 year, son of Mary and Maylen was living in the same household, consistent with Walter's World War I draft registration card. Maylen must have died before the 1900 census was taken, because Mary's three children, Walter, Lillian and Ray M. Hammond were living with their grandparents, Arnold and Julia Hammond in Concord, Erie County, Pennsylvania. Fred M. and Mary Wheelock were living in nearby Corry.

Mary's third child, Lillian J. Hammond, married William J. Harrison 29 Apr 1913 in Rochester, New York.<sup>7997</sup> Per newspaper announcement, this marriage was announced by her brother, M. Smith of Kiantone; one daughter, Mrs. Ruth Olson, of Jamestown, one son, Edwin Wheelock of Fredonia; a grand-daughter, Sandra Wheelock of Fredonia; and several cousins in Warren, Pa.

Research Notes:

In 1900 George was 16, born in PA, a servant in the household of Amos P. and Jane A. Wilcox, in Busti, Chautauqua County, New York - possibly relatives of his grandmother, Sabra Jane Wilcox.

He is enumerated in the 1910 U.S. census, age 26, upholsterer, living in Jamestown, NY, with his wife Marcia F., age 22, his daughter G. Ruth, age 1, his brother in law James V. Nash, age 19, and his mother, Belle F. Potter, age 57.

In 1920 he was living in Stockton, Chautauqua Co, NY with his wife Marcia, daughter Ruth (age 11), and son Edwin (age 9).

In 1940 he was living in Ellicott Township. Chautauqua Co, NY, with wife Josephine, age 36, born Tennessee.

His middle name is identified as Granville by his 1942 WW II Draft Registration Card. Josephine Wheelock is identified as his closest contact.

This could be the George G. Wheelock that died 4 Aug 1955 in Collins, Erie Co, NY.<sup>5760</sup>

His birth in Sugar Grove, PA, and the names in his family suggests a close relationship to Abner Wheelock and Lidia Tillotson of Sugar Grove, PA. Though proof is not yet found, he is presumed to be the son of George G. Wheelock (1823-1894) of Sugar Grove, based primarily on records of his mother, Belle Wheelock, of Jamestown, NY, who is living with George Wheelock, and whose deceased spouse is listed as George G. Wheelock.

The 7 Dec 1955 edition of the Jamestown Post-Journal has an article covering the probate status of George G. Wheelock. It states that Josephine Ayers Wheelock petitioned for and was named executrix of the estate of her husband, George G. Wheelock who died in Jamestown 4 Aug 1955. A son, Edwin Wheelock, of Laona, Chautauqua County, New York, and a daughter Ruth Gladys Olson of Jamestown were also named beneficiaries.<sup>8008</sup> couple lived in Mayville until at least 1932 when the newspapers report that they were rescued from a fire there. By 1936 Josephine had married George G. Wheelock, living in Jamestown where she is listed as his wife in the 1936 Jamestown directory.

In 1940 Josephine, 36, born Tennessee, and George G. Wheelock, 56, born Pennsylvania, were living in Celoron (on the west boundary of Jamestown).

She managed the Chautauqua County Humane Society in Falconer for many years.

Per Social Security Death Index, 1935-2014, her name was Marion A. Oxstien, born 30 Apr 1918, died 22 May 1989. Her obituary was found in the 23 May 1989 edition of the San Francisco Chronicle (San Francisco, California), p. 30, col. 5, GenealogyBank.com, in a search for Marion Oxstien, with no other constraints on the search. She moved to SF in 1941, married James O. Scott, later divorced. She married Thomas Oxstien in 1968. She worked for the American International Group as an accountant in San Francisco for 27 years. Interment in the Mt. Calvary Cemetery, Salt Lake City. She was the mother of Mrs. Sandra Donaldson and Gail Prud'homme both of Ogden, Utah; and James E. Scott of Danville, Ca.

Her daughter Florence Wheelock, and Etta Walnut are enumerated in the same dwelling. Also in the dwelling is Charles Wheelock, age 8, nephew of Etta Walnut. Per MA vital records, Charles was born 2 July 1912, in Boston, daughter of Florence R. Wheelock, born in Chicago. No father listed.

She is not found in the 1930 or 1940 census.

In 1901, 1911, and 1921 they were residents of Pollon. By 1940 they had moved to Mansonville.<sup>8125</sup>

On 20 Mar 1946, Mrs. Clara Clark (sister of Salome) was called from Newport, VT, to Mansonville, Quebec, by the death of her brother-in-law, George Wheelock. This presumably marks his death date.<sup>8126</sup>

Notes for Salome Lamoureux: She was the daughter of Alfred and Salome Berard Larmoray, per FindAGrave memorial. Her family often spelled the surname Lamorey, vs. the French Lamoureux.

Children of George Albert Wheelock and Salome Lamoureux:

- 1200 i. Raymond George Wheelock was born in Jun 1901, in Quebec, Canada.<sup>8127</sup>

976. Sarah E. Notes for Sarah E. Pierce: She is enumerated in the 1860 census living with her family in Calais, age 6. In 1870 she was working as a domestic servant for a family in Plainfield. In 1880, she is again living with her family in Wolcott, VT.

In 1890 she married James M. Hill in Boston, her occupation given as seamstress.

In 1900 she was living with her husband and son James, age 9, in Somerville, MA.

By 1910 her husband had died. She is enumerated in the 1910 census living in Weymouth, Norfolk Co, MA, with her son James H. Hill. She was widowed, per census, had only one child, and was a nurse, working for private families.

She apparently lived in Weymouth until her death, which occurred on 21 July 1938 (per MA Death certificate). She is found there in the 1929 Weymouth city directory, living on Payne Ave, and in the 1932 directory, again on Payne Ave. Other years were not searched.<sup>8129</sup>

Research Notes:

M. Waite in Wheelock Family of Calais identifies her husband's surname as Bennett. But the Boston record of her marriage to James M. Hill implies otherwise. It identifies her parents as Arthur and Fanny Pierce, her age 35, and her birth place as Montpelier, VT. The marriage was her first, his third. She died in Weymouth, MA, in 1938, still carrying the surname Hill; so it is unlikely that she remarried. Her death certificate confirms that she is the daughter of Arthur L. Pierce, born Woodbury, VT, and Fanny A. Wheelock, born in Calais, and the widow of James M. Hill. The age at death agrees with the birth date of 4 April 1854, given by Waite, and confirms that she was born in Montpelier.

Children of Sarah E. Pierce and James M. Hill:

- i. James Henry Hill was born in 1891, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>8130</sup>

While Iowa may have been her announced destination, she apparently found her way to Colorado. She is probably the Mary T. Wheelock who married Edwin Briggs on 31 Aug 1922 in Denver.<sup>8137</sup>

On 31 Oct 1935, Marie W. Briggs married Thomas J. Mercer, in Denver.<sup>8138</sup>

She is enumerated in the 1940 census living again in Englewood, age 62, under the name Marie Briggs Mercer. The census is ambiguous about her marriage status, but her husband Thomas was not enumerated in the household.

Marie B. Mercer is listed in the SSDI, born 10 Sep 1877, died Oct 1977, social security number issued in Colorado in 1966.

Notes for Gertrude Louise Wheelock: In 1921 she married her cousin, Clarence Dean Wheelock. He died in 1925 - they had no children. After that she lived with her sisters, Ida Glee Wheelock and Flora (Wheelock) Brown. In 1930 they were living in Cabot, Washington Co, VT. In 1940 she was living in Calais with Ida Glee.

She was an avid spinner, operating three antique spinning wheels on her isolated farm in Calais. Though she didn't consider herself a professional spinner, she often occupied her winter months with special orders for spinning work. She and her sister raised pigs, chickens and grew fruits and vegetables in their huge garden.<sup>8139</sup>

Clarence Dean Wheelock married first Mary Trombley on 31 Oct 1897, in Montpelier, Washington Co, VT.<sup>8132,8133</sup> She was the daughter of Julius Trombley and Denise Coran.<sup>8133,8134</sup> Mary Trombley was born in Sep 1877, in Chatone, Ontario, Canada.<sup>8133,8134</sup>

Notes for Gertrude Louise Wheelock: In 1921 she married her cousin, Clarence Dean Wheelock. He died in 1925 - they had no children. After that she lived with her sisters, Ida Glee Wheelock and Flora (Wheelock) Brown. In 1930 they were living in Cabot, Washington Co, VT. In 1940 she was living in Calais with Ida Glee.

She was an avid spinner, operating three antique spinning wheels on her isolated farm in Calais. Though she didn't consider herself a professional spinner, she often occupied her winter months with special orders for spinning work. She and her sister raised pigs, chickens and grew fruits and vegetables in their huge garden.<sup>8139</sup>

Notes for Mary Trombley: She ran a millinery business in Montpelier for many years. In Nov 1916 she filed for divorce from her husband. In Aug 1920 she announced her plans to move to Davenport, Iowa. [Sources: The Barre Times (Barre, Vermont), 21 Nov 1916, p. 4, col 4; also "News of the City," The Montpelier Evening Argus (Montpelier, Vermont), 7 Nov 1919, p. 4, col. 3; also Montpelier Evening Argus (Montpelier, Vermont), 29 May 1920, p. 8, col. 5; all at Newspapers.com Nov 2020.]

She is enumerated in the 1920 census living in Montpelier, divorced.

While Iowa may have been her announced destination, she apparently found her way to Colorado. She is probably the Mary T. Wheelock who married Edwin Briggs on 31 Aug 1922 in Denver.<sup>8137</sup>

On 31 Oct 1935, Marie W. Briggs married Thomas J. Mercer, in Denver.<sup>8138</sup>

She is enumerated in the 1940 census living again in Englewood, age 62, under the name Marie Briggs Mercer. The census is ambiguous about her marriage status, but her husband Thomas was not enumerated in the household.

Marie B. Mercer is listed in the SSDI, born 10 Sep 1877, died Oct 1977, social security number issued in Colorado in 1966.

Since Ettie was married on the same date as her sister, Susan Amelia, and since the marriage record for Susan Amelia gives the date as 26 Dec, in agreement with the newspaper article - the 26 Dec date is taken to be the correct date.

Notes for Hilen D. Wheelock: The following obituary for Hilen, kindly supplied by Janice Thornton, who lives near Hanover, appeared in the Jackson Citizen Patriot, 10 or 11 Jan 1904.

Hilden D. Wheelock was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota, Mar 18, 1865, and died at his home, three and one-half miles southwest of Hanover village, January 6, 1904, aged nearly thirty-nine years, after an illness of two weeks' duration from appendicitis.

The subject of this sketch, Hilen D. Wheelock, of Hanover township, was neither a social power, a rich landed proprietor nor a wealthy capitalist. Although running on the minority party ticket, he was three times elected to the most important local office, that of supervisor, and by remarkably larger majorities. The reason for this is clear to all who were acquainted with the man and his character. Hilen D. Wheelock was a native of Minnesota. His parents were Hilen D. and Lucinda Clapp Wheelock - the former a native of Ohio and the latter of Jackson county, Michigan, the daughter of Wm. Clapp, one of the oldest settlers in Hanover township, and for many years was justice of the peace and supervisor of the township.

The parents of Mr. Wheelock were married in Jackson county and soon thereafter took up their residence in Minneapolis. Four children were born to this union, only one of whom is living - William C., who is a druggist in business in Kalamazoo. In July, 1871, Hilden D. Wheelock, Sr., breathed his last at his home in Jonesville, Hillsdale county, Michigan. Bereft of the partner of her joys and sorrows and the protector of her family and her home, Mrs. Wheelock returned with her children to the home of her girlhood in Hanover township, and ever since she has been an honored resident of this township, except a few years spent in Moscow township, Hillsdale county.

The district schools of America are the best promoters of good citizenship in the land. Here the freest and lowly alike receive instruction, and many men have risen to the highest eminence whose schooling ended when he ceased to attend the district school. It was in such schools Hilen D. Wheelock received his education, and when not employed with his studies he was busy with some useful and remunerative labor. On reaching manhood he secured employment as a farm laborer, and followed that line of business for some two years, when he was enabled to procure an outfit of his own and enter into business as an agriculturalist on his own account.

At Moscow, Hillsdale county, December 16, 1885, Hilen D. Wheelock was united in marriage to Miss Alice Arnold, a native of Michigan, born June 3, 1867. Two children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock, both interesting and intelligent girls, Carrie A. and India, the former being a student in the Hanover schools.

The township of Hanover is generally recognized as being in politics, democratic, Hilden D. Wheelock was a republican. Disregarding his political views, the voters of his township, some years ago, elected him to the office of justice of the peace to fill a vacancy and he served in that capacity two years. In the spring of 1901 he was nominated by his party for supervisor. When the votes were counted he had twenty-six majority. In 1902 he was renominated and elected by fifty-four majority, and was re-elected in 1903. He was chairman of the most important committee upon the board of supervisors.

Mr. Wheelock was a member of the Hamilton lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Moscow, being also a member of the Mystic Workers of the World, in which order he carried a benefit of $1,000.

Hilen Wheelock was a pure and upright man, who possessed the regard and confidence of his fellow citizens with talent of no common order, and a mind rich in knowledge that was practically self-acquired.

In closing this brief review of our departed brother, suffice it to state that few stood as high in the esteem of the public or have shown themselves as worthy the confidence imposed in him. His relations with this world have been free and straightforward; his integrity was unassailable, and nothing savoring in the least of dishonor has ever been associated with the good name he bore.

The funeral was held at the Methodist church in Hanover, Saturday, January 9, 1904, at 1 o'clock PM. The county officials and the Jackson county board of supervisors attended in a body. Mr. Howell, chairman of the board, made a few very appropriate remarks. The floral offerings were many and profuse, and bore evidence of the esteem in which the deceased was held throughout Jackson and Hillsdale counties.

Rev. J.M. Wolfe officiated. The remains were laid to rest in Hanover cemetery, there to await the resurrection morn.

Records show conflicting names: Burus G. Wheelock on the 1900 Census; George Burns Wheelock on his SSN application. It is possible that he switched the order of his names, possibly after his father died. It is also possible that "Burns" was incorrectly transcribed or that "Burus" was mistaken for "Burns". Whatever the explanation, there is sufficient evidence that the records are for the same individual.<sup>8220</sup>

The vital records in the bible were posted on the eBay listing; and copied here. The birth date/place of Mary A. Wheelock, as listed in the bible, matches the birth date as given by another source; the location of South Adams, MA, matches; and the initials of those present at Mary's wedding match the initials of her siblings.

Notes for Francis S. Wheelock: There are some problems with the birth dates of children in this family, as reported in the Massachusetts vital records.

The birth date of Willie, son of Francis and Ruth, is given in the vital records as 31 Nov 1876, yet November has only 30 days.<sup>8256</sup> Furthermore, Willie is listed in the VRs as a "twin", yet there is no record of another sibling born in that year.

It's possible that Willie was the twin of William, born 20 Nov 1877. They had twins that were cousins - Willie and Wilford (both died young); so the naming pattern runs elsewhere in the family. Unfortunately, the birth date for William (20 Nov 1877) is not consistent with the birth date of Alfred (2 Apr 1878).

No further record of Willie or William has been found. They don't appear in the same household as their mother in 1880; no marriage, death, or burial records.

Edwin joined the Union Cavalry in 1863, at the young age of 16. He served 9 months at the close of the Civil War, fighting Indians. He left the military in 1866, returning to live with his parents in South Minnesota, where he found his life partner, Eliza McClelland of Maine.

The Minnesota Vital Records give the marriage date as 8 Apr 1869 in some records, and as 10 Apr 1869 in other records.

In 1878 the family moved to Codington County, South Dakota. Edwin and his brother Moses were lumbermen. Edwin later became a postmaster, taught school, was chosen a county commissioner (9 yrs), and briefly a state senator in 1894.

(Sources: Diana McGuffin, a descendant of Cyrus Wheelock, Mar 1999; and "Wheelock Genealogy", by Carlyle Wheelock and Winifred Gonseth, unpublished manuscript, 1955. Diana McGuffin's sources include "History of South Dakota", by Doane Robinson, 1904; and "History of Codington County - The First 100 Years").

Though two different birth records with different birth dates (1882 and 1883) for Alfred Wheelock can be found in the South Dakota Index to Births, it seems unlikely that these are two separate people as shown here. Since the 1900 Census shows only one Alfred Wheelock in the family, born Apr 1883, the 1882 birth date is probably in error.

Notes for Eliza McClelland: Eliza was from Maine. Her parents were William McClelland and Sarah ____.

Children of Edwin Dickinson Wheelock and Eliza McClelland:

- i. Ruby Louvisa Wheelock was born in 1870, in Minnesota.<sup>6241</sup> She partnered with Orin Miller Brown.

- iii. Edwin McClelland Wheelock was born in 1874, in Minnesota.<sup>6241</sup>

Edwin invented a tractor that was later bought by the government and converted into a military tank. This tank, known as the "skeleton tank", became the precursor of modern day tanks. Though the invention of the tank is conventionally attributed to a British Lieutenant in 1914, an article by Major Dennis Gaare has been published in the Jan/Fed 2002 issue of Armor Magazine, making the argument that Edwin M. Wheelock deserves the true credit. Edwin Wheelock later became a travelling salesman.<sup>8282</sup>

- iv. Nellie Gertrude Wheelock was born on 14 Jan 1876, in Minnesota,<sup>6241,8283</sup> died on 15 Apr 1964, in Pendleton, Umatilla Co., Oregon.<sup>8283</sup> She partnered with Fred M. Ray.

Notes for Benjamin Roswell Mitchell: The Vermont VRs refer to him as Bernice in the marriage record, but this was a transcription error. His name was Benjamin.<sup>8293</sup>

Benjamin was the son of George Mitchell, who was the son of Roswell Mitchell, Hepsibeth Mitchell's brother.

Children of Emma Wheelock and Benjamin Roswell Mitchell:

- i. Lena Mitchell was born on 21 Aug 1904.<sup>6271,8294</sup>
- ii. Fern Mitchell was born on 27 Feb 1908.<sup>6271,8295</sup>

Fern Mitchell, age 2, is enumerated in the 1910 Census in the household of George Mitchell in Fairfield, VT, daughter of George (who, per 1930 Census, may be the brother of Benjamin Mitchell). But in the 1930 Census, Fern appears in the household of Emma Mitchell and her mother, Anna Wheelock (Rosa Ann Snay), and is identified as the granddaughter of Anna Wheelock. These two records are contradictory (assuming they refer to the same person). Family records indicate that the 1930 record is correct - she is the daughter of Emma and Benjamin Mitchell, not the daughter of George Mitchell.<sup>8296</sup>

Notes for Almon E. Wheelock: Almon's 1877 marriage record to Anna White identifies his residence as Fairfield, VT, age 24, 1st marriage. His 1882 marriage record to Diantha Spaulding identifies his residence as St. Johnsbury, 2nd marriage. He served in the Spanish American War, and died of typhoid enroute home on a hospital train from Georgia.<sup>8303</sup>

Notes for Anna White: Anna's name is sometimes given as Myra in the Vermont VRs; and is given as Almira by other sources.

Notes for Diantha Minerva Spaulding: Diantha died at age 32 of child birth, per Vermont VRs.

Children of Almon E. Wheelock and Anna White:

- i. Frank Everett Wheelock was born on 24 Dec 1877, in Fairfield, Franklin Co, VT.<sup>3129,4130</sup> He partnered with Winifred Esplin.

Edwin and Laura had six children, four of whom were surviving in 1892-93: Mary Ella (Mrs. B. R. Holmes of Cambridge), Lucy (of Boston, MA), Abbie Laura (Mrs. C. F. i. Mary Wheelock was born about 1855.<sup>8353</sup> She married Byron Holmes in 1879.<sup>8354</sup>

Though Mary was not found in the Vermont Vital Records, her reference in "Men of Vermont: An Illustrated Biographical History" as "Mary Ella, wife of B. R. Holmes", a child of Edwin Wheelock and Laura Pierce; her appearance with Byron R. Holmes in Cambridge in the 1880 Federal Census; and the reference to her marriage to Byron Holmes in the Vermont normal school alumni records is taken as sufficient evidence to place her in this family.

Lucy Wheelock, educator, and founder of Wheelock College, was born 1 Feb 1857, in Cambridge, VT, the daughter of Edwin Wheelock and Laura Pierce. Her father graduated from the University of Vermont, was a Congregational clergyman, a superintendent of Schools, a representative to the Vermont Legislature, and, briefly, a state senator. Her mother was a teacher and briefly ran a small school. Her grandparents, Samuel Wheelock and Polly Adams were early settlers of Eden, VT. Strong religious influence and upbringing characterized Lucy's early years in Cambridge, VT. It was through her mother's Bible readings and catechisms that she learned to read; and her fathers faith and religious influence affected her deeply, remaining with her as a positive force for the rest of her life. Her early education took place at home and in the small school that her mother ran for a year or two. At the age of twelve she went to Underhill Academy in Vermont, where she studied Latin, History, and other subjects. After a year at Underhill, she moved with a neighbor to Reading, MA, in order to attend high school. Here, in addition to her high school studies, she travelled into Boston for French lessons and began to learn translation, at which she became adept. Later, she would continue her study of languages, including German, and engaged in the translation of many works, including those of the German educator Friedrich Froebel, and some of the childrens stories of Johanna Spyri, author of Heidi. After graduating from Reading High School in 1874, Lucy returned to Cambridge, VT, for a brief period of teaching. Her ambitions were to attend Wellesley College, which was set to open in 1875 as a model educational institution for women. To prepare for Wellesley, she applied to (and attended) the Chauncy-Hall School, one of the few private coeducational institutions in Boston. Here she met Alice Stone Blackwell, a fellow student who went on to become a leading women's rights activist, and editor of the Woman's Journal. The two remained close for life. Lucy continued her study of languages at Chauncy-Hall, and soon completed her college preparatory work for Wellesley. It was during this time that she visited a kindergarten class, and found her avocation. She was so taken with the idea of teaching children, that she dropped her Wellesley ambitions, and approached Elizabeth Peabody for advice on how to enter the profession of kindergarten education. Ms. Peabody, one of the first American followers of the educational philosophy of Friedrich Froebel, advised Lucy to enter the training school of Mrs. Ella Snelling Hatch, where Ms. Peabody was a frequent lecturer. And thus Lucy's education career was started. Upon completion of kindergarten training in 1879, she returned to Chauncey-Hall where she taught the kindergarten class for ten years, an endeavor she enjoyed immensely. She revered Froebel, and followed his curriculum closely, but was not afraid to deviate from it when she felt the need. Her kindergarten became well known, even controversial. She was criticized by strict Froebellians for her deviation from the curriculum, and she had a steady stream of visitors who came to observe her teaching methods. In 1888 Boston instituted kindergartens in the Boston Public Schools. Lucy was asked to establish a training class for teachers. She was reluctant to take on such a formidable task, but on advice, agreed to do so. The class was established and in time it began attracting students nationally. After two years it became an independent training school. Later, the Wheelock School expanded its curriculum, and, by 1939 had 325 students and 23 faculty. With success of her class at Chauncey-Hall, Lucy soon became active in the kindergarten movement nationally. She served as president of the International Kindergarten Union (IKU) from 1895-1899. She chaired a committee appointed by the IKU to prepare a definitive report on the status of kindergarten philosophy and methods. During this time, she worked hard to unite the more liberal and conservative factions on this committee, but ultimately was unable to do so. She later became involved in the National Congress of Mothers, a forerunner of the Parent Teachers Association. In 1929 she was appointed to the education committee of the League of Nations. Lucy was one of the first to apply kindergarten teaching methods to Sunday School classes. She taught classes throughout the 1880's and 90's, and became well known for her Sunday School teaching. She was soon asked to teach other Sunday School teachers. In these training classes, she showed how Froebels methods could be used to improve their teaching, and enhance the interest of the students. Her Saturday afternoon training class at the Primary Sunday School Union was very popular, and led to requests for her to speak at Sunday School teachers conventions nationwide. Lucy wrote extensively throughout her career. Among her translated works were "Red-Letter Stories" (1884) and "Swiss Stories for Children" (1887), both translated from the writings of Johanna Spyri, author of "Heidi". She produced numerous stories with moral themes for children which were well read in her time, including "Allan's Thanksgiving", "Clifton's Lunch", "Cousin Ruth", and "A Lily's Mission". During her Sunday school years she published a weekly column "Hints to Teachers" in The Congregationalist, and edited a weekly Boston Sunday school journal, The Child's Hour. In 1920 she published "Talks To Mothers" (with Elizabeth Colson), a book on the subject of child rearing, schooling, and the relationship between home and school. She retired as director of the Wheelock School in 1939. The school was incorporated in that year, and in 1941 it became Wheelock College. Lucy Wheelock died in Boston, Massachusetts, on October 2, 1946. (Written by Roderick B. Sullivan, Jr., Nov 2001.) "His parents went to Gardner when he was two years old, and there he attended the public schools. He went to work on a farm at Northfield at the age of thirteen years and continued until 1877. He then went to Wendell, where his father had bought a farm, and worked with his father there until 1833. Returning to Gardner, he was employed in a chair factory until 1888, when he went to Dummerston, Vermont, to work in a carriage painting shop. Afterward he became a carriage painter at Dummerston on his own account. He also had charge of the property of his brother, Charles T. Wheelock. In 1906 he removed to Brattleboro, where he has since had a carriage painting shop on Flat Street. In politics he is a Republican. He is a member of Painters Union No. 123, of Brattleboro, and is at present its vice-president. He is a sergeant of the First Regiment Band, Vermont National Guard."

"Henry M. Wheelock married (first) Eliza A. Dodwell, of Gardner, and had one child, Olive Vivan..."

The 1900 Census for Dummerston, Windham Co, VT, shows Henry M. Wheelock living with his sister-in-law, Minnie O. Wheelock (no doubt, Minnie Ophelia Sargent, wife of Charles Wheelock), his nephew Justine Wheelock, and Helen M. Sergeant, a border.

Henry and Laura F. appear in the 1910 Census living on Canal St. in Brattleboro, Windham Co, Vermont.

Notes for Josiah B. Wheelock: Josiah resided in California in 1876.<sup>3619</sup>

The oral tradition of several descendants of Josiah Burley Wheelock is that he "left the East Coast on a ship, after a bar room brawl, leaving a wife a several sons". Another descendant reports that he "grew up in the Boston area, killed a man with a shovel, stowed on a whaler and went to San Francisco", where he met Martha Denney. He was supposedly born in Coventry, VT.

It is presumed, though no proof has yet been found, that the Josiah Burley Wheelock who married Martha Denney is the same Josiah B. Wheelock that that was born 2 Jan 1836, son of Joseph Wheelock and Harriet Pierce.

The evidence for this is as follows:

1) The dates fit,

2) Josiah's father, grandfather, and greatgrandfather lived in the vicinity of Coventry and nearby Newport, VT. His uncle and namesake, Josiah Burleigh Wheelock was born in Coventry.

3) The "History of Sanbornton, NH", by Rev. M. T. Runnels, published in 1881, reports that Josiah B. Wheelock was living in California.<sup>8418</sup>

The children of Josiah Burley Wheelock and Martha Denney (Hattie, Mary, Ida, Isabel, James, Dottie, Frances, Etta, Leonard, and Clinton) are taken from the private records of Karen Lansing, a descendant, Nov 2000.

Rev. Arthur Wheelock was the son of Rev. Albert H. Wheelock. He was born about 1892 in Hingham, Massachusetts. He died at the Cape Cod Hospital on Wednesday, 23 May 1984 at the age of 92. He married Pauline M. Sanderson. He had two sons. Arthur was a graduate of Marlborough High School in 1910, Dartmouth College in 1914, and Andover-Harvard Theological Seminary in 1917. He received an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Eaton College in North Carolina. This degree was conferred for his involvement in the merger of the Congregational-Christian church with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. Arthur is listed as the minister of the Bedford church while he was a student at Harvard Divinity School, in 1915 and 1916. The yearbooks in 1917 and 1918 mention that J. V. Garton, a Baptist, was minister of the church. Arthur was ordained at the Church of Christ (Congregational) in Bedford on Wednesday 24 October 1917. His father, Rev. Albert H. Wheelock, gave the ordaining prayer. Arthur was installed at the church on 24 October 1917. Arthur served in the United States Army in Europe during World War I in the 23rd Infantry, Second Division. The church in Bedford retained Arthur as its minister while he served in the First World War. He was called as pastor of the Free Church in Andover, Massachusetts in 1920; Willimantic, Connecticut in 1924; Church in the Highlands, White Plains, New York in 1931; Union Christian Church in Lihue, Hawaii in 1959. He was one of the members of the executive committee of the Congregational Christian Churches that worked on the merger with the Evangelical and Reformed Church, forming the United Church of Christ. He retired to Osterville, Massachusetts in 1958 and lived there until his death on 23 May 1984. In 1964 he became Executive Secretary of the Congregational Christian Historical Society, and served in that capacity until 1971. Notes for Albert Henry Wheelock: In Jan 1894, Albert homesteaded a tract of land 1 mile south and 3 miles west of Hardtner, Kansas. It was here that he built a "dugout" home to raise his family. He died of typhoid fever.<sup>8553</sup>

His obit says he was born 6 Feb 1865, but that disagrees with the typewritten letter from one of his close relative (if not directly from him). It also disagrees with the 1865 NY census, enumerated 3 July 1865, in which he is not listed, and the 1900 census, which says he was born Feb 1866.

Carie Jane Ewing, daughter of Caroline Simpson Ewing and Robert Smith Ewing was born August 17, 1868 at Rosamond, Christina County, Illinois, and departed this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Boney Clark, Waynoka, Oklahoma, November 15, 1940, at the age of 72 years.

Some of her mother's family had settled in McPherson, Kansas, and it was while visiting here that she met and married Albert Henry Wheelock of Buffalo, New York, October 14, 1891. When Northern Oklahoma was opened to settlement in 1893, Mr. Wheelock made the run and together they homesteaded just inside the Oklahoma line. Mrs. Wheelock has been a resident of Woods County for 47 years, and a son, Albert, still resides on the homestead. Mrs Wheelock preceded his wife in death in 1915. In 1916, Mrs. Wheelock moved with her family to Alva which has been her home the major part of the time since then. She has been a meber of the First Presbyterian Church, Alva, since 1920.

She leaves to mourn eight children: Mrs. John Sutton, Guymon; Mrs. Leslie Tatro, Alva; Mrs. Boney Clark, Waynoka; Mrs. Rlaph McCrady, Lambert; Mrs. Archibald McAllister, Alva; Mrs. Ralph Floyd, Centralia, Illinois; Albert Wheelock, Hardtner, Kansas, and Ruth Wheelock, Guymon, Oklahoma.

Notes for the family of Albert Henry Wheelock and Caroline Jane Ewing: Caroline's last name is spelled "Erwing" in the Illinois Statewide marriage index, 1763-1900.

Notes for Caroline M. Wheelock: Carrie lived in Armor, New York, formerly Abbotts corners, named have her husband's family.

Per obituary, she was survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mary H. Foote, with whom she lived in Hamburg; five sons, Howard L., Roland B., Frank A. and Charles E., all of Hamburg, and Glen E., of Tonawanda.<sup>7435</sup>

Her obit gives a birth date of 5 Sep 1870, but this was an error. She was listed in the 1870 census, in Hamburg, enumerated 7 July 1870, aged 10 months. Social Security records have her correct birth date, 5 Sep 1869.<sup>7434</sup>

Notes for George Smith Abbott: Per Social Security records, George Smith Abbott was the son of Seth A. Abbott and Ruth A. Perrine.<sup>8580</sup>

His death notice in The Buffalo News, dated 9 July 1948, mentions his wife, Carrie Wheelock, and his children Howard L., Glenn E., Roland B., Frank A., Mrs. Harold W. Foote, and Charles E. Abbott.<sup>8577</sup>

Children of Caroline M. Wheelock and George Smith Abbott:

- i. Howard Larue Abbott was born on 25 Sep 1888, in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY,<sup>8575,8581</sup> died on 21 May 1979, in Erie County, NY,<sup>8582</sup> buried in Prospect Lawn Cemetery, Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8583</sup> He married Elizabeth Stroh on 8 Jun 1911, in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8584</sup>

Research Notes for Glenn E. Abbott: The records conflict on his birth date. The 1892 NY state census, taken 16 Feb 1892, states that he was 3 years old. The 1900 census says he was born May 1890, inconsistent with the 1892 census. The 1905 NY state census gives age 15. His WW I draft registration card gives birth date 7 Dec 1888, which conflicts with the birth date of his older brother, Howard Larue Abbott, who was born 25 Sep 1888. His WW II draft card states that he was born 7 Dec 1898 in Hamburg, New York. This conflicts with the 1900 census, and nearly every other birth record. The Florida death index reports that he was born 7 Dec 1889, died 9 Feb 1972 in Volusia, Florida.<sup>8585</sup> The U.S. Social Security Death Index agrees, giving birth date 7 Dec 1889.

- ii. Glen Erving Abbott was born on 7 Dec 1889, in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY,<sup>8586,8587</sup> died on 8 Feb 1972, in Daytona Beach, Volusia Co, FL,<sup>8586</sup> buried in Shady Rest Cemetery, Holly Hill, Volusia Co, FL.<sup>8588</sup>

He was probably the Glenn Abbott in 1910, age 20, occupation machinist, in the automobile industry, lodging in Buffalo, New York. He was living in Amarillo, Texas, when he registered for the draft on 5 June 1917. At the time, he owned a garage, and had a wife and a baby.<sup>8589</sup> In 1920, he was again in Amarillo, listed as G. A. Abbott, the owner of an automobile repair shop, age 30, born New York, with his wife, Rochelle S. Abbott, age 25, born in Alabama. No children in the household. In 1930 he was again in Amarillo, listed as George E. Abbott, age 39, owner of a machine shop, living with his wife, Rochelle Abbott, age 35, born Alabama. Joanne Abbott, niece, age 5, born New York, was also in the household. Mrs. Rochelle Sanford Abbott died in Amarillo on 7 Aug 1932. She was born 19 August 1894 in Alabama, the daughter of James Sanford and Susie Sanders. Her husband is listed as George E. Abbott of Amarillo.<sup>8590</sup> On 16 Feb 1942, when he registered for the WW II draft, he was living in Houston, Texas. His employer was Weaver Motor Parts.<sup>8591</sup> In 1950 he was living in Buffalo, New York, with his wife, Helen L. Abbott, age 55, and his in laws, Fred E. Stillwell, 75, and Bessie A Stillwell, 77. Research Notes for Glenn E. Abbott: The records conflict on his birth date. The 1892 NY state census, taken 16 Feb 1892, states that he was 3 years old. The 1900 census says he was born May 1890, inconsistent with the 1892 census. The 1905 NY state census gives age 15. His WW I draft registration card gives birth date 7 Dec 1888, which conflicts with the birth date of his older brother, Howard Larue Abbott, who was born 25 Sep 1888. His WW II draft card states that he was born 7 Dec 1898 in Hamburg, New York, which conflicts with the 1900 census, and nearly every other birth record. The Florida death index reports that he was born 7 Dec 1889, died 9 Feb 1972 in Volusia, Florida.<sup>8585</sup> The U.S. Social Security Death Index agrees, giving birth date 7 Dec 1889. His headstone says 1890.<sup>8588</sup> The 7 Dec 1889 birth date seems more likely to be correct. It fits into his mother's birth timeline without conflicts, is consistent with the 1892 and 1905 New York state census records, and matches the Florida death index, and Social Security records. It matches the WW II record as well, but with two adjacent digits in the year transposed. The 1900 birth date is also possible. It also fits with his mother's birth timeline, and is consistent with the 1900 census, the 1905 New York census, and his gravestone.

- iii. Florence May Abbott was born on 29 Mar 1891,<sup>8592</sup> died on 3 Jul 1892, in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8593</sup>
- iv. Roland Bertram Abbott was born possibly 31 Dec 1895, in East Hamburg, Erie Co, NY,<sup>8594,8595</sup> died on 21 Jul 1974, in Tampa, Hillsborough Co, FL,<sup>8595</sup> buried in Hillcrest Cemetery and Mausoleum, Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8596</sup> He married Florence G. Sugden on 6 Nov 1915, in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8597</sup> Florence G. Sugden was born on 3 Jul 1895,<sup>8598</sup> died on 3 May 1983,<sup>8598,8599</sup> buried in Hillcrest Cemetery and Mausoleum, Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8598</sup>

In 1920, Roland B. Abbott, automobile mechanic, was living in Hamburg, with his wife Florence B. Abbott, 23, their son Robert Abbott, 2, and Lee E. Abbott, 0. In 1930 he was living again in Hamburg, with his wife Florence, sons Robert G. Abbott, 12, and Lee E. Abbott, 10. In 1940 they were in Orchard Park. In 1950 Roland B. Abbott, age 53, automobile mechanic, was living in Buffalo, New York, with his wife, Doris Abbott, age 24, born New York, and their daughter Linda Diana Abbott, 2, born in New York. Roland and Doris were residents of Buffalo in 1957, per city directory. Roland B. Abbott birth date: The records are inconsistent regarding a birth date for Roland. In the 1900 census, with his mother as informant, his birth date is listed as May 1895. His World War I registration record lists his birth date as 25 Dec 1895; and the World War II registration record lists 31 Dec 1895. Roland was presumably the informant for both these records. The Florida Death Index lists his birth date as 31 Dec 1895; but the Social Security Death Index gives 31 May 1895. His gravestone says 1894.

- v. Frank Addison Abbott was born on 1 Mar 1897, in East Hamburg, Erie Co, NY,<sup>8600,8601,8602</sup> died on 25 Jan 1982, in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY,<sup>8603</sup> buried in Hillcrest Cemetery and Mausoleum, Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8604</sup> He married Eleanor Taylor on 24 Sep 1924, in Erie Co, NY.<sup>8605,8606</sup> Eleanor Taylor died on 4 May 1994.<sup>8607</sup>

Per obit, he was survived by his wife, the former Eleanor Taylor, his son, James A. Abbott of Dallas, Texas, and a sister, Mrs. Mary H. Foote.<sup>8603</sup>

- vi. Mary Helen Abbott was born on 8 Jan 1900, in East Hamburg, Erie Co, NY,<sup>8608</sup> died on 24 Jan 1998,<sup>8609,8610</sup> buried in Hillcrest Cemetery and Mausoleum, Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8611</sup> She married Harold W. Foote on 6 Oct 1923, in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8612</sup> He was the son of William B. Foote and Henrietta M. Rush.<sup>8613,8614</sup> Harold W. Foote was born in 1901,<sup>8613</sup> died on 23 Jul 1964,<sup>8613,8615</sup>

buried in Hillcrest Cemetery and Mausoleum, Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8613</sup>

- vii. Charles Edward Abbott was born on 12 Feb 1902, in East Hamburg, Erie Co, NY,<sup>8616</sup> died on 29 Jul 1972, in Erie Co, NY.<sup>8616,8617</sup> Occupation: auto mechanic. He married (1) Frances K. Stanage on 18 Feb 1924, in Blaisdell, NY.<sup>8618</sup> Frances K. Hoague was born about 1901,<sup>8621</sup> died on 29 Sep 1957, in FL.<sup>8621</sup> Charles Edward Abbott married (2) Bernice Constantine on 20 Jun 1937, in Erie Co, PA.<sup>8622</sup> Bernice Constantine was born on 22 Nov 1900, in Salamanca, NY,<sup>8622,8623</sup> died on 10 Mar 1990,<sup>8624</sup> buried in Hillcrest Cemetery and Mausoleum, Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8624</sup> Bernice Constantine married first Eugene O Hughey on 27 Sep 1924, in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY.<sup>8625</sup>

Notes for Clifford Frederick Wheelock: The family was enumerated in the 1900 U.S. census, living in Hamburg, Erie Co, NY. Per census, Irene and Clifford had been married for four years, suggesting that the 1 Aug 1897 marriage date given in "Ontario Marriages, 1869-1927" is incorrect. The date was more likely 1 Aug 1896, which fits better with the 18 Dec 1896 birth date of their first child, Esther. This might also explain why they were married in Canada, just over the border.

They were again in Hamburg in 1905 (NY state census). In 1915 the family was again in Hamburg - minus Irene and Clifford A. who are not listed.

Per obit, published 26 Nov 1930, he was the husband of Edith M. (Oakley) Wheelock; father of Mrs. Howard Koch, Harold of Los Angeles, Allen, and the late Clifford Wheelock. Burial at Prospect Lawn Cemetery.<sup>7438</sup>

Notes for Irene Rittman: Irene's birth date is given as Jan 1870 in the 1900 U.S. census. She was the daughter of Abraham and Kate Rittman, per marriage record, both born in Germany (1900 U.S. census).

Notes for Edith May Oakley: Edith's parents are identified as George Oakley and Jennie E. Schad, per record of marriage to Arthur Henry Browning.

Grace Haines married second Edward A. Malin about 1928.

Notes for Charles Henry Wheelock: In 1910, Charles, 23, electrician, and his wife, Grace, 22, born Kansas, were living in Denver, Colorado. Per WW I draft registration card, dated 25 May 1917, Charles Henry Wheelock lived in Marion, Kansas, had a wife, and a daughter age 5. In 1920, Charles H. Wheelock was 32, living in Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, with his wife, Grace, age 30, born Kansas.

Notes for Grace Haines: In 1900 Grace was 13, listed as Gracie in the census, born Aug 1886 in Kansas, living in Kansas City, Jackson County, Kansas, with her parents, Adolphus and Alice Haines. Her sister, Hazel V. Haines, age 6, was also in the household.

She was a friend of Lillie Immer, half sister of Charles Henry Wheelock.<sup>8678</sup>

She married Charles in 1909, and the two were living in Denver, Colorado in 1910, where their daughter, Virginia, was born. By 1920 they were living in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Charles died in 1925, after which Grace married Edward A. Malin of Pittsburgh, probably after 18 Oct 1928, when Edward received a divorce decree against his wife, Frieda.

In May of 1931, Grace, who had a broken ankle, was rescued from a fire in Pittsburgh by her daughter, Virginia Wheelock.<sup>8679</sup>

On 17 Oct 1931, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Malin announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Virginia Wheelock to William Randall, Jr.<sup>8680</sup>

By 1940, Grace and Edward were living in Kansas City, Missouri. In May 1940, Grace Malin, of Kansas City, was listed as a surviving daughter in the obituary of her father, Adolphus Haines.<sup>8681</sup>

She died in Abilene, Kansas, at the age of 81, and is buried there. Grace's obit in the 11 Jan 1968 edition of The Salina Journal refers to her as Mrs. Edward A. Malin, and later as Mrs. Grace Malin. She died 10 Jan 1968 in Abilene, formerly of Denver, Colorado. Survivors included her sister, Mrs. Arthur Hess, of Abilene - no doubt the Mrs. Hazel Hess of Abilene mentioned in her father's obit.<sup>8676</sup>

Research Notes for Grace Haines:

In 1908, Grace Haines lived in Kansas City, She was friends with Mrs. Lillian Immer [probably Lida (Beetch) Wheelock's, daughter, who married Ferdinand Immer], and worked, for a time, at the Crescent Amusement Company in Hamburg, Iowa.<sup>8678</sup>

She was a resident of Kansas City, Missouri, when she married Charles Henry Wheelock in April, 1909.<sup>8670</sup>

She was living in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in 1920, the last time she appears in the census as Grace Wheelock. Per 1910 census, her father was born in Pennsylvania, mother in West Virginia. Per 1920 census, her parents were both born in West Virginia. Searching the 1900 census for residents of Kansas City, Missouri, with surname Haines, who were born in West Virginia leads to Adolphus and Alice Haines.

Adolphus Haines was a well known jeweler in Kansas City, Missouri. His obit, published in the 2 May 1940 edition of The Kansas City Times states that he was born in Pennsylvania, and left two sons, William C. Haines, and Guy A Haines, both of Kansas City; and two daughters, Mrs. Grace Malin of 3121 Jackson Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri, and Mrs. Hazel Hess, of Abilene, Kansas. Mrs. Grace Malin is probably the husband of E. A. Malin who raised Virginia A. Wheelock, Grace's daughter (refer to notes for Virginia A. Wheelock).<sup>8681</sup> Grace Malin was the informant on the death certificate for her father, Adolphus Haines.<sup>8682</sup>

In 1930, Grace Malin, age 39, born about 1891 in Missouri, was living in Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, wife of Edward A. Malin, 39, born in New Jersey. In 1940 she was 52, born Kansas, living on 3121 Jackson St, Kansas City, Missouri, with her husband, Edward A. Malin, age 50, born in Pennsylvania. Their residence in 1940 exactly matches the obituary of her father, Adolphus Haines.

Grace's obit in the 11 Jan 1968 edition of The Salina Journal refers to her as Mrs. Edward A. Malin, and later as Mrs. Grace Malin. She died 10 Jan 1968 in Abilene, formerly of Denver, Colorado. Survivors included her sister, Mrs. Arthur Hess, of Abilene - no doubt the Mrs. Hazel Hess of Abilene mentioned in her father's obit.<sup>8676</sup>

Notes for Edward A. Malin: Edward A. Malin was granted a divorce decree against Frieda Malin, announced in the 18 Oct 1928 edition of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.<sup>8683</sup>

Children of Charles Henry Wheelock and Grace Haines:

Virginia was born in Denver, Colorado. She moved with her parents to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where she grew up. Her father died in 1925, and her mother married Edward A. Malin, probably around 1928. She received considerable press in 1931 when she rescued her mother (Mrs. E. A. Malin) from a fire in Pittsburgh. Having saved her mother, she went back in to save her dog, Sunny.<sup>8679</sup> Later in 1931, she married William Randle, Jr. in Pittsburgh.<sup>8680</sup> Virginia died a few years later of an overdose of sleeping pills, while grieving the loss of her six month old son.<sup>8686</sup>

An illness of more than three years was fatal last Saturday (Aug 25, 1956) to Dr. Harry E. Wheelock, 65, of 87 Central Avenue.

The popular physician, surgeon, and civic leader died in Brooks Memorial Hospital, Dunkirk. He had been a patient there intermittently since he was stricken ill in Dec 1952.

Widely known for his professional skill, Dr. Wheelock was locally reknown for his leadership in the field of education, and for active participation in many civic undertakings and organizations.

He had been a member of the staff of Brooks Memorial Hospital and of the Board of Directors of Roswell Park Memorial Institute, Buffalo.

He held a fellowship grant from the American College of Surgeons, and received a Congressional medal in recognition of his World War II service as a member of the Board of Appeals of the Selective Service Administration.

Dr. Wheelock served 19 years as a member of the Fredonia Board of Education and was its president from 1939 until illness compelled his resignation in 1953.

He was a member of the Board of Visitors of the State University Teachers College until that body was discontinued three years ago. In 1946 the college recognized his service by tendering him the Alumni Association Award of Merit.

By public demand, the new grade school adjoining Fredonia High School was dedicated to him and named the Harry E. Wheelock School in his honor in Oct 1954. Dr. Wheelock had by then resigned from the Board of Education because of his illness, but he was able to view the dedication ceremony from his automobile.

Dr. Wheelock was born in Ilion, but came here at the age of three. He graduated from Fredonia Normal School and took his medical degree at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia in 1914. He began his practice at Jamestown the following year, interrupting it to join the Army Medical Corps in World War I.

After his separation from the service as a first lieutenant, Dr. Wheelock returned to Jamestown before coming back to Fredonia in 1921. He had since remained here enjoying one of the largest and most successful practices in the area.

In 1934, Dr. Wheelock consented to be a candidate for the Board of Education for a three year term. He won that election and six subsequent ones, frequently being endorsed by both local political factions.

He was compelled to leave the board before the expiration of his final term and was replaced by Harold A. Duncan. Simultaneously he had relinquished the presidency of the board, a post he had held for 14 years and Mr. Duncan also assumed the position.

Dr. Wheelock was a member and former Vestryman of Trinity Episcopal Church. He was a former president and remained an honorary member of the Fredonia Rotary Club. He also held membership in the county, state, and national medical societies.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Clara Dana Wheelock, a son, Dr. Dana McKinstry Wheelock of Buffalo; two daughters, Mrs. Harry Wurtz of Brookline, Mass, and Mrs. Milton M. Fenner of Coraopolis, Pa, and five grandchildren.

The funeral was conducted Tuesday afternoon in Trinity Episcopal Church, Rev. M. A. Garland rector, officiated. Burial was in Forest Hill Cemetery.

Notes for Ellis Harold Wheelock: After Ellis was born, his mother developed a cough, which worsened over time. Seven or eight months after the birth of her last child, Doris, Ellis's mother died.

Ellis came to know Josephine Else, a nurse at Mount Jewett Hospital in central Pa. Josephine's family lived in Allenwood, Pa. After Ellis and Josephine were married, they moved to Allenwood, where they had two children, William and Robert.

As it turned out, Josephine had tuberculosis and her health deteriorated after the birth of her second child. Finally, after the birth of her third child, Harry, Josephine died.

Unable to adequately care for the children, Ellis gave up Harry for adoption to his sister, Dime, and her husband. He passed William and Robert into the care of relatives.

In time, Ellis met Marion Fawcett, a student nurse at Warren State Hospital (where Ellis was employed). They got along well and were married. When circumstances permitted, William and Robert rejoined their father and new stepmother.

After Walter was born, Ellis, Marion, and their three children moved in with Ellis's father (Millard Fillmore Wheelock) to help care for him, and to run his farm. This living arrangement didn't work well and they soon moved out. Ellis took several different jobs, trying to find something that suited him. Sometime after Betty was born, Ellis bought a small farm which he was able to develop into a sustaining business. He, Marion and the four children settled on the farm and raised chickens.

Ellis seemed to spell his name Elice at times, so there is some confusion as to the correct spelling. The Social Security Death Index spells his name Ellis, but he was given the name Elice.

Research Notes:

His death certificate is available at Ancestry.com, "Pennsylvania, U.S., Death Certificates, 1906-1969."

Notes for Josephine Else: Josephine's gravestone bears the following inscription: "Josephine H. Wheelock 1889 - 1918" Her parents were William B. Else, 20 Oct 1852 to 28 Dec 1906, and Emma Beck, 1862 to 1921.<sup>8901</sup>

Research Notes:

Her place of birth is given as Union County, Pennsylvania by her marriage record.<sup>8902</sup>

Both resided in Warren County, Pennsylvania, and were attendants at a hospital.

Notes for Marion Fawcett: Marion was the first child of Marion Brown and Walter Fawcett. Born in Paisley, Scotland, in 1903, she was at least the third generation of Marions, dating back to her grandmother, Marion Mackay.

She was born at "The Barracks" in Paisley, where her parents lived at the time. Later, the family moved to 14 Clarence St., Paisley.

Marion was only 6 years old when her mother died of "chronic endocarditis with dilation of the heart".<sup>8903</sup>

After becoming a widower, her father decided to move the family to Canada. He left the children behind in Scotland (probably with their grandparents, James and Marion Brown) while he went to Canada and found employment.

When he found a full time job with the Hudson Bay Company in Canada, he sent for the four children. Family history has it that Marion and her siblings nearly crossed the Atlantic on the Titanic (which sunk on 15 Apr 1912). But for reasons unremembered, they sailed aboard the Hesperian, and arrived safely in Quebec, 4 June 1912. At the time, Marion was 9 years old.<sup>8904</sup>

As a young woman, Marion found her way down to Warren, Pennsylvania where she became a student nurse at Warren State Hospital. Here she met Ellis Wheelock. They struck up a relationship and were married. Ellis was a widower, having previously married Josephine Else, who later died of tuberculosis.

Marion and Ellis lived in Russell, Pennsylvania, where they ran a chicken farm. Ellis had three children from his previous marriage (William, Robert, and Harry), two of whom lived with them. Marion had two children with Ellis, Walter and Betty.

In 1963, long after the children had left home for lives of their own, Marion's husband died of coronary insufficiency.

Later, Marion married Andrew Lindell, a long time friend of the family. They lived together for awhile in Warren, Pa. After Andrew died, Marion's mental faculties deteriorated. She began to lose her short term memory, and it became dangerous for her to live alone. In the early 1970's she was admitted to a nursing home in Chambersburg, Penn. where she lived out the remainder of her life. For most of her time in the nursing home, she had no memories at all of her family, or her past.

In early 1995, she passed on quietly in the night. She was laid to rest at Pinegrove Cemetery, in Russell, Pa. with Ellis.

Notes for Clifford Judson Wheelock: Research Notes:

His death record states that he was born 14 June 1877, which disagrees with his WWI and WWII draft cards, which say 14 June 1878, and with the 1900 census, which says June 1878. John F. Dillon was the informant on his death certificate, whereas Clifford himself was the informant on the draft cards and, presumably, the 1900 census.

In 1900 he was 21, born June 1878 in Michigan, a farmer, living in Courtland, Kent County, with his wife, Dora L., born June 1873 in Michigan, no children.

He divorced Dora in 1908. Per record, they had one child.

His WW I draft card, dated 12 Sep 1918, lists Gertrude Wheelock as his nearest relative. At the time, he was a cook at the Kalamazoo State Hospital.

In 1920 he was living in Kalamazoo Township, Kalamazoo County, age 41, married to Gertrude, age 25, with two sons: Harold T. Wheelock, age 1 month, and George F. Wheelock, age 6 years.

Gertrude sued for divorce, which was granted in 1925. Per divorce record, there were four children: George, 10, Kenneth, 7, Harold, 5, and Donald, 3.

In 1930, Gertrude was living in Cedar Springs, Kent County, age 35, divorced, born Michigan, with Donald Wheelock, 9, George Wheelock, 16, and Harold Wheelock, 10, all born in Michigan.

In 1930 he was living in Chicago with his wife, Frances Wheelock, 38, born Poland, step-son Edward Wheelock, 5, born Illinois, and Vera Wheelock, daughter, 1, born Illinois.

On 10 Nov 1931, Gertrude, 38, married Edward L. Woodard, 77, in Cedar Springs.

His WW II draft card, dated 27 Apr 1942, lists Charles Wheelock of Remus, Michigan as his nearest relative. He was living at 1922 Dickens St, Chicago, at the time.

Notes for Gertrude Wallace: In 1950, Gertrude Grill, age 55, was living in Grand Rapids with her husband, Gerald, 46, and her father, Dennis Wallace, 87. She also appears in the Grand Rapids city directory in 1951, with her husband, Gerald Grill. Gertrude Grill is not found with Gerald in any later Grand Rapids directories.

Notes for Frances Banka: The children of Frances and Clifford were born prior to their marriage. The oldest, Edward A. Wheelock, was born before Clifford and Gertrude divorced.

In 1930, Frances Wheelock, 38 years old, born in Poland, was living in Chicago, with her husband Clifford Wheelock, and two children, Edward Wheelock, 5, listed as the step-son of Clifford, and Vera Wheelock, 1, both born in Illinois.

In 1950, Frances, 59, and Clifford, 71, were living in Chicago, no children in the household.

Notes for Frank Emerson Wheelock: Frank Emerson Wheelock, founder of the City of Lubbock, and one of the most influential early-day citizens of the South Plains of Texas, was born in Holland (Erie County), New York, on April 11, 1863. The Wheelock family had come to America from England during the historic "Great Migration" of the early seventeenth century to escape persecution by the Stuart Kings. The family immediately assumed a leading role in the affairs of colonial New England. Frank Wheelock's parents, Dr. William Efner (1842-1902) and Louisa Diane (Farrington, 18??-1869) Wheelock made their home in New York, where Dr. Wheelock was a practicing physician.

After the death of his wife, while Frank Wheelock was yet a child, Dr. Wheelock moved to Madison, Wisconsin, taking young Frank and his brother, William Ava Wheelock, with him. According to family records, the father went on west to buy a farm in North Dakota, where the boys spent summers with him. During the school terms, Frank stayed in Madison with his Uncle, Jerome Wheelock, while William went to Moline, Illinois, to stay with another Uncle.

In 1876, the Jerome Wheelocks moved to Moline taking Frank with them, and in 1878 the family moved to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where Frank finished school. His first employment was with S.J. Palmer, a fruit commission merchant of Minneapolis, but in 1887 he accepted a new position as a farm manager on the IOA ranch, an extensive livestock operation in West Texas. The Western Land and Live Stock Company, which owned the IOA ranch, was controlled by Stillman W. Wheelock, a great uncle of Frank Wheelock, who was a prominent businessman and civic leader of Moline. Stillman Wheelock was president of the well-known Moline Plow Company, the Moline Paper Company, and a number of other Illinois firms.

Frank Wheelock moved to Texas at the age of twenty-four, and from that time forward began to play an important role in the development of the South Plains region. Although the ranch was dissolved in 1892 following the death of his uncle, Frank Wheelock remained in Texas. He had become interested in ventures of his own. His interest in building a town on the plains was discussed by Rollie Burns, an IOA foreman:

In the spring of 1890, a real estate man by the name of W.E. Rayner came to Lubbock County and began to talk about laying off a townsite and establishing a county seat...He wanted the good will of some of the local citizens, and offered Frank (F.E.) Wheelock and myself ten lots each if we would support him in his effort to get the county seat at Monterey. Wheelock and I had been watching his activity, and decided that the matter of starting a town was not so involved. We told him our support would cost a great deal more than ten lots apiece. He got mulish and said that was all he would give. Wheelock and I decided to start a town of our own.

This they did, with financial support from John T. Lofton and James Harrison of Fort Worth, and with Frank Wheelock as manager for the venture. Wheelock built the Nicolett Hotel which was to become a Lubbock landmark, a store building, and put in a well and windmill. This activity prompted Rayner, the rival town promoter, to suggest a compromise, which was effected December 19, 1890, by an agreement between F.E. Wheelock, J.T. Lofton, James Harrison, W.E. Rayner, and H. Rayner. A new section of land, where the town of Lubbock now stands, was selected as the site for a joint town venture, and Wheelock was appointed to manage the affairs. The success of his untiring efforts are witnessed today in the "Hub City" of the South Plains.

From that time on, Frank Wheelock's chief interest and occupation was the zealous promotion of the civic affairs of his beloved city. He served as Lubbock's first mayor and was on the first Lubbock County Commission, introduced the first cotton gin in Lubbock County, introduced the first self-binding harvest machine in the county, brought the first Sudan seed to Lubbock, and was one of the earliest breeders of registered Hereford cattle in the area. He also was Lubbock's first postmaster, and promoted the first motor bus line operating out of Lubbock. He was further interested in the development of the Lubbock Cemetery and the promotion of railroads and good highways. His name is perpetuated in Lubbock in the Wheelock Addition of the City and in the F.E. Wheelock School.

He continued private business ventures as a rancher and cattle-man, as a partner with Irving L. Hunt in the mercantile firm of Hunt and Wheelock, and as a financier.

Wheelock was married on December 9, 1891, to Sylvia Belle Hunt (1874-1944), a sister of Irving L. Hunt. This union was blessed with a thriving family of seven children: Cyril Efner Wheelock (1893-1946), Eva Minnette (Wheelock) Jarrott, Elwin Bryan Wheelock, Howard Emerson Wheelock, Fern Marie (Wheelock) Conley, William Irvin Wheelock, and Edith Annette (Wheelock) Tipps.

Frank Emerson Wheelock passed away in Lubbock on June 28, 1932. His death was mourned by the entire city. An editorial in the Lubbock newspaper said of him: "We should now lose sight of those makers of civilization--those who braved dangers and hardships to make frontier history and pioneer achievement."

He was a member of the New York Bar Association from 1885 to 1887, then, after moving to Chicago, became a member of the Chicago Bar. He served in the Illinois House of Representatives, where family tradition states that he proposed and passed a bill to make Lincoln's birthday a state holiday. He was also a member of the American Bar Association, Illinois State Bar Association, Chicago Law Institute, Sons of the American Revolution, Masonic Order, the Shrine, Union League of Chicago, Skokie Country Club, Swan Lake Club, and the Kenilworth Club.

In August, 1892, he was appointed assistant attorney of the Sanitary District (drainage board) of Chicago. This organization was in charge of the construction of the great ship and drainage canal designed to afford water communication between the Great Lakes and the Mississippi River.

An article, written about him in the 1890's points out that he was not an office seeker, but rather office sought him and found him most worthy to wear its honor, and most zealous in the performance of its duties. The article goes on to say:

"Personally, he is of fine appearance and pleasing address. He makes friends readily and retains them once made. His career thus far has been one of greatest personal honor and credit. He has deserved the confidence of the public and has proven it by the manner in which he has met the expectations of his constituency."

Notes for Lulu Grace Wheelock: Loula G. Campbell, age 35, is enumerated in the 1920 Federal Census, living in Munro Township, Cheboygan, MI. Her father was born in Michigan, her mother in Canada. Her husband is James C. Campbell; they have three children, Laura, Blanche, and William. Also living in the household is Maurice W. Carr, Lula's nephew (son of Aubrey Vane Wheelock and Margaret Moore). Maurice had apparently changed his name from Maurice W. Wheelock.

Lulu G. Campbell, age 45, is enumerated in the 1930 Census living in Munro Township, Cheboygan, MI, with her husband, James C. Campbell, and children William, Gladys, and Lillian.

Notes for Aubrey Vane Wheelock: Aubrey V. Wheelock is enumerated in the 1910 Census, listed as the son of Charles V. and Laura Wheelock.

He divorced Margaret McArthur in 1914, and married Katherine Rutherford in the same year.

He is enumerated in the 1920 Federal Census, age 33, living in Cheboygan, MI, with wife Catherine A., born in Illinois, age 29, daughters Harriet, age 3 4/12, and Jean, age 1 month, and son Charles W., age 2 1/2. Also living in the household is Mary Taylor, servant.

He is enumerated in the 1930 Federal Census, living again in Cheboygan, MI, with wife Catherine A, children Harriet E., age 13, Charles W, age 12, Robert A., age 5, and Mary E., age 1 8/12.

The remaining children: Aubrey, Maurice, William and Carole June are taken from the records of David Lawrence. It's possible that William is the Charles W. who appears in the census records. Carole June might be the Jean that appears in the census records.

Notes for Margaret Moore: As informant, Margaret Wheelock identified her maiden name as Moore in the death certificate of her daughter, Eleanor May Wheelock, who died 18 May 1914 at the age of just under four months, the father identified as Aubrey Wheelock. At the time of death, the baby, and presumably Margaret were living at 987 Mackinaw St, Ward 3, Cheboygan. The cause of death was not determined. The attendant wrote "I made one visit at above date, child was dead when I got there."<sup>9205</sup>

On 22 Feb 1916, James Moore died in Cheyboygen, address 987 Machinaw St, 3rd Ward. He was born 22 Aug 1831 in Scotland, father's name also James Moore.<sup>9206</sup>

Given that Margaret (Moore) Wheelock and James Moore lived at the same address, a relationship might be expected between the two, perhaps she was the granddaughter.

According to online genealogies, her parents were James Moore and Margaret Johnston. This is consistent with a birth record for Margarate A. Moore, born 17 June 1890, in Cheboygan, daughter of James W. and Margaret Ann Moore.<sup>9204</sup>

Also consistent is a marriage record for James Moore, age 26, born Wayne County, Michigan, and Margaret A. Johnston, age 20, born Canada, married 12 March 1883 in Traverse City, Grand Traverse Co., Michigan. Note that this James Moore is too young to be the man who died on 22 Feb 1916 at 987 Mackinaw St.<sup>9207</sup>

In 1900, Margaret Moore, age 10, born June 1890, boarder, was living in Cheboygan in the household of John B. and Alicia MacArthur. She used the surname McArthur on her marriage and divorce records. According to tradition her parents died early, and she was left in care of the McArthurs.

In 1910 she was again living in Cheboygan, under the name Margaret M. Wheelock, age 19, married, born Michigan, with her first son, "Mauris W. Wheelock," age 1. Her husband is enumerated in a separate household in Cheboygan, with his parents.

She was divorced in 1914. The divorce was initiated by her husband, "on grounds of cruelty." A newspaper article in the Detroit Times, published on the day the divorce was granted, suggests that Eleanor May Wheelock, who had died just a few days earlier, was not the daughter of Aubrey Vane Wheelock.<sup>9208</sup>

So far (Dec 2021), no record of her after her daughter's death has been found for Margaret/Maggie Moore/McArthur/Wheelock in Michigan.

According to online genealogies, her parents did not die at an early age. In 1900, 1910, and 1920, they were living in Romulus, Wayne Co, Michigan. Until a more direct link is found between the Margaret Moore born 17 June 1890 in Cheboygan, and the James and Margaret Moore living in Romulus, there is reason to suspect they may not be her parents. They were living in Romulus when their son, Austin James Moore, was born there 8 August 1889. And they were living in Romulus when their daughter Iva Moore was born there 10 Sep 1896. It is possible they moved to Cheboygan before Margaret Moore was born there on 14 Sep 1890, then moved back to Romulus again. Or perhaps they were just visiting. It is also somewhat problematic that Margaret would have been conceived just a few weeks after her supposed brother, Austin James Moore, was born.

Children of Aubrey Vane Wheelock and Margaret Moore:

- i. Maurice Ward Wheelock was born on 24 Dec 1908,<sup>9209</sup> died on 29 Jul 1995, in Livonia, Wayne Co, MI.<sup>9209</sup>

Maurice, age 1, is enumerated in the 1910 Census living with his mother, Margaret M. Wheelock, age 19, in Muro, Cheboygan Co, MI. Margaret's husband is living with his parents. He is enumerated in the 1920 Census as Maurice Carr, living in the household of his aunt, Lulu (Wheelock) Campbell. According to unsourced family tree records on www.Ancestry.com, he was adopted on 25 May 1914 by John G. Carr, and Mary E. Carr.

- ii. Aubrey Moore Wheelock was born on 6 May 1910,<sup>9210,9211</sup> died on 14 May 1981, in Saginaw, Saginaw Co, MI,<sup>9210,9211</sup> buried in Pine Hill Cemetery, Cheboygan, Cheboygan Co, MI.

The relations of Aubrey M. Wheelock are identified in a death notice, published in an unknown newspaper, probably on 15 May 1981, maybe in Cheboygan, MI. The death notice reads as follows (partial): Mr. Aubrey M. Wheelock, age 70, of Piper Road, Alpena, former resident of Cheboygan, died Thursday evening at St. Luke's Hospital in Saginaw. Mr. Wheelock was born in Cheboygan May 6, 1910, the son of Aubrey V. and Margaret Wheelock. He married the former Gertrude G. Sarrault June 14, 1930 in Toledo. He was employed as an auto body repair man for many years in Cheboygan, and also worked for Henderson Brothers Construction Company. He later moved to Alpena where he worked as a maintenance man for Alpena General Hospital. He retired from there in 1972. He is survived by his wife Gertrude, four daughters, Mrs. John (Shirley) Bowen, and Mrs. Merle (Carol) Preseau, both of Alpena, Mrs. Thomas (Joan) Astrom of Oscoda and Mrs. Fred (Janet) Pacific of Grand Rapids, and three sons, David of Cheboygan, Brad of Alpena, and Brian of Alpena, 21 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. A brother Maurice Carr of Highland and a half-brother, Robert Wheelock of Berkeley, and two half sisters, Mrs. Harriet Lyons of Anaway and Mrs. Mary Ellen Martin of California also survive.

- iii. Eleanor May Wheelock was born on 21 Jan 1914,<sup>9212,9213</sup> died on 18 May 1914, in Cheboygan, Cheboygan Co, MI.<sup>9212,9213</sup>

Eleanor May Wheelock's death certificate identifies her mother as Margaret Moore, born in Michigan; father Aubrey Wheelock. Cause of death unknown.

Andrews, and lived in Salina from 1916 to 1940. She married second Ray Miller, who died in 1973. Survivors included her daughter, Josephine Andrews McIntyre, of Encinitas, California; a brother, Edward Wheelock, of Watonga, Oklahoma, and two sisters, Mrs. Minnitte Davis, of Santa Clara, and Mrs. Phyllis Pound of Sacramento, California.<sup>9349</sup>

Notes for Sidney Ransom Andrews: In 1900 he resided in Lyon, Decatur Co, Kansas, living in the household of William, born Ohio, and Mary Andrews, born Indiana. Per census, Sidney was born July 1888 in Arkansas.

Notes for Ray Hunt Miller: Research Notes for Ray H. Miller:

In 1950, Ray H. Miller was living in Napa, California, age 54, born Illinois, married to Corinne Miller, age 54, born Kansas.

In 1960, Raymond H. and Corinne E. Miller were living together in Napa, per 1960 Napa directory; as they were in 1965, and 1967, listed as Ray H. and E. Corinne Miller. By 1968 they were living separately, as they were in 1970 and 1972. The 1973 Napa directory is not available online at Ancestry.com, but in 1974 Corinne Miller was still living in Napa; Ray H. Miller was no longer listed there.<sup>9350</sup>

Ray Hunt Miller died 28 Mar 1973 in McLeansboro, Illinois. Per obituary, he was born 7 Aug 1895 in Hamilton County, Illinois, the son of Stan and Laura (Hunt) Miller. The obit identified his wife, Grace Denny, who preceded him in death (she died in 1927 per profile on FamilySearch.org). Corinne was not mentioned. The obituary states that he was a member of the Baptist Church of Napa, California.<sup>9347</sup>

No original record was found tying Corinne to the Ray Hunt Miller in the obituary, but his birth and death dates line up exactly with those given by Corinne's grand-daughter (Donna Rae Selig), and he had lived in Napa, so the two are presumed to be the same. Possibly they divorced, explaining their separate living arrangements after 1968, and the lack of mention in Ray H. Miller's obit.

Note that his headstone gives birth date one year earlier than his obit. His WW I draft registration card agrees with the headstone - he was born 7 Aug 1894, near McLeanboro, Illinois.<sup>9346</sup>

Ray's obit identifies his parents as Stan and Laura (Hunt) Miller, but the obituary of Rhoda (Oglesby) Miller identifies Ray as her son, and Sam Miller as her husband.<sup>9351</sup> This is consistent with the 1910 census, which shows Ray Miller, 14, born Illinois, son of Sam and Rhoda Miller, living in Twigg, Hamilton County, Illinois, with two siblings mentioned in his obit - John, and Dwight.

She received her bachelors from Northwestern and her masters from Stanford University. Grace and Archibald had one child, Robert Alan McAllister.<sup>9416</sup>

In 1930 Grace and Archie were living in Fairview, Major County, Oklahoma. In 1940, Grace, age 38, widow, was lodging with W. L. Brown in Oklahoma City. Her son, Robert Alan McAllister was also in the household, age 8. In 1950 Grace was back in Fairview, occupation secretary and teacher.

Her obit lists a surviving brother, Albert Wheelock of Medicine Lodge; sisters Edna Sutton of Escondido, California, Vera Tatro of Alva, Beulah McCrady of Midwest City, and Ruth Caldwell of Redondo Beach, California; and three grandchildren.<sup>8562</sup>

A letter from Grace's brother, Albert Wheelock, states that Grace was in a nursing home in Fairview, Oklahoma in 1980. Grace was also identified in the letter as the "family genealogist". Persis (Park) Ivett makes occasional reference to "Grace MacAllister" in her genealogical notes, so the two must have corresponded. Albert's letter states that Grace's genealogical records were lost.

Notes for Archibald Washington McAllister: Per Oklahoma school records, Archie was the son of Chas McAllister. His World War I draft registration card listed Irene McAllister as his closest relative. In 1910, he was age 9, living in Eagle Chief, Alfalfa County, Oklahoma, the son of Chas H. and Irene McAllister.

His gravestone states that he died in 1932, but that appears to be incorrect. Newspaper articles show that he was alive on 2 Mar 1933.<sup>9445</sup> His veterans master index card states that he died 10 Aug 1933.<sup>9443</sup> That date is consistent with another newspaper article that refers to the funeral of Archie McAllister on 11 Aug 1933.<sup>9446</sup>

Notes for Betty Jean Wheelock: Betty Jean Wheelock was born in Warren, Pennsylvania 1 Mar 1929, daughter of Ellis Wheelock and Marion (Fawcett) Wheelock. She grew up in Russell, PA, and attended the Russell High School, grades 1 through 12, from 1935 to 1947. She was very active in the high school, was well known and well liked by all. She played guard on the Varsity Girls Basketball team, and remained an active fan of girls basketball for the rest of her life. She was a member of the school band, played piano and saxophone, and was the lead Drum Majorette. She continued her love of the piano into adulthood, playing frequently for herself and family. Betty was active in the Methodist Youth Fellowship, and enjoyed bicycle riding.

After graduation she worked for a time at Bell Telephone (June 1947 - Sept 1948) before beginning her nurses training at Women's Christian Association Hospital, in Jamestown, NY. At the time, careers for women were against the cultural norm, but she was determined to advance her education and provide for her own means. After several years of study she graduated in Sept 1951 with a Nurses Diploma. She pursued the profession of nursing in various capacities until her retirement in 1993. Though not always easy, the work served her well, and would provide a much needed financial boost to her family in coming years. It was through nursing that she met her future husband, Roderick Beebe Sullivan, of Jamestown, NY. They married in the Russell Methodist Church in Pennsylvania on 23 Mar 1952.

Betty's nursing helped fund her husband's education at the University of Maryland, during which time she worked at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore (Mar 1952 - Oct 1952), and then at the George Washington University Hospital in Washington, D.C. (Oct 1952 - Sep 1953). Her first son, Roderick Beebe Sullivan, Jr. was born 19 Oct 1953. For a time afterward, Betty was unable to work, resulting in financial hardship for the family. These were difficult months, but she soon started work again at Prince Georges County Hospital, Maryland, and later at Glendale Hospital, Glendale, Maryland.

In 1956, her husband finished his degree in Business Administration, and the family moved to East Hartford, Connecticut, where he found employment with Pratt & Whitney, and later with Connecticut Light and Power. Despite the demands of motherhood, Betty worked part time at the Hartford Hospital. In 1 Mar 1957 the family moved to Marlborough, CT, and a month later her second son, Kevin Ellis Sullivan was born on April 10th.

Her husbands career required frequent moves. The family moved to Bristol, CT, in the summer of 1962, to Southington in the summer of 1966, and to Somers in the summer of 1972. During this period, Betty continued to work as a nurse at local hospitals. For a time she worked as a Visiting Nurse with the Meridan Visiting Nurses Association.

In 1979 she moved to Enfield, Conn, where she remained for the rest of her life. In a desire to advance her education and strengthen her nursing credentials, she went back to school at Eastern Connecticut State University, where, in 1986, she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology.

After 42 years of professional nursing, she retired in 1993. In retirement, she actively pursued her hobbies which included playing golf, sewing, gardening, traveling, and investing. She was a member of the Veterans Golf League in East Long Meadow, the Somers Congregational Church, the American Association of Retired Persons, and worked as a volunteer for the Red Cross.

In 2003 she was diagnosed with colon cancer. She fought the disease with chemotherapy for three and a half years, before succumbing to it's ravages. On Feb 27th, 2007 she died in the comfort of her home, with her children nearby.

Notes for Roderick Beebe Sullivan: The following from his obituary published in the Jamestown Post-Journal, Sunday, 16 Nov 2008:

Roderick Beebe Sullivan, 83, of Naples, Florida, passed away on Thursday, November 13th, 2008 in the Naples Community Hospital, after a brief illness. He was born Nov 15th, 1924 in Jamestown, NY, the second son of Paul Revere and Ursula (Jones) Sullivan. He grew up near Bemus Point, where he graduated from high school in 1942, a member of the Alpha Zeta fraternity, and the varsity baseball and basketball teams. He joined the Navy in 1943, as a quartermaster 3rd class. During World War II he served on a troop carrier in the Pacific, where he participated in many engagements, including the battle at Okinawa. He was honorably discharged in 1946, and shortly thereafter entered Colgate University. His education was interrupted, however, by the Korean War, during which he served as Quartermaster 1st class in the Pacific and the Mediteranean.

He graduated with a Masters Degree in Business Administration from the University of Maryland, after which he moved to Connecticut with his young family, and worked for many years at the Connecticut Light and Power Company. During his time with CL&P he worked out of the Bristol, Meriden, and Enfield offices. He was active in the Congregational Church, serving as a deacon, Sunday School teacher, and leader of the Christian Youth Fellowship group. He was a member of the Rotary Club, and was President of the Enfield Rotary. He was a member of the United Way, serving as chairman of the industrial division, was active in the Chamber of Commerce, and was a Mason (Doric Lodge).

He retired from CL&P in 1986, and enjoyed many years in Naples, Florida, where he loved playing golf. He is survived by his two sons, Roderick B. Sullivan, Jr. and his wife, Pat Lebau, of Northborough, MA, and Kevin E. Sullivan and his wife, Lauren, of West Newbury, MA; and four grandchildren, Aaron, Alexander, Paige, and Connor. He is also survived by his loving companion in retirement, Jane Clarke. He was predeceased by two brothers, Paul Beebe Sullivan, of Jamestown, NY, Daniel Emory Sullivan, of Stittsville, Ontario, and two sisters, Mary Elizabeth Kelman, of Jamestown, NY, and Joan Hartung, of Sedalia, MO.

Notes for B. Jane Currier: Jane and Logan had four children: Logan, Jeffery, Jonathan, and Lisa.

Notes for Lloyd Herman Wheelock: Lloyd was the twin of Floyd Wheelock. In the 1910 census he was listed as Lloyd Wheelock, age 8, born in Michigan, son of Thomas and Dora Carrel. Sometime after the 1910 census was taken, he adopted his step-father's surname, Carrel, which he used for the rest of his life.

He was a decorator by occupation.

His wife, Goldie, was institutionalized sometime before 1940, when she was living in the Kalamazoo State Hospital.

In 1940 he was living with his mother, Dora Carrel, 66, and her second husband, head of household Thomas E. Carrel, 65, in Grand Rapids. His (half) brother, Orrington, 25 was also in the household, along with John Carrel, 9, born Michigan, listed as "grandson".

In 1950 Lloyd Carrel, 49, son, was listed as "son" of the head of household, his step-father Thomas Carrel, 73, in Grand Rapids. Johnny Carrel is also in the household, 19, listed as grandson (of Thomas). Also in the household was Esther DeHaan, 38, listed as daughter (of Thomas Carrel), with her husband Hiram (or Harm) DeHaan, 55, and their children: Caroline, 13, Frederick, 12, and Thomas, 5.

His 15 Nov 1982 obit in the Grand Rapids Press identified the following survivors: his wife, Ann; four daughters and one son: Mrs. Harry (Rosie) Bloem of East Grand Rapids, John W. (Geraldine) Carrel of Wyoming, Kent County, Michigan, Mrs Donna Perlrie of Lamham, Maryland, Mrs. Shirley Elder of Wyoming, Michigan, and Mrs. Betty Goudzward of Gillett, Wyoming; a brother, Orrington Carrel; and a sister, Mrs. Harm (Esther Martha) DeHaan, both of Grand Rapids.<sup>8956</sup>

Research Notes for Lloyd Carrel:

In 1930 Lloyd Carles was 28, living in the household of Winfield S. and Rosetta Thomas, in Wyoming, Kent County, Michigan. He was listed as the son-in-law of Winfield, who was head of household. Living with Lloyd was Goldie Carles, 30, daughter (presumably of Winfield and/or Rosetta), and Rosetta Carles, 2 1/12, granddaughter.

Per marriage record, Goldie's parents were Colonel D. Wilson and Rosetta Thomas, which raises the question: who is Winfield S. Thomas? And was Thomas the maiden name of Goldie's mother? Or a married name? This requires more research on Colonel Wilson, Winfield S. and Rosetta Thomas.

In 1910, Goldie, 8, born Michigan, was living in Kansas Ward 2, Jackson County, Missouri, in the household of Colonel D. Wilson, 39, born New York, and Rosetta Wilson, wife, married for nine years (about 1901), 30, born Michigan. In 1925, Goldie Wilson, 23, born Michigan, was living in Kansas City, Kansas, in the household of Rosetta Wilson, 43, head of household.

Rosetta McNeil first married George M. Burgess, 1898, Grand Traverse, Michigan.<sup>9631</sup> She was 35 on 2 May 1916 when Rosetta Burgess married Colonel D Wilson in Jackson, Missouri.<sup>9632</sup> On 11 Aug 1925, Rosetta Wilson, daughter of Lyman McNeil and and Adelia Stockton, married W. Scott Thomas in Allegan, Michigan.<sup>9633</sup>

The maiden name of Goldie's mother was McNeil, not Thomas as stated in her married record.

Some genealogies show John Carrel as a child of Lloyd and Goldie. A John Carrel does appear in the 1940 census, living with Lloyd. John is listed as the grandson of the head of household, Lloyd's step-father, Thomas Carrel. But it is unclear whether John is the son of Lloyd, Orrington, or perhaps another half-brother of Lloyd.

A marriage record and an obit resolve the mystery.

The 2 Mar 1956 edition of The Grand Rapids Press announced that Jown W. Carrel, 25 and Geraldine L. Walton, 22, obtained a marriage license.<sup>9634</sup> They were married by 1958, when they announced the birth of a baby boy in The Petoskey News-Review.<sup>9635</sup>

John W. Carrel's obit identifies his sister, Rosie Bloem, and her husband Harry Bloem, proving that John was the son of Lloyd and Goldie.

Notes for Goldie Wilson: In 1930 Goldie Carles was living with her husband, Lloyd, her daughter Rosetta, her mother, Rosetta Thomas, and her step-father, Winfield S. Thomas. In 1940 and 1950 she was a patient in an institution in Kalamazoo, Michigan, unable to work, living apart from her husband and children. She probably died there.

Notes for George Edward Wheelock: The 1930 census shows Edward Wheelock, 24, pharmacist, living in Flint with his wife, Alberta, 23, both born in Michigan - suggesting that George Edward may have had a second wife between Arlie May and Helen. #### Research Note for George:

As mentioned above, Edward Wheelock and Alberta appear in the 1930 census living in Flint, Michigan. The identity of Alberta is not known.

At least one tree on Ancestry.com shows George Edward Wheelock married to Alberta Hughey, no sources. Alberta Hughey was living in Flint in 1920, age 14. This is promising, since, per census, George (listed as Edward) and Alberta were living in Flint in 1930. Alberta Doris Hughey married Dee St. John 19 Apr 1924, and divorced him on 24 Aug 1924. On 14 Mar 1931 the former Alberta Hughey married Frank Stuart in Detroit. She survived her husband, Frank, who died 7 Apr 1983.<sup>9686</sup>

Otherwise, the trees on Ancestry.com show no records for Alberta between 1924 and 1931 - most notably, none of them show a 1930 census record for Alberta. It is possible that Alberta Doris Hughey married George Edward Wheelock between 19 Apr 1924 and when the 1930 census was taken, though no documentary evidence has yet been found to support the case.

Notes for Arlie May Wolverton: Per record of divorce from George, there were no children.<sup>9687</sup>

In 1950, Arlie Mae Buss was living in Jacksonville Beach, Duval County, Florida, with her husband, Horace Albert Buss.

Notes for Helen Caroline Hiftline: She was born in Adrian and lived most of her life there. She and her husband retired to Tuscon, Arizona, where Helen died 9 Feb 1987, survived by her sons John C. Wheelock of Tuscon, Charles B. Wheelock of Houston, Texas, James A. Wheelock and his wife Nancy, of Tuscon, and William H. Wheelock, and his wife Mary, of Maple Heights, Ohio.<sup>9682</sup>

Research Notes for Helen Hiftline:

She was C. Helen Wheelock in the 1940 census, age 29, living with her husband and their son in Adrian, Michigan. The 5 May 1983 obituary of her sister, Elda Hiftline Thompson, of Adrian, identifies Mrs. George (Helen) Wheelock of Tuscon, Arizona as her sister, and Henry Hiftline of Jasper as her brother, implying Helen's maiden name was Hiftline.<sup>9688</sup> Indeed, in the 1940 census, Harry Hiftline, Elda M. Hiftline and their sister, Helen C. Hiftline, were all living in Adrian with their parents, John C. and Mary S. Hiftline.

Notes for Leah Gingrich: Research Notes for Leah:

The records show two conflicting marriage dates for Donovan and Leah.

The first is in the 1925 return of marriages from the Mecosta County to the Michigan Department of Health, 4 July 1925, one day after the license.<sup>9697</sup>

The second is in the 1925 return of marriages from Montcalm County to the Michigan secretary of state, 26 Dec 2025, many months after the license.<sup>9700</sup>

The latter is probably in error. It seems to have the marriage dates for two adjacent couples swapped. Also the vast majority of couples married a day or two after they obtained their license.

Avery H. Wheelock, 74; founded Wheelock Rides By Anne Roth Staff writer

For years, children have smiled with glee as they rode up and down and around on Avery H. Wheelock's merry-go-rounds. Teens have gasped with fear as they tipped upside down on his cyclone. Oldsters remember their youth as they pause high in the sky on his Ferris Wheel.

Since 1945, Mr. Wheelock brought excitement to carnivals, firemen's field days and festivals in the Syracuse area.

Mr. Wheelock died Monday at Veterans Administration Medical Center after a long struggle with heart disease and cancer. He was 74 and formerly on Armstrong Road, Camillus.

Mr. Wheelock bought a used Ferris Wheel for less than $500. in 1945. His business grew to include merry-go-round, octopus, twister, flying bobs, kiddie train and spin-the-apple rides. The seasonal business-May through October-is within a 100 mile radius.

Hinsdale, Sodus and St. Johnsville fire departments, Assumption Church in Syracuse and United Church of Christ in Bayberry are among the many groups that book Wheelock Rides.

Mr. Wheelock's two sons, Avery D. and Andrew L., their wives, and grandchildren are all in the business. The younger ones run rides and games: two granddaughters run food stands. His daughter-in-law Alice does the bookkeeping and payroll. The sons and grandsons set up and tear down the rides.

Mr. Wheelock was always the boss, his daughter-in-law Alice said today.

"He didn't ask anybody to do anything he couldn't do himself. Everybody that worked for us and knew him respected him very much."

Today, the business is in two units. Avery D. and his family run one, Andrew and his family the other.

"We start out together the first couple of weeks in May and then divide up at the end of the month and come together for the New York State Fair," said Avery D. Wheelock.

Each unit has approximately 10 rides. During the peak season there are 30 employees.

Mr. Wheelock was born in Riverdale, MD., and was raised in Kirkland. He moved to Syracuse in 1945.

He began in the carnival business during the 1920's selling popcorn and peanuts with his father at carnivals. He was a 1935 graduate of Clinton High School.

Mr. Wheelock served in the Army Air Corps during World War II.

Mr. Wheelock moved to Plant City, Fla., in 1980, where he ran a tourist resort business. He returned to the Syracuse area for the carnival season to run the business.

Mr. Wheelock was a member of Belle Isle Methodist Church and was an organizer of Cub Scout Pack 60 in Warners. He was a former commander of Knifetown Post 1540, American Legion, in Camillus. Mr. Wheelock was recognized by the post this year for his support of the post and its Boy's State program.

Surviving are his wife of 50 years, the former Rae Una Smith: two sons, Avery D. and Andrew L., both of Syracuse: two daughters, Carol Spaulding of Brooklyn, Conn.; and Linda Wheelock of Plant City, Fla.; 10 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at B.L. Bush and Sons Funeral Home, Camillus, the Rev. Howard J. Rose officiating. Burial will be in Belle Isle Cemetery.

Notes for Rae Una Smith: Rae is the daughter of Ray St. Elmo Smith and Alice Ella Goodhue.

Her obituary, published by B. L. Bush & Sons, Inc. funeral home, Camillus, NY:

Rae Una (Smith) Wheelock 80, of Plant City, FL and formerly of Syracuse died Saturday. Born April 13, 1923 in Watervale, NY where she was the daughter of the late Ray St. Elmo and Alice Ella (Goodhue) Smith.

Rae grew up on her parents' farm and graduated from Pompey High School as Salutatorian of her class of 1940. She worked as a billing clerk in Syracuse before her marriage and becoming lifetime helpmate in numerous capacities for the family business of Wheelock's Rides and Concessions. A gentle and easy-going soul, her joys in life included nature walks, swimming at the beach, caring for her plants and animals, sightseeing and dining out, reading, playing cards and scrabble and various church organizations.

Rae was predeceased by husband Avery Harrison Wheelock in 1992 and her brother Vance Smith formerly of LaFayette, NY.

Rae is survived by her children, two sons Avery D. Wheelock and Andrew L. Wheelock both of Syracuse; two daughters Carol A. Hall of Columbia, CT and Linda L. ## Descendants of Daniel Wheelock of Claremont, NH and Boonville, NY

1492. Daniel Wheelock was born on 14 Jun 1768, in Uxbridge, Worcester, MA, died on 12 Mar 1842, in Boonville, NY. He married Lucinda Stewart on 28 Aug 1796, in Claremont, Sullivan County, NH.<sup>1410</sup> She was the daughter of Jacob STEWART and Elizabeth Pierce.<sup>9811,9812</sup> Lucinda Stewart was born on 22 Jan 1770, in Fitchburg, Worcester, MA,<sup>9811</sup> died on 1 Jul 1849, in Boonville, NY.

Notes for Daniel Wheelock: The ancestry of Daniel is not known for certain. Oral tradition states that he is the son of Daniel Wheelock (1744-1781) and Beulah Albee of Uxbridge, MA, and the grandson of Daniel Wheelock (1707-1793) and Deborah Darling, of Uxbridge, MA, and Glocester, RI. However, this relationship is not supported by the wills of Daniel Wheelock, probated 1793, and his son, Daniel Wheelock, Jr. (1744 - 1781), which prove relationships that seem to conflict with the Daniel Wheelock/Beulah Albee relationship.

Walter T. Wheelock, in "The Wheelock Family in America, 1637-1969", privately published in 1969, shows Daniel Wheelock (1744-1781) married to Beulah Albee; but he questions this relationship himself, and provides no support for it.

An original record showing a marriage between Daniel Wheelock and Beulah Albee has not been found. There is room for the oral tradition to be correct, but to the best of my knowledge no primary evidence to support it has yet been found.

Wheellocks of Rockingham, VT

Jonathan Wheelock

1500. Jonathan Wheelock married Hannah Corey say 1787.<sup>9826</sup>

Notes for Jonathan Wheelock: Jonathan Wheelock appears on an undated role of freemen in Rockingham, VT. The role was begun in 1781, and updated regularly by the town clerks.

A son of Jonathan Wheelock died in Rockingham, VT, 17 Feb 1790, per Rockingham VRs. The Vermont VRs identifies this person as Jonathan Wheelock, age at death not given.<sup>389</sup>

The last name of Jonathan's wife, Hannah Corey, is given in the Grafton, Vermont death record for their son James, who committed suicide.

Though no proof is yet found, Jonathan may be the son of Abner Wheelock and Mary Brown of Leominster, MA. The clues are as follows:

1) Jonathan, s. Abner and Mary, is about the right age.

2) He lived in Rockingham, VT, and joined the church there on the same date (3 Oct 1795) as did Abner Wheelock who may also be a child of Abner Wheelock and Mary Brown.

Children of Jonathan Wheelock and Hannah Corey:

- 1501 i. Augustus Wheelock was born on 27 Jan 1788, in Rockingham, Windham, VT,<sup>9826</sup> died on 3 Mar 1839.<sup>9827</sup>

Belinda (Wheelock) Estabrook is buried in the Rockingham Meetinghouse Cemetery. Her tombstone inscription reads: "Belinda, wife of John Estabrook died May 12, 1855 Ae 65 y's".<sup>9829</sup>

- 1502 iii. Oliver Wheelock was born on 7 Apr 1793, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>
- iv. Theron Wheelock was born on 24 Jun 1796, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>

Theron Wheelock, age 54, is enumerated in the 1850 U.S. census living in Grafton, Windham Co, VT, with Phebe Wheelock, age 54, Lewis Wheelock, age 42, and James Wheelock, age 48.

- vii. Lewis Wheelock was born on 5 Oct 1802, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>

Notes for Augustus Wheelock: On 30 Dec 1812, Augustus Wheelock, his wife Hannah, and their children Mary Wheelock, Hubbard Wheelock, and Jonathan Wheelock were warned out of town.<sup>389</sup>

An Augustus Wheelock appears in the 1820 Census, living in Moriah, Essex Co, NY, age probably between 25 and 45, with 2 male children, 2 female children, and a female between 25 and 45.

An Augustus Wheelock appears in the 1830 Census (indexed under Whalock Ancestry.com in 2004) living in Moriah, age between 40 and 50. Living in the same household is a boy between the ages of 15 and 19, and young girl, under 5, two young girls between 5 and 9, one between the ages of 10 and 14, one between 20 and 29, and one woman between 40 and 49 (presumably Hannah).

Augustus does not appear in the 1840 Census, but Hannah Wheelock appears in Moriah, age 40-49. Living in the same household is one boy, between 15 and 19, one girl 10-14, another 15-19, and a woman 29-29.

This is, no doubt, the Augustus Wheelock who died in 1839, and is buried in the South Moriah Cemetery.

In 1850, a Harriet Wheelock, age 64, is living in the household of Belinda Wheelock and her husband, Amos Taylor; next to Jona Wheelock and his wife Juliet. This is probably Hannah Wheelock; and Belinda (buried in the same cemetery as Augustus, South Moriah) is probably the daughter of Augustus and Hannah.

The 1840, 1850 and 1860 New York Census show the following Wheelocks living in Moriah: Abner, H. S., Augustus, George W., Hannah, Harriet, Hubbard, John S., Jonathan R., Lorin, and Squire K.

Children of Augustus Wheelock and Hannah Tarbell:

Notes for Oliver Wheelock: The Vermont Vital Records show the birth of Andrew Jackson Wheelock, son of Oliver Wheelock, born 18 Jan 1826 in Rockingham; implying, perhaps, that the first Andrew Jackson Wheelock died young.

The 1850 Census shows Oliver, born about 1793, residing in Athens, Windham Co, VT with his (presumed) son, Theron Wheelock, born about 1826. This is probably the Theron Wheelock living in Francestown, Hillsborough, NH in 1880, age 55, with wife Ellen J., daughters Delia and Clara, and son Nelson. Theron died 13 Sep 1899 in Francestown. Per NH death record, he was the son of Oliver Wheelock and Susan King.

The 1925 NH death record of Theron's son, Nelson Theron Wheelock, identifies his parents as Theron Wheelock, and Ellen Wright.

The 1936 NH death record of Theron's daughter, Delia Francis (Wheelock) Dodge, identifies her parents as Theron N. Wheelock and Ellen J. Wright.

Notes for Susan Gould: Susan was from Middlebury, VT.<sup>389</sup>

Children of Oliver Wheelock and Susan Gould:

Notes for Hubbard Wheelock: Hubbard first appears as head of household in the 1840 Census, living in Moriah, Essex Co, NY, age probably between 30 and 39. Also in the household are a young man, between 20 and 29, a young girl, under 5, another between 15 and 19, and a woman between 30 and 39.

He appears in the 1850 Census, age 40, born in Vermont, with wife Caroline, age 41, also born in Vermont, and daughter Francis, age 11, and son William H., age 9, both born in New York.

Hubbard S. Wheelock appears in the 1860 Census, age 50, merchant, born in Vermont, with wife Caroline, age 52, daughter Frances, age 20, and son William H, age 17.

Hubbard does not appear in the 1870 Census. But his wife Caroline is living in the household of C E Nichols and F C Nichols (likely her daughter and son-in-law).

He died intestate. His estate was administered by Caroline Wheelock and Calvin E. Nichols. The letters of administration were dated 13 Dec 1869.<sup>9840</sup>

Her parents were William Hyde and Sally Chaddock Briggs (per Vermont birth record). Her brother was Bowman Hyde, born 12 June 1803, also in Randolph. Bowman Hyde was buried in the same cemetery as Caroline, suggesting the possibility that they were siblings.

During the Civil War, Charles C. Wheelock, age 18, resident of Boston, Clerk, enlisted and was mustered into the First Battery Massachusetts Volunteers Light Artillery on 8 Feb 1864. On 12 March 1865 he transferred from the First Battery to the Ninth Battery. He was mustered out 6 June 1865.<sup>9892</sup>

Charles C. Wheelock is enumerated in the 1880 U.S. census living in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA, widowed or divorced, age 34, living with his sister in law, Hattie M. Wheelock, age 28, born Nova Scotia, keeping house, and his children Florence A. Wheelock, age 10, and Charles C. Wheelock, age 6.

The sister-in-law, Hattie M. Wheelock, could be Annie Marie (Turnbull) Wheelock, born circa 1851 in Nova Scotia, wife of Charles' brother, George Sidney Wheelock. But George was still alive in 1880, suggesting that they had divorced or that Hattie M. Wheelock is not Annie Marie (Turnbull) Wheelock.

Because his wife outlived him by many years, the 1880 census record for Charles C. Wheelock suggests that he had divorced Emma Rose Hubbard prior to 1880.

Emma Calnan is enumerated in the 1900 U.S. census living in Wakefield, Middlesex Co, MA, with her daughter, Florence A. Reed.

She married John Gardner, per Emma's death record. A marriage record has not been found, but she had not yet married him by 22 Feb 1905, when a San Bernardino, California newspaper refers to her a Mrs. Emma R. Calnan: "Myrs Emma R. Calnan of Boston, who is in Los Angeles for the winter, spent yesterday here."<sup>9894</sup>

By 1910 and 1920 she was living with her son, Charles C. Wheelock, in Los Angeles, listed as Emma Gardner.

Notes for James William Calnan: Per death records, he was born in Ireland, the son of Patrick Calnan and Hannah Casey.

James William Calnan, of Boston, made his will on 4 Dec 1897, and left provision for his wife, Emma R. Calnan by deed of trust, recorded in Suffolk County deeds. His will was proved 29 June 1899.<sup>9895</sup>

He moved to Los Angeles by 1910, and became a stage and screen actor of the silent film era.<sup>9904</sup>

He is enumerated in the 1910 and 1920 U.S. census living in Los Angeles, with his mother, Emma Gardner, no wife or children. In 1940 he was living alone in Los Angeles, next to his sister, Florence Reed and her husband Charles Reed.

On 12 Sep 1918 Charles Carroll Wheelock, actor and resident of Los Angeles, registered for the World War I draft, listing his mother, Emma Gardner as nearest relative.<sup>9905</sup>

Notes for George Sidney Wheelock: Sidney Wheelock's Stoneham death record places his birth date on 2 Dec 1847, similar but not identical to the birth date of George S. Wheelock found in the Weymouth Vital Records. At various times, Sidney appears in the records as George S. Wheelock, G. Sidney Wheelock, and Sidney Wheelock. He and his first wife, Priscilla Mullen, appear to have divorced prior to 1871 (when he remarried).

Priscilla Mullen remarried in 1872 (MA 246:30).

Notes for Annie Maria Turnbull: She married first George Sidney Wheelock. After he died, she married his brother, Elliot King Wheelock. She was the daughter of Joshua and Catharine H. Turnbull, per both marriage records.

Children of George Sidney Wheelock and Priscilla Mullen:

- i. Elizabeth Wheelock was born on 7 Jul 1866, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>9908</sup>

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Wheelock: The Winchendon marriage record for Mary and George indicates that George, age 21, was born in Wells, ME, son of Samuel and Sarah Littlefield.

Children of Mary Elizabeth Wheelock and George Albert Littlefield:

- i. Solon Albert Littlefield was born in 1873,<sup>9872</sup> died in 1969.<sup>9872</sup>

Notes for Frank H. Wheelock: He is enumerated in the 1900 U.S. census living in Washington, D.C., age 48, born Jun 1851 in Vermont, with his wife, Carrie M. Wheelock, age 43, born in Illinois, and daughter Ouida E. Wheelock, age 14, born in Wisconsin. Also in the household is Madge Gerlich, age 23, sister-in-law.

He is enumerated in the 1920 U.S. census living in a boarding house in Manhattan, NY, age 69, with wife Caroline, age 62.

The 1925 funeral notice of his brother, Nelson Wheelock, identifies his residence as New York City.<sup>9913</sup>

Children of Frank H. Wheelock and Caroline M. Gerlich:

- i. Ouida Wheelock was born on 4 Sep 1885, in Knapp, Dunn Co, WI,<sup>9914</sup> died on 8 Dec 1969, in Chatham Co, GA,<sup>9915</sup> buried in Greenwich Cemetery, Savannah, Chatham Co, GA.<sup>9916</sup> She married (1) Leroy McCafferty on 27 Sep 1910, in Washington, DC.<sup>9917</sup> She married (2) Thomas Michael Mannion on 17 Jul 1936, in Washington, DC.<sup>9918</sup>

Ouida Wheelock was born 1885 in Knapp, Wisconsin. Her death record indicates that she was born in 1895, but the birth record, the 1895 Minnesota state census, and the 1900 and 1910 federal census records agree with the 1885 birth date.

Children of Nelson Theron Wheelock and Clara Bell Nutting:

- i. Sarah Wheelock was born on 1 Dec 1881, in Frankestown, Hillsborough Co, NH.<sup>6545</sup>

- ii. Lena Belle Wheelock was born on 15 Mar 1885, in Francestown, Hillsborough Co, MA.<sup>6545</sup>

Lena Wheelock's New Hampshire birth record identifies her as the second child of Nelson T. Wheelock and Clara Bell Nutting.

Abner Wheelock

1514. Abner Wheelock married Hannah Stowell on 9 Oct 1792, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>

Notes for Abner Wheelock: Abner Wheelock appears on a list of men who attended a Special Meeting in Rockingham, VT, 22 May 1797, for the choice of a Representative for Congress - by order of the Chief Magistrate of the State of Vermont.<sup>389</sup>

Though no proof is yet found, Abner may be the son of Abner Wheelock and Mary Brown of Leominster, MA, who was born in Leominster 6 Jan 1765. The clues are as follows:

- 1) He is the right age.
- 2) The name fits.
- 3) He had a sister Betsey, who died in 1790, and who may be the namesake of his daughter Betsy, b. 1797.
- 4) He lived in Rockingham, VT, and joined the church there on the same date (3 Oct 1795) as did Jonathan Wheelock, who may also be a child of Abner Wheelock and Mary Brown.

An Abner Wheelock, age probably between 50 and 70, appears in the 1830 Federal Census, living in Moriah, Essex Co, NY. Living nearby in the same census is his son (probably), Loran Wheelock.

In 1840, his sons George W. and Squire K. Wheelock appear in the census living in Moriah. Abner is absent from the 1840 and later census records; but there is an older male (age 60-70) living in the home of his son, Squire, in the 1840 Census.

Notes for Hannah Stowell: Referred to as Hannah Stoell by the Rockingham VRs.

This may be the Hanna Wheelock buried in Union Cemetery, Moriah, Essex Co, NY. She was born in 1762, died 4 Aug 1850 (per Find A Grave Memorial # 92483769).

Children of Abner Wheelock and Hannah Stowell:

- i. Sally Wheelock was born on 4 Feb 1793, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>
- ii. Betsy Wheelock was born on 8 Jan 1797, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>
- iii. Nancy Wheelock was born on 2 Aug 1799, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>
- 1515 iv. Loran Wheelock was born on 31 Oct 1801, in Rockingham, Windham, VT,<sup>9826,9838</sup> died on 25 Mar 1872.<sup>9921</sup>
- 1516 v. George Washington Wheelock was born on 14 Oct 1803, in Rockingham, Windham, VT,<sup>9826</sup> died on 3 Jun 1866.<sup>9922</sup>
- 1517 vi. Esquire Kinsman Wheelock was born on 19 Sep 1806, in Rockingham, Windham, VT,<sup>9826</sup> died on 26 May 1880.<sup>9923</sup>
- 1518 vii. John Stowell Wheelock was born on 12 Jul 1808,<sup>9924</sup> died on 20 Sep 1870.<sup>9924,9925</sup>

Notes for Loran Wheelock: Loran Wheelock appears in the 1830 Census, living in Moriah, Essex Co, NY, age between 20 and 30, with his wife, age 20 to 30, and a young girl under 5. Living not far away is Abner Wheelock, probably his father.

He appears in the 1840 Census, again in Moriah, age between 30 and 40, with a woman between 30 and 40, two young boys, and a young girl.

He's in Moriah again in 1850, age 48, living with Eascha, age 45, Lucretia, 23, Edgar, 16, William, 13, and Martha, 9.

In 1860, age 58, he is living in the household of Joseph Lane, with Eusebia, age 55, and William, age 22.

In 1870, he is again in Moriah, age 68, with Eucebia, age 65, William, age 33, John, age 18, and Lucy, age 16.

Notes for Eusebia (--?--): The 1850 Census refers to her as Euscha, and the 1860 and 1870 Census records refer to her as Eusebia. These are presumed to be the same person, though it is possible that they are two separate people, and that Loran married twice.

The will of Eusebia Wheelock of Moriah is on file in Essex Co, NY, 16-G-316 (County #, Volume, Page).

Children of Loran Wheelock and Eusebia (--?--):

- i. Lucretia Wheelock was born about 1827.<sup>9838</sup>
- ii. Edgar Wheelock was born about 1834.<sup>9838</sup>
- iii. William Wheelock was born about 1837.<sup>9838</sup>
- iv. Martha Wheelock was born about 1841.<sup>9838</sup>

This may be the Martha Wheelock who married Orrin W. Pierce in Moriah. The marriage record for Orrin and Martha is found in The Elizabethtown Post, 18 Sep 1857, and reads as follows: "Married in Moriah on the 10th instant, by Rev. C. Ransom, Orrin W. Pierce, Esquire, of Westport, to Martha Ann Wheelock, youngest daughter of L. Wheelock, of the former place."<sup>9927</sup>

Orrin Pierce (age 32), and Martha Pierce (age 19) are enumerated in the 1860 Federal Census living in Elizabethtown, Essex Co, NY.

1516. George Washington Wheelock (Abner<sup>1</sup>) was born on 14 Oct 1803, in Rockingham, Windham, VT,<sup>9826</sup> died on 3 Jun 1866,<sup>9922</sup> buried in Union Cemetery, Moriah, Essex Co, NY, Plot L08.<sup>9838</sup> He partnered with Wealthy (--?--). Wealthy (--?--) was born about 1806.<sup>9928</sup>

Notes for George Washington Wheelock: According to the "History of Port Henry, NY", by Charles Bond Warner and C. Eleanor Hall, 1931, George came to Port Henry "about 1829".

George W. Wheelock is enumerated in the 1840 Federal Census living in Moriah, Essex Co, NY with 2 other males, and 3 other females.

He is enumerated in the 1850 Census living in Moriah, with wife Wealtha, age 43, daughter Sarah, age 18, and son John S., age 16.

He is enumerated in the 1860 Census in Moriah, age 56, with wife Wealtha, age 53, son John, age 26.

He does not appear in the 1870 Census, but his wife Wealthy, age 64, is living in the household of John Wheelock, age 36, with his wife Almira Wheelock, age 7, and their children Flora, age 7, George, 4, and Daisy, 2.

Children of George Washington Wheelock and Wealthy (--?--):

- i. Sarah Wheelock was born about 1832.<sup>9838</sup>
- 1519 ii. John S. Wheelock was born about 1834,<sup>9928,9929</sup> died on 25 Oct 1874.<sup>9929</sup>

1517. Esquire Kinsman Wheelock (Abner<sup>1</sup>) was born on 19 Sep 1806, in Rockingham, Windham, VT,<sup>9826</sup> died on 26 May 1880,<sup>9923</sup> buried in Union Cemetery, Moriah, Essex Co, NY.<sup>9923</sup> He partnered with Lois (--?--).

Notes for Esquire Kinsman Wheelock: Squire K. Wheelock appears in the 1840 Census, living in Moriah, Essex Co, NY, age probably between 30 and 40. In the same household is an elderly male, age 60 to 70, that may be his father, Abner. Also in the household: a young boy, under 5, a young girl, under 5, an older girl, between 15 and 19, a woman age 30 to 39, presumably his wife, and an elderly woman, between 70 and 79. Living next to him is John S. Wheelock, age between 30 and 40.

A Squire Wheelock, age 50, born in Massachusetts (sic) is enumerated in the 1850 Census, living in Moriah, Essex Co, NY, with his wife Lois (?) age 53, born NY, daughter Cordelia, age 14, and son Orlando (Alonzo?), age 10, both born NY. Also living in the household is Nathan Lewis, age 74. Again, living nearby is the family of John S. Wheelock.

Squire appears in the 1860 census in Moriah, age 53, born in Vermont, with his wife Lois, age 55, and his son, Alonzo S. Wheelock, age 20. Also living in the household is Nathan Lewis, age 84. John S. Wheelock appears in the neighboring dwelling.

Squire appears in the 1870 Census in Moriah, age 63, born in Vermont, with Belinda, age 55, and Alonzo, age 30. Also in the household are Carrie Danford, John Danford, and Alice Danford. Belinda was probably a second wife, with the Danford's being her children.

Squire appears in no further census records.

Notes for Lois (--?--): It's possible that the elderly Nathan Lewis who lived in the household for many years was Lois's father. An SK Wheelock (1802-1862) is buried in the same lot as Squire K Wheelock; and may be the same person as Lois Wheelock.

Children of Esquire Kinsman Wheelock and Lois (--?--):

- i. Cordelia Wheelock was born about 1836.<sup>1141</sup>
- ii. Alonzo Wheelock was born about 1840,<sup>1141</sup> died on 17 Apr 1892,<sup>9923</sup> buried in Union Cemetery, Moriah, Essex Co, NY.<sup>9923</sup>

The 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880 Census records consistently imply a birth date of 1840, yet the Moriah Union Cemetery Transcription at Rootsweb indicates a birth date of 1833.

In 1880, Alonzo is living with Melinda Wheelock, age 57, who is listed as his mother. It seems likely that this is the Belinda Wheelock who was living with his father in the 1870 Census - his stepmother, not his mother. The 1880 Census further indicates that John Danford was Alonzo's step brother, lending credibility to the theory.

Notes for John Stowell Wheelock: John S. Wheelock's Montpelier marriage record indicates that he was from Moriah, NY when married to Elvira Sinclair in 1834.

The existence of John S. Wheelock in Moriah, Essex Co, NY at the same time as his presumed brothers Loran, George W, and Esquire Kinsman Wheelock, along with his middle name of Stowell (as given by the Barber Genealogy by Lillian Mae Wilson) are taken as sufficient evidence to place John Stowell Wheelock in this family. His birth date of 1808 fits well within the pattern of births, and lends further support to the claim.

Children of John Stowell Wheelock and Elvira Sinclair:

- i. Edwin Oscar Wheelock was born on 13 Nov 1834,<sup>9924</sup> died on 22 Jan 1855.<sup>9924</sup>

1521. John Abner Wheelock (John Stowell<sup>2</sup>, Abner<sup>1</sup>) was born on 24 Nov 1838,<sup>9924</sup> died on 2 Jun 1902,<sup>9924</sup> buried in Union Cemetery, Moriah, Essex Co, NY.<sup>9935</sup> He married Helen Danforth in May 1863.<sup>9924</sup> Helen Danforth was born in 1846,<sup>9936</sup> died in 1911,<sup>9936</sup> buried in Union Cemetery, Moriah, Essex Co, NY.<sup>9936</sup>

Notes for John Abner Wheelock: John's headstone in Union Cemetery gives a death date of 1892, in disagreement with the death date given in "Barber Genealogy", by Lillian M. Wilson. He appears in the 1900 Census, so the 2 Jun 1902 date given in Barber Genealogy is more likely to be correct.

- 1527 i. Oscar Wheelock was born about 1866.<sup>9886</sup>
- ii. Hosea Wheelock was born in 1869,<sup>9886,9937</sup> died in 1935,<sup>9937</sup> buried in Union Cemetery, Moriah, Essex Co, NY.<sup>9937</sup> He married Nelli E. Oscar is enumerated in the 1910 Census living in Ticonderoga, Essex Co, NY, with their son Fred B. Wheelock, age 21, daughter Catherine E. Wiley (this is probably Alice in the 1900 Census), age 18, her husband Leo C. Wiley, Stanley M. Wheelock, age 15, and Bernice D. Wheelock, age 7.

Loula, age 50, is enumerated in the 1920 Census, with Bernice D. Wheelock, daughter, age 16, and John E. Wheelock, son, age 7. Her husband is Richard O K Wheelock, age 53 - probably Oscar.

Dorothy Wheelock

1530. Dorothy Wheelock was born on 21 Mar 1769.<sup>308</sup> She married Luther Webb on 9 Feb 1792, in Leominster, Worcester, MA.<sup>163</sup>

Notes for Dorothy Wheelock: Dorothy's ancestry is not known, but it is suspected that children of Abner Wheelock and Mary Brown removed from Leominster to Rockingham, VT, and Dorothy may be closely related to this family. Her birth, recorded in Rockingham, does not specify a birthplace.

Notes for Luther Webb: The Leominster marriage record indicates that Luther Webb was from Rockingham, VT.

Children of Dorothy Wheelock and Luther Webb:

- i. Lucinda Webb was born on 2 May 1793, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>

Salmon Wheelock

1531. Salmon Wheelock married Elizabeth Ball on 9 Apr 1794.<sup>414</sup> Elizabeth Ball was born in 1773,<sup>9954</sup> died in 1857.<sup>9954</sup>

Notes for Salmon Wheelock: Salmon is referred to as "Solomon" in DAR records.

Though no proof is yet found, Salmon may be the son of Abner Wheelock and Mary Brown of Leominster, MA. The clues are as follows:

- 1) Salmon was born in the right time frame, circa 1774.
- 2) The filing of marriage intention in Leominster suggests that he may have lived there. (Leominster Vital Records Intention Filed 23 Feb 1794.)
- 3) He lived in Rockingham, VT, and joined the church there on the same date (3 Oct 1795) as did Abner Wheelock and Jonathan Wheelock, who may also be children of Abner Wheelock and Mary Brown.

Another possibility is that he is the Samuel Wheelock, son of Jonathan Wheelock and Thankful Haskell baptized in Lancaster, 5 Apr 1772. The dates match, and the two families share similar names.

Notes for Elizabeth Ball: Betty Ball was from Hollis, NH. According to DAR records, she was the daughter of Ebenezer Ball, Jr. and Elizabeth Davis.

- i. Mark Wheelock was born on 15 May 1794, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>

- viii. Amos Wheelock was born on 12 Sep 1812, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>

This is probably the Amos Wheelock that died 7 Apr 1854 in Weymouth, MA, age 41, from an "explosion of powder". He was single at the time. (Mass Archives 85:190).
- ix. Lucinda Wheelock was born in Mar 1815, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup> She married Otis Archer on 20 Oct 1842, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>9826</sup>

Wheelocks of Batavia, Genesee Co, NY

Several children of Edward Wheelock and Martha Daggett of Charlton, Massachusetts, moved in the early 1800s from Augusta, Oneida County, New York, to Batavia, Genesee County, New York. Among them were Reu, Silas, Eli, and Relief. Reu later moved to Michigan, and Silas to Hamburg, Erie County, New York.

John Wheelock was another resident of Batavia that is believed to be a close relative of Edward Wheelock and Martha Daggett. He was living with Relief's daughter in 1850 and 1860. More about John below.

Other names that appear in the Batavia NY Republican Advocate (publication date in parenthesis) are:

1. Paul Wheelock (5 May 1835), advertising for students to attend his private school
2. Nancy Wheelock (1 Jan 1829), letter awaiting her at the post office
3. Elmina(?) Wheelock (1 Oct 1829), letter awaiting her at the post office - possibly Almira Wheelock, daughter of Eli and Charity

John Wheelock

1533. John Wheelock was born about 1792, in MA,<sup>9959,9960</sup> died on 11 Jun 1875, in Bethany, Genesee Co, NY.<sup>9960,9961</sup>

Notes for John Wheelock: This may be the John Wheelock who served as a private under Capt. Ebenezer Eggleston, in Churchills 164th NY (Genesee Co) Regiment in 1814.<sup>9962</sup>

There are also records of a John Wheelock, born about 1774 in Charleston (Charlton?), MA, who enlisted Mar 1813 in Burlington, VT in Lt. Valentine R. Goodrich's company, 11th Vermont Regiment.<sup>9963</sup>

A John Wheelock appears on an 1817 Holland Land Company Land Transaction, section 10, township 14, range 5, in Orleans Co (north of Batavia). But it appears that he never gained access to the land, as it was 'reverted' back to the Holland Land Company.

John Wheelock is enumerated in the 1820 Census living in Batavia, Genesee, NY, age between 26 and 44. In the same household is a female, of the same age. No children. He is living not far from Reu Wheelock and Eli Wheelock.

In 1830, he is enumerated again in Batavia, age between 30 and 39, with a female of the same age. No children.

He is in Batavia again in 1840, age between 40 and 49, with a female of the same age. He is only a few houses away from Jabez Howe, who married Relief Wheelock, sister to Reu Wheelock; and he's directly next to Albert Parker, who married Anna M. Wheelock. No children are listed for John Wheelock and his wife.

In 1850 he is again in Batavia, in the household of Sally Lusk, daughter of Relief Wheelock and Jabez Howe. Age 58. His wife is not listed. He is enumerated in the same household in 1860.

This is probably the J Wheelock in the 1870 Census, pauper, living in Bethany, Genesee Co, NY. Age 78, born in MA.

John Wheelock, aged 83, farm laborer, born in Massachusetts, married, died 11 June 1875 in Bethany, Genesee County, New York, of diarthia and old age.<sup>9964</sup>

David Wheelock and Naomi Fairbanks, of Northborough, MA

Notes for David Wheelock: David Wheelock's ancestry is not known. There is no birth record. His administrations of estate (Worc Probate 63646, 63647) do not name Wheelock relatives. No members of his Wheelock family stepped up to serve as guardians for his children when he died (Worc Probate 63595). The death certificate of his daughter, Abigail (Wheelock) Taylor indicates that he was born in Leominster (MA vol. 1905/55 death, p. 209). Without citing his reasons, Rev. Frederick Lewis Weis places him in the family of Abner Wheelock and Mary Brown in his book "Early Families of Lancaster, Massachusetts", 1941.

David died when most of his children were too young to care for themselves; his widow Naomi did not have the means to care for them. In 1824, Benjamin Fairbanks of Sterling, Naomi's brother, was appointed guardian of Mary A, Eliza, Miriam, Sophia, Dorothy Wheelock, minors and over the age of fourteen years; and Charles, Abigail, Oricy Ann, and George Wheelock, minors under the age of fourteen.<sup>9969</sup>

David and his wife Naomi are commemorated on a plaque on the central monument in the George H. Taylor lot (Section 7, Lot 80) in Evergreen Cemetery, Leominster. No separate gravestones have been found for either.<sup>9970</sup>

Notes for Naomi Fairbanks: The Leominster Vital records refer to Naomi as Nancy, from Sterling, MA. Her parents were Joseph Fairbanks and Ann Doyle.<sup>9971</sup>

A Naomi Wheelock, age 50 to 59, is enumerated in the 1830 census living in Leominster, Worcester Co, MA with one female age 20 to 29 (probably Sophia), two females between 10 and 14 (probably Abigail and Orice), and two young boys between 5 and 9 (probably George F. and Henry P.)

A Naomi Wheelock, age 30 (sic), is enumerated in the 1850 Census, living in Northborough, Worcester Co, MA, in the household of James B. Gallup and Dorothy Gallup, age 38. This is most likely Naomi (Fairbanks) Wheelock, age 70.

Naomi apparently had a child out of wedlock a year or two after her husband died. See notes for Henry P. Wheelock.

Her administration of estate, dated 7 July 1863, lists next of kin as follows: Charles Wheelock of Leominster, son, George F. Wheelock of Boston, son, Nancy White of Clinton, daughter, Mary Wheelock of Clinton, daughter, Eliza B. Patrick of Lancaster, daughter, Miriam Cook of Leominster, daughter, Dorthy Gallop of Leominster, daughter, Abigail Taylor, of Leominster, daughter, Edwin Cawthorn, of Northborough, grandson, David Cawthorn of Northborough, grandson, and George Wheelock, of Northborough, grandson. Though Henry P. Wheelock is not listed amongst the next of kin, he was made a payment out of the estate.<sup>9972</sup>

Children of David Wheelock and Naomi Fairbanks:

- 1535 i. Zimri Wheelock was born on 2 Jul 1800, in Leominster, Worcester Co, MA,<sup>163,9973</sup> died before 27 Mar 1861.<sup>9974</sup>

Her 1827 Lancaster marriage record identifies her place of residence as Lancaster.

Nancy White, age 48, is enumerated in the 1850 census living in Clinton, MA, with Jonas B. White, age 55, head of household, and Laura S. White, 19.

She is enumerated in the 1855 state census living again in Clinton, age 53, with J. B. White, age 60.

Nancy White is enumerated in the 1860 census, living in Clinton, MA, age 58, with Alonzo L. Davidson, age 19. Jonas B. White not listed in the 1860 census.

In 1863, her mother's administration of estate refers to her as "Nancy White, of Clinton, daughter."<sup>9972</sup>

Her death record names her as Nancy (Wheelock) White, refers to her as a widow, age 63y, 3m, 8d at death, daughter of Naomi and David, born in Sterling.

The marriage intention for ELiza and Orson was recorded 8 Apr 1827 in Bolton, referring to Eliza "of Leominster." The Leominster marriage record for the two refers to Orson "of Bolton."

Her mother's 1863 administration of estate refers to her as "Eliza Patrick."<sup>9989</sup>

Her 10 Oct 1871 Bolton death record identifies her maiden name as Wheelock, her parents as David and Naomi (Fairbanks) Wheelock, and refers to her as the "widow of late Samuel Patrick, also widow of Orson Bailey."

- 1541 i. Henry P. Wheelock was born on 26 Dec 1823, in Leominster, Worcester, MA,<sup>10004</sup> died on 21 Oct 1904, in Salem Depot, Rockingham Co, NH.<sup>10005</sup>

Notes for Zimri Wheelock: Per Shrewsbury marriage intention, Zimri was from Northborough, Sarah from Shrewsbury.

He is enumerated in the 1830 U.S. census, living in Shrewsbury, age 20 to 30, with a woman, age 20 to 30, a young boy, under 5, and a young girl under 5.

Notes for Sarah Miller Sever: Per Shrewsbury birth record, she was the daughter of Ephraim and Sarah Sever.

Sarah is listed as a widow when she died.

Sarah is not found in the 1850 or 1860 U.S. federal census records. she is enumerated in the 1855 MA state census living in Shrewsbury, with her daughter, Lucy. Neither Zimri nor John are present.

Children of Zimri Wheelock and Sarah Miller Sever:

- i. John Bucklin Wheelock was born on 9 Oct 1826, in Shrewsbury, Worcester, MA.<sup>73</sup>

Notes for Sophia Wheelock: A marriage between Miss Sophia Wheelock and Rufus Houghton, both of Northborough, is recorded in Northborough - 3 Sep 1843. A separate intention is also recorded. No obvious death record for Rufus Houghton has been found in Northborough or neighboring Bolton (which had a population of Houghtons, including a couple men named Rufus Houghton).

However, the Stonington Connecticut marriage record between Sophia Houghton "of Northborough, Mass." and David Hawthorn (sic) 26 May 1848 renders it very likely that these two Sophias are the same - the daughter of David Wheelock and Naomi Fairbanks. No other Sophia Houghton or Sophia Wheelock is known to be living in Northborough at the time; and the marriage to David Cawthorne is well established in the probate records, including the administration of estate of Naomi Wheelock (Worc Prob case 63769). The timing of the marriage is consistent with the births of the children of David and Sophia (though Sophia would have been in the advanced stages of pregnancy when she married David). Sophia and David are enumerated in the 1850 census living in Northborough; their son George Cawthorne was later adopted by Sophia's half brother, Henry P. Wheelock (see notes for Henry), after Sophia and David passed away.

The misspelling of the Cawthorne surname in the marriage record is unfortunate, but entirely plausible. An examination of the original record would be in order.

David Cawthorn, comb maker, born England, is enumerated in the 1850 census, age 29, living in Northborough with Sophia Cawthorn, age 40, born MA, Edwin Cawthorn, age 2, born MA, and William Cawthorn, age 19, born England, comb maker.

This family, minus Sophia, is enumerated in the 1855 MA state census living in Northborough: David Cawthorn, age 35, comb maker, born England, Catherine Cawthorn (second wife), age 26, born England, Edwin Cawthorn, age 7, born MA, David Cawthorn, Jr, age 5, born MA, and George Cawthorn, age 3, born MA.

George Cawthorn was adopted by Henry P. Wheelock (half uncle), and changed his surname to Wheelock.<sup>10021</sup> He is enumerated in the 1860 census as George Wheelock, living in the household of Henry P. Wheelock in Fitchburg, MA.

Notes for Catherine Burdin: Her Lowell marriage record to David Cawthorne refers to both of them as from Northborough.

Children of Sophia Wheelock and David Cawthorne:

- i. Edwin Cawthorne was born on 23 Jul 1848, in Northborough, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>10022</sup>
- ii. David Auston Cawthorne was born on 7 Aug 1850, in Northborough, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>10022</sup>
- iii. George A. Cawthorne was born on 23 Mar 1852, in Northborough, Worcester Co, MA,<sup>10023</sup> died on 27 Mar 1890, in Fitchburg, Worcester, MA,<sup>10024</sup> buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Fitchburg, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>10024</sup>

George was adopted by Henry P. Wheelock, of Fitchburg, Worcester Co, MA. He changed his surname to Wheelock. See notes for Henry P. Wheelock.

1537. Charles Wheelock (David<sup>1</sup>) was born on 1 Nov 1813, in Leominster, Worcester Co, MA,<sup>163</sup> died on 9 Apr 1866, in Leominster, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>9999</sup> He married Elizabeth Hastings on 2 Mar 1834, in Lancaster, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>32</sup> Elizabeth Hastings died on 24 Nov 1882, in Leominster, Worcester Co, MA,<sup>10025</sup> buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Leominster, MA.<sup>10026</sup>

Notes for Charles Wheelock: The evidence that this Charles Wheelock is the one that married Elizabeth Hastings of Boylston is based on the fact that (1) Charles, son of David and Naomi, was of the right age at the time of marriage, and (2) both Charles (son of David and Naomi) and Elizabeth (daughter of Thomas and E. Hastings) died in Leominster, MA, and (3) Charles and Elizabeth appear in Census records in Leominster.

Notes for Elizabeth Hastings: Elizabeth was from Boylston, MA.<sup>163</sup>

Children of Charles Wheelock and Elizabeth Hastings:

- i. Charles Albert Wheelock was born on 15 Jul 1834, in Lancaster, Worcester Co, MA,<sup>32</sup> died on 24 Aug 1871, in Sterling, Worcester Co, MA,<sup>10027</sup> buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Leominster, MA.<sup>10028</sup> He married Mary A. McMeekin on 31 Jan 1865, in Leominster, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>10029</sup>

This birth also appears in the Leominster Vital Records, as follows: "Charles Albert, s. Charles and Elizabeth D., born in Lancaster."

"C. Albert Wheelock, while in a state of intoxication, fell from an extra-camp meeting train at Sterling, and was fatally injured."<sup>10030</sup>

Charles mustered into service with the 15th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry 12 Jul 1861, age 26 years, 11 months and 27 days. His brother, William Everett Wheelock, also served in the 15th. William mustered into service with the 15th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry 24 Jul 1861. His brother, Charles Albert Wheelock, also served in the 15th. William ended his service 25 Aug 1861, due to disability. His brother, George Franklin Wheelock, served in the 21st Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry.<sup>10031</sup>

He died of consumption, per death certificate.

Children of George Fairbank Wheelock and Esther Jane Perkins:

Occupation: Shoe Maker. He married Mary E. Jones on 26 Sep 1859, in Waltham, Middlesex Co, MA.<sup>10043</sup> Mary E. Jones was born about 1837, in Windsor, Kennebec Co, ME,<sup>10043</sup> died on 1 Mar 1917, in Calais, Washington Co, ME,<sup>10044</sup> buried in Bien Venue Cemetery, Augusta, Kennebec Co, ME.<sup>10045</sup>

Notes for George Franklin Wheelock: He was at Waltham, MA, in 1860, age 24, shoe maker, with Mary E. Wheelock, age 23, and Sarah A Jones, age 31, factory operator.

On 19 Aug 1861 George Franklin Wheelock enlisted in the 21st Massachusetts Infantry where he was twice wounded and mustered out on 30 August 1864.<sup>10031</sup>

He was at Leominster in 1880, age 43, occupation "in jail," living in the household of his sister, Ellen E. (Wheelock) Gray, age 3, and her husband, Richard Gray, age 39, and their children, Annie E. Gray, age 10, Mabel Gray, age 8, and Irving R. Gray, age 3. His mother, Elizabeth Wheelock, age 68, was also in the household. His wife, Mary, was not listed.

Notes for Mary E. Jones: She was the daughter of Michael Jones, per marriage record.

She was probably the Mary E. Wheelock, age 70, widowed, living in Augusta ward 4, Kennebec Co, ME, with her sister, Emma Combs, age 68, both born in Maine.

She died in Calais, Washington Co, ME, 1 Mar 1917, age 79, daughter of Michael Jones and Fanny Wright, spouse of George Wheelock.

Children of George Franklin Wheelock and Mary E. Jones:

- i. William Austin Wheelock was born on 23 Aug 1865, in Leominster, Worcester Co, MA,<sup>10046</sup> died on 22 Mar 1932, in Milltown, Washington Co, ME,<sup>10047</sup> buried in Calais Cemetery, Calais, Washington Co, ME.<sup>10047</sup>

1540. Austin Augustus Wheelock (George Fairbank<sup>2</sup>, David<sup>1</sup>) was born on 9 Mar 1851, in Boston, Suffolk, MA,<sup>10037</sup> died on 9 Nov 1910, in Washington, DC.<sup>10037</sup> He married Fannie Smart Coverly on 19 Jun 1872, in Boston, Suffolk, MA.<sup>10037</sup> Fannie Smart Coverly was born on 14 Feb 1853, in Boston, Suffolk, MA,<sup>10037</sup> died on 16 Jul 1918.<sup>10037</sup>

Notes for Fannie Smart Coverly: Fannie was the daughter of James W. Coverly and Emma S. McInathan.

Children of Austin Augustus Wheelock and Fannie Smart Coverly:

- i. Fannie Austin Wheelock was born on 12 Mar 1880, in Boston, Suffolk Co, MA.<sup>10048</sup>

1541. Henry P. Wheelock was born on 26 Dec 1823, in Leominster, Worcester, MA,<sup>10004</sup> died on 21 Oct 1904, in Salem Depot, Rockingham Co, NH,<sup>10005</sup> buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Fitchburg, Worcester Co, MA.<sup>10049</sup> He married (1) Lucy Barker on 18 Nov 1848, in Rockingham, Windham, VT.<sup>10050</sup> Lucy Barker died on 14 Feb 1885.<sup>10051</sup> He married (2) Rosina Nelson on 21 Feb 1894, in Salem Depot, Rockingham Co, NH.<sup>10052</sup>

Notes for Henry P. Wheelock: There is no birth record for Henry P. Wheelock, but in all likelihood he was a son of Naomi (Fairbanks) Wheelock, born out of wedlock.

The evidence is as follows:

His 1894 New Hampshire marriage record to Rosina Nelson notes that he was born 1823 in Leominster, MA, and that his parents were Naomi and John Wheelock. The identity of John Wheelock is unknown; it's likely that he didn't exist. But there is only one Naomi Wheelock in Leominster at the time, namely Naomi (Fairbanks) Wheelock, widow of David Wheelock.

Henry adopted George Cawthorne, son of his half-sister, Sophia Wheelock and her husband, David Cawthorne, probably between 1854, when Sophia passed away, and 1860, when George is listed in the census living with Henry P. Wheelock, and his wife Lucy in Fitchburg, MA. Henry's half-sister Sophia was a daughter of Naomi and David Wheelock.

Henry's obituary indicates that he was born 26 Dec 1823 in Leominster, MA. Naomi's husband David had died in 1822, and could not have been the father. Naomi was known to live in Leominster on 24 Sep 1822, when she signed a document contained in her husbands probate file (Worc Probate Case 63646), and identified her residence as Leominster. Naomi was in Leominster in 1830, when she is enumerated in the census there, living with two young boys between the ages of 5 and 9. One of those would have been George Fairbank Wheelock, her eleventh and last child with David Wheelock. None of the other recorded children with David (her husband) would account for the second young boy. But he is of the right age to be Henry P. Wheelock, who would have been 7 at that time.

Naomi's administration of estate (Worcester County probate case 63769) lists her "legitimate" children, none of whom are Henry P. Wheelock. However the settlement of the estate includes payments out of the estate to Henry P. Wheelock. There is no near relative with that name, other than her out of wedlock child, Henry P. Wheelock.<sup>10053</sup>

Samuel Wheelock of Eden, Lamoille County, VT

1542. Samuel Wheelock was born on 21 Jun 1797,<sup>8351</sup> died in 1878,<sup>10054,10055</sup> buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Cambridge, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>10055</sup> He married (1) Polly Adams on 6 Jan 1820, in Waterville, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>8351</sup> Polly Adams was born in 1798,<sup>308</sup> died in 1841,<sup>308</sup> buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Cambridge, VT.<sup>308</sup> He married (2) Jerusha _____ DATE UNKNOWN.<sup>10056</sup> Jerusha _____ was born about 1802, in MA.<sup>10056</sup>

Notes for Samuel Wheelock: Samuel Wheelock was an early settler of Eden, VT. The first record of him there is a deed dated 13 Jan 1818 in which he appears as a grantee [1]. He is enumerated there in the 1820 Census, next to Martin Wheelock, with one other female adult living in the household, presumably his new wife, Polly Adams. He is enumerated in the 1830 Census living in Waterville with an adult female, four young boys, and two young girls. This tabulation agrees with the recorded births of his children in Waterville. In 1840 he is enumerated in Essex, Chittendon, VT with an adult female, six boys, and three girls. In 1850, he is enumerated in Colchester, Chittenden, VT, next to Willard Wheelock. He is listed as a house builder, age 50, born in NH, living with Jerusha Wheelock, age 47, son Timothy Wheelock, age 17, and daughters Columbia A. Wheelock, age 16, Eleanor Wheelock, age 8, and Emeline Wheelock, age 6. He is enumerated in the 1870 Census living in Burlington, VT, with his wife Jerusha.

The IGI shows the birth of Columbia Wheelock, 20 Aug 1834 in Waterville, presumed to be the daughter of Samuel and Polly (Adams) Wheelock.

The ancestry of Samuel Wheelock is not known for certain, but it is very likely he is either the sibling of, or closely related to brothers Daniel, Martin, and Walter, who settled Eden, VT in the same time frame. The following facts add weight to the argument: (1) Samuel appears next to Martin in the 1820 Census, (2) his Waterville record of birth (21 Jun 1797) fits well with the chronology of births in the family of Stephen and Lucretia (Newton) Wheelock, and (3) his place of birth (NH) indicated in the 1850 census is consistent with the location of the family at that time.

He died 1878 in Cambridge, per the Gazetteer of Lamoille and Orleans counties [2].

Notes for Jerusha _____: Jerusha Wheelock, widow, age 78, is enumerated in the 1880 Census living in the home of her son, Michael A. Wicker, In Vergennes, Addison Co, VT.

This is probably Jerusha Smith who married George F. Wicker, 6 Mar 1821 in Burlington, VT. Their son, Michael A. Wicker, born about 1827, married Mary G. Wilson 18 Jan 1881.<sup>10057</sup>

There is a Jerusha Wheelock, wife of Samuel, buried in Center Cemetery, Bethel, Fairfield Co, CT; died 1 Sep 1888, age 85 years.<sup>10058</sup>

Children of Samuel Wheelock and Polly Adams:

- i. Willard Wheelock was born on 16 Nov 1820, in Waterville, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>308</sup>

Willard Wheelock's name is difficult to discern in the Vermont VRs, and may Williard, William, or a variation. The VRs indicate that he was the first child of Polly Adams and Samuel Wheelock. He is enumerated in the 1850 Census next to his father in Colchester, Essex Co, VT, age 30, living with Maria Wheelock, age 26, born in England. His occupation is "carpenter & joiner".

A Willard Wheelock, age 59, is enumerated in the 1880 Census living in Jamestown, Tuolumne Co, CA with his wife Maria, his children Emma, William, and a third whose name cannot be discerned. He was born in Vermont, and his occupation is listed as "carpenter".

A Willard Wheelock, born 1820, died in Jamestown, CA, in 1899, is buried in the Jamestown Cemetery with his wife Marie, born 1824, died 1882.<sup>10059</sup> This is probably the same Willard. Buried nearby is Franklin R. Wheelock, died 27 Aug 1914, son of Willard and Maria<sup>10060</sup>

- 1543 ii. Edwin Wheelock was born on 17 Nov 1822, in Waterville, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>8351</sup> died in 1907.<sup>8352</sup>
iii. Lucinda Adams Wheelock was born on 2 Jul 1824, in Waterville, VT.<sup>308</sup>

The Vermont VRs indicate that Lucinda is the third child of Polly Adams and Samuel Wheelock.

- iv. William Clark Wheelock was born on 18 Jul 1826, in Waterville, VT.<sup>308</sup>

The Vermont VRs indicate that William Clark Wheelock was the fourth child of Polly Adams and Samuel Wheelock.

- v. Samuel Columbus Wheelock was born on 31 May 1828, in Waterville, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>8351</sup>
vi. Martha Maria Wheelock was born on 3 Apr 1830, in Waterville, VT.<sup>308</sup>

The Vermont VRs indicate that Martha is the 6th child of Polly Adams and Samuel Wheelock. A Martha Marie (Wheelock) Frederick, b. 1830, d. 18 Aug 1923, is buried in Myrtle Cemetery, outside the town of Kennedy, NY<sup>10061</sup>

- 1544 vii. Timothy Adams Wheelock was born on 18 Jun 1832, in Waterville, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>8351</sup> died in 1913.<sup>10062</sup>
viii. Columbia Wheelock was born on 20 Aug 1834, in Waterville, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>10063</sup>

A Columbia Wheelock (sic), age 30, born in Vermont, is enumerated in the 1870 Census living in Yonkers, NY, in the home of Eleanor Farnum, age 26, born in Vermont (probably her half sister), and George Farnum, age 28. She is enumerated in the 1910 Census, sister in law, living in Brooklyn, NY, again in the home of George W. Farnum, and Eleanor M. Farnum. She is listed as Columbia A. Wheelock, age 75, born in Vermont, father born in Vermont.

Children of Samuel Wheelock and Jerusha _____:

- i. Eleanor M. Wheelock was born about 1842, in VT.<sup>10056</sup> She married George W. Farnam.<sup>10064</sup>

This could be the Eleanor M. (Wheelock) Farnam buried in Wooster Cemetery, Danbury, Fairfield Co, CT (FindAGrave.com memorial number 13710279). The birth date matches. Also, her mother Jerusha seems to be buried in Fairfield Co too.

Her half sister, Columbia, is enumerated in the household of Eleanor Farnam and her husband, George Farnam, in the 1870 (Yonkers, NY) and 1910 (Brooklyn, NY) Federal Census; lending more support for the notion that this is the daughter of Jerusha and Samuel.

From the above, her husband was George Farnam. George and Eleanor Farnam are listed in the yearbook of the First Presbyterian Church, of Yonkers, NY, with a daughter, Grace Wheelock Farnam, born 15 Sep 1872.

According to "Commemorative Biographical Record of Fairfield County, CT", Chicago, J. H. Beers & Company, 1899, pg 590, (online at books.google.com) George W. Farnam, of Brooklyn, NY, married Miss Eleanor M. Wheelock, and had six children: Ethel (deceased), Ellen, Grace, Margaret, Ethel, and Eleanor.

- ii. Emeline Wheelock was born about 1844, in VT.<sup>10056</sup>

1543. Edwin Wheelock (Samuel<sup>1</sup>) was born on 17 Nov 1822, in Waterville, Lamoille Co, VT,<sup>8351</sup> died in 1907,<sup>8352</sup> buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Cambridge, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>8352</sup> He married (1) Laura Pierce on 30 Jul 1851.<sup>6510</sup> She was the daughter of Daniel Pierce and Lucy J. Wheelock.<sup>308,3409</sup> Laura Pierce was born in Oct 1831,<sup>3409</sup> died in 1886,<sup>6495</sup> buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Cambridge, Lamoille Co, VT.<sup>6495</sup> He married (2) Lucy C. Eaton on 20 Oct 1887.<sup>3412</sup>

Notes for Edwin Wheelock: Edwin Wheelock graduated from the University of Vermont, was a Congregational clergyman, a superintendent of Schools, a representative to the Vermont Legislature, and, briefly, a state senator. Children of Edwin Wheelock and Laura Pierce:

- i. Mary Wheelock was born about 1855.<sup>8353</sup> She married Byron Holmes in 1879.<sup>8354</sup>

Though Mary was not found in the Vermont Vital Records, her reference in "Men of Vermont: An Illustrated Biographical History" as "Mary Ella, wife of B. R. Holmes", a child of Edwin Wheelock and Laura Pierce; her appearance with Byron R. Holmes in Cambridge in the 1880 Federal Census; and the reference to her marriage to Byron Holmes in the Vermont normal school alumni records is taken as sufficient evidence to place her in this family.

Lucy Wheelock, educator, and founder of Wheelock College, was born 1 Feb 1857, in Cambridge, VT, the daughter of Edwin Wheelock and Laura Pierce. Her father graduated from the University of Vermont, was a Congregational clergyman, a superintendent of Schools, a representative to the Vermont Legislature, and, briefly, a state senator. Her mother was a teacher and briefly ran a small school. Her grandparents, Samuel Wheelock and Polly Adams were early settlers of Eden, VT.

Strong religious influence and upbringing characterized Lucy's early years in Cambridge, VT. It was through her mother's Bible readings and catechisms that she learned to read; and her fathers faith and religious influence affected her deeply, remaining with her as a positive force for the rest of her life. Her early education took place at home and in the small school that her mother ran for a year or two. At the age of twelve she went to Underhill Academy in Vermont, where she studied Latin, History, and other subjects. After a year at Underhill, she moved with a neighbor to Reading, MA, in order to attend high school. Here, in addition to her high school studies, she travelled into Boston for French lessons and began to learn translation, at which she became adept. Later, she would continue her study of languages, including German, and engaged in the translation of many works, including those of the German educator Friedrich Froebel, and some of the childrens stories of Johanna Spyri, author of Heidi.

After graduating from Reading High School in 1874, Lucy returned to Cambridge, VT, for a brief period of teaching. Her ambitions were to attend Wellesley College, which was set to open in 1875 as a model educational institution for women. To prepare for Wellesley, she applied to (and attended) the Chauncy-Hall School, one of the few private coeducational institutions in Boston. Here she met Alice Stone Blackwell, a fellow student who went on to become a leading women's rights activist, and editor of the Woman's Journal. The two remained close for life. Lucy continued her study of languages at Chauncy-Hall, and soon completed her college preparatory work for Wellesley. It was during this time that she visited a kindergarten class, and found her avocation. She was so taken with the idea of teaching children, that she dropped her Wellesley ambitions, and approached Elizabeth Peabody for advice on how to enter the profession of kindergarten education. Ms. Peabody, one of the first American followers of the educational philosophy of Friedrich Froebel, advised Lucy to enter the training school of Mrs. Ella Snelling Hatch, where Ms. Peabody was a frequent lecturer. And thus Lucy's education career was started.

Upon completion of kindergarten training in 1879, she returned to Chauncey-Hall where she taught the kindergarten class for ten years, an endeavor she enjoyed immensely. She revered Froebel, and followed his curriculum closely, but was not afraid to deviate from it when she felt the need. Her kindergarten became well known, even controversial. She was criticized by strict Froebellians for her deviation from the curriculum, and she had a steady stream of visitors who came to observe her teaching methods.

In 1888 Boston instituted kindergartens in the Boston Public Schools. Lucy was asked to establish a training class for teachers. She was reluctant to take on such a formidable task, but on advice, agreed to do so. The class was established and in time it began attracting students nationally. After two years it became an independent training school. Later, the Wheelock School expanded its curriculum, and, by 1939 had 325 students and 23 faculty.

With success of her class at Chauncey-Hall, Lucy soon became active in the kindergarten movement nationally. She served as president of the International Kindergarten Union (IKU) from 1895-1899. She chaired a committee appointed by the IKU to prepare a definitive report on the status of kindergarten philosophy and methods. During this time, she worked hard to unite the more liberal and conservative factions on this committee, but ultimately was unable to do so. She later became involved in the National Congress of Mothers, a forerunner of the Parent Teachers Association. In 1929 she was appointed to the education committee of the League of Nations.

Lucy was one of the first to apply kindergarten teaching methods to Sunday School classes. She taught classes throughout the 1880's and 90's, and became well known for her Sunday School teaching. She was soon asked to teach other Sunday School teachers. In these training classes, she showed how Froebel's methods could be used to improve their teaching, and enhance the interest of the students. Her Saturday afternoon training class at the Primary Sunday School Union was very popular, and led to requests for her to speak at Sunday School teachers conventions nationwide.

Lucy wrote extensively throughout her career. Among her translated works were "Red-Letter Stories" (1884) and "Swiss Stories for Children" (1887), both translated from the writings of Johanna Spyri, author of "Heidi". She produced numerous stories with moral themes for children which were well read in her time, including "Allan's Thanksgiving", "Clifton's Lunch", "Cousin Ruth", and "A Lily's Mission". During her Sunday school years she published a weekly column "Hints to Teachers" in The Congregationalist, and edited a weekly Boston Sunday school journal, The Child's Hour. In 1920 she published "Talks To Mothers" (with Elizabeth Colson), a book on the subject of child rearing, schooling, and the relationship between home and school.

She retired as director of the Wheelock School in 1939. The school was incorporated in that year, and in 1941 it became Wheelock College. Lucy Wheelock died in Boston, Massachusetts, on October 2, 1946.

Charles Wheelock, Irish Immigrant

Notes for Charles Wheelock: The ancestry of Charles Wheelock is not known. It is possible that he is the son of Samuel Wheelock and Frances Miller who lived in the Diocese of Ossory, Leinster Province, Ireland. The genealogy of Samuel and Frances has been documented on www.ancientfaces.com, without reference to sources. Unfortunately, Charles is not listed as a son of Samuel and Frances in this genealogy; instead, there is a gap in the birth record where he would have appeared.

The following quote was taken from the family records of Scott Wheelock, a descendant of Charles Wheelock and Lydia Brown. The author of the quote is not given.

Charles Wheelock was born four miles from Dublin in 1789 and came to this country (New York City) in 1810, at the age of 21 and was in business as a tallow chandler in New York City until 1839. He then moved to a farm in the town of Ulysses, Tompkins Co, NY, a few miles from Ithaca. This he named "Rosedale". He carried on the farm here many years. He mortgaged the property to raise money to assist his son, Charles M. Wheelock. The latter, who had consumption, was a stock broker in New York City. During or immediately after the Civil War Charles M. Wheelock failed and his father lost the farm and moved to Ithaca where both he and his wife died.

Notes for David Lorenzo Wheelock: Headstone inscriptions: Illinois/PVT/161 Depot Brigade/World War I

David and Clara divorced before 1930, when both appear separately in the census records. The children are living with Clara in the 1930 Census. But most are living with David Sr and his second wife Pearl B. in the 1940 Census; with the exception of Lawrence, who died young, Gene, who went to live with his uncle Fred, and Betty, who was adopted by her aunt Elizabeth, and her husband Bernard Newberg.

Notes for Clara De Freezer: As of July 2019, Clara's birth is reported by various family trees on Ancestry.com and FamilySearch.org as 2 Jan 1904, Sheffield, Bureau Co, IL; but original sources to confirm the date have not been found.

She married David Lorenzo Wheelock 13 Jan 1920, Sheffield, Bureau Co, IL.<sup>10140</sup>

Clara Wheelock, age 26, divorced, is enumerated in the 1930 census renting in East Moline, Rock Island Co, IL, with her children: Elaine, 8, Henry, 7, David, 5, Richard, 4, Gene, 2 1/12, and Betty M, 6/12. Per census, she was married at age 16.

She was divorced from David on 20 Oct 1930, Rock Island Co, IL.<sup>10141</sup>

After her divorce from David, she married three men in relatively quick succession, divorcing each after six or seven years - apparently without children. In 1952 she married James Lomax Dean, with whom she spent the remaining twenty years of her life, living in Des Moines, Iowa, where she is buried.

Research Notes:

Clara Wheelock married Floyd Moneymaker 1 Nov 1930 in Rock Island Co, IL. The marriage certificate identifies her parents as John De Freezes and Marie De Bate, her birth place as Sheffield, Illinois.<sup>10142</sup>

Floyd and Clara are listed together in the Rock Island city directory in 1931 and 1932. Neither are listed in the 1933 city directory. Mrs. Clara Moneymaker is listed in the 1934 and 1935 Moline city directories, without Floyd.<sup>10143</sup>

By 1936 she is using the Wheelock surname again. Clara Wheelock is tabulated in the 1936 and 1937 Rock Island, Rock Island Co, IL city directories, working as a maid at the Central Hotel.<sup>10144</sup>

In 1938, she is again tabulated as Clara Moneymaker, in Rock Island, Rock Island Co, IL city directory, divorced, working as a maid at the Central Hotel.<sup>10145</sup>

On 3 June 1938 she was granted a divorce from Floyd Moneymaker in Rock Island County. No children mentioned.<sup>10146</sup>

Clara Moneymaker and Theodore Jack Enfield, both of Rock Island, Illinois, were married 2 July 1938, at Davenport, Iowa. The marriage certificate identifies Clara's place of birth as Sheffield, Ill, and her parents as John DeFriesse and Marie DeBates. It was Clara's third marriage.<sup>10130</sup>

Clara I. Enfield, 36, and Theodore J. Enfield, 22, are enumerated in the 1940 census living in Rock Island, Rock Island Co, IL. Clara's occupation is given as maid, and Theodore's is given as a truck driver. No children are shown.<sup>10147</sup>

On 21 Aug 1945, Clara was granted a divorce from Theodore J. Enfield, no children mentioned in the settlement.<sup>10148</sup>

On 27 Oct 1945, Clara Ida Enfield married Robert Greene Davis in Rock Island County, Illinois. The marriage certificate identifies her parents as John DeFreiss and Marie DeBates.<sup>10149</sup>

The marriage license application for Clara and Robert was announced in the 30 Oct 1945 Daily Times (Davenport, IA), p. 20, under "Applications for Marriage Licenses." It reads: "Robert Green Davis and Mrs. Clara Ida Enfield of Rock Island."

By 1 Apr 1952 Clara Davis had filed a divorce suit against Robert G. Davis; the divorce was granted 12 Apr 1952.<sup>10150</sup>

An unsourced family tree at Ancestry.com cites a 16 Apr 1952 marriage for Clara Davis and James Lomax Dean, in Birmingham, Alabama; sources not identified.<sup>10151</sup>

The 21 Oct 1960 obituary of Clara's mother, Mary DeFreezer, of Sheffield, IL, makes reference to three surviving daughters, one of whom is Mrs. Clara Dean, of Birmingham, Ala.<sup>10152</sup>

Mary DeFreezers probate records, in Bureau Co, IL identifies Clara's address as 4500 40th Place, Birmingham, Alabama. The 1960 Birmingham city directory shows James L. Dean and Clara I. Dean living at that address. A more thorough examination of the Birmingham, Alabama city directory shows that James L. Dean and Clara I. Dean (middle initial sometimes D, M, I) had been living at that address since 1953 (but not earlier). The occupation of James L. Dean is given as "stereotyper Birmingham News." [Srcs: Mary DeFreezers probate record, retrieved from Bureau Co clerks office, Sheffield, Illinois by Ruth Ann (Newberg) Scott, July 2019. James Lomax Dean was born in Dothan, Alabama. His father, apparently, was from Alabama, but his mother was from Iowa. He was living in Davenport, Iowa in 1944, working for the local newspaper, and was again in Davenport in 1950, when his first wife died. [Srcs: James Lomax Dean story, Quad City Times (Davenport, Iowa), 27 Aug 1944, p. 30; also "Mrs. Lomax Dean Dies in Davenport, Iowa," obituary, Dothan Eagle (Dothan, Alabama), 11 Apr 1950, p. 2, col. 7; database with images, Newspapers.com, accessed July 2019.]

Clara I. Dean died in Des Moines, Iowa on 20 April 1972, having lived there with James L. Dean since 1965. Her (minimal) obituary was published in the 21 April 1972 edition of the Des Moines Tribune, page 13, col 1. It reads as follows:

"Mrs. James L. Dean: Services will be at 9:30 a.m. Monday at Dunn's Funeral Home on Grand Avenue for Mrs. James L. Dean, 55, of 2213 Fifty-third St. Burial will be in Glendale Cemetery. Mrs. Dean died Thursday at Mercy Hospital of a heart ailment. She had been ill about two weeks. Mrs. Dean was born in Sheffield, Ill, and lived in Des Moines seven years. Her husband survives."

The Dunn Funeral Home records confirm that her first name is Clara, and that she was born in Sheffield, Il. The birth date is given as 2 Jan 1917 (sic). The parents are listed as 'unknown'.<sup>10153</sup>

The obituary, the funeral home records, and her grave marker in Glendale Cemetery all indicate a birth date of 1917, which is problematic, given that she was born in 1904. Coincidentally, her husband was born in 1917, which might provide an explanation for why James L. Dean thought his wife was born in the same year (he was the informant on the funeral home record). Probably Clara was not totally honest with her husband about her age. She had married younger men before, and it's likely she just didn't want to admit her true age to her husband. The other records are consistent with the 1904 birth date.

There is another record that provides inconsistent information. Clara's brother, Peter DeFreezer, died in May 1975. His obituary is published in the Princeton County Record (Princeton, Sheffield Co, Illinois), p. 4, col. 1.<sup>10154</sup> Surviving relatives are listed in the obituary, including Mrs. David (Clara) Wheelock, Des Moines, Iowa. Obviously, the informant for this obituary, probably Peter DeFreezer's wife, Ruth (Hull) DeFreezer, was unaware of Clara's death, and of her new married name, but did seem to know that she had resided in Des Moines.

Notes for Robert Green Davis: Per obituary, his parents were James and Jennie Davis.

Notes for Elijah Wheelock: The ancestry of Elijah is not know for certain; but it is possible he is the son of Phinehas Wheelock and Prudence Dodge, of Surry, NH. The "History of Surry", by Frank B. Kingsbury, 1925, says the following about Elijah: "parentage unknown, came from Alstead to Surry, was taxed 1809, kept tavern that year and removed from here after a year or two. He m. Anna _____, b. abt 1780; d. at Surry a widow 7 Aug 1856; buried Surry; lived at No. 122 and is remembered as 'The little old lady Wheelock'". The Alstead marriage record for Elijah Wheelock and Anna Straw indicates that Elijah was from Walpole, and Anna from Alstead. The children shown here (Phinehas, Hiram, John, and Caroline) are all taken from NH birth records. Elijah's NH death record gives age 35 when he died.

A Phineas Wheelock (sic) of the right age (42) and birthplace (NH) is enumerated in the 1850 census living in Marlborough, Middlesex Co, MA, with his wife Elizabeth, age 26, born in VT, Caroline, age 16, Mary J., age 7, Ann M., age 4, and Lavina L, age 1. 6. Genealogists have variously reported that Rev. Wheelock married Rebecca Barber, Rebecca Wilkinson, and Rebecca Clark. An article by Christopher Gleason Clark, in the January 1998 issue of The New England Historical and Genealogical Register, vol 152, entitled "The English Ancestry of Joseph Clark (1613-1683) of Dedham and Medfield, Massachusetts" provides compelling evidence that Rev. Wheelock indeed married Rebecca Clarke. The key components of this evidence are as follows. First, the parish registers of Wrappingham, County of Norfolk, England, contain a recording of the marriage between Ralph Wheelock, cleric, and Rebecca Clarke, 17 May 1630. Second, the will of Rebecca's father, Thomas Clark, refers to his granddaughter Marye Wheelock. Third, the baptism of Marye Wheelock, daughter of Ralph Wheelock, cleric, is recorded in the Banham, County of Norfolk parish registers. (Banham is near Wrappingham). Fourth, the will of William Clark, uncle to Elizabeth Clarke, is witnessed by Ralph Wheelocke "in his unmistakable hand". Ralph Wheelock's will refers to George Barber as his "brother-in-law". This led to the speculation that the maiden name of Rebecca must have been Barber. But it is shown in the article that George Barber married Rebecca Clarke's sister, Elizabeth Clarke, thereby explaining the reference in Ralph Wheelock's will.

(Mr. Wheelock's original source is not known at the time this footnote was written.) Other Wheelock genealogies have reported that Rebecca was born at sea, and that Mary was born at sea. The research of Christopher Gleason Clark disproves the assertions that Mary or Rebecca were born on ship, leaving Peregrina as the only candidate, since the birth place of the remaining children is well accounted for.

378. Massachusetts Secretary of the Commonwealth, Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolutionary War, 17 Volumes, (Boston: Secretary of the Commonwealth, 1907), Vol. 16, p. 1005. Inferred by process of elimination. There were four John Wheelocks from Lancaster/Leominster alive during the revolution. And there were four John Wheelocks from Lancaster who served in the Revolutionary War - John Wheelock, drummer, John Wheelock, fifer, John Wheelock, sergeant, John Wheelock, private. The service records of these four extend past the lifespan of one of the John Wheelocks of Lancaster - the John Wheelock who married Martha Wood - so he is excluded from consideration. John Wheelock drummer is known to be the son of John and Mary (Holman) Wheelock, per his pension record. Based on overlapping service records, the fifer, drummer, and sergeant must be distinct people. The fifer is probably the John Wheelock who married Sarah Willis, based on the use of the Junr. suffix (he was also called Junr. in the records, and sometimes the 3rd), and the fact that musicians were often younger men. By elimination, that leaves John Wheelock who married Mary Holman as the only remaining candidate for the sergeant. The John Wheelock private overlaps the

- services records of the drummer, but fits within the service records of the other two candidates. Most likely he was John Wheelock fifer, since it is unlikely that John Wheelock sergeant would have later served as private.
